Containing Community Greg Bird, 2016-09-21

Analyzes the role of community in the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy Community has been both celebrated and demonized as a fortress that shelters and defends its members from being exposed to difference Instead of abandoning community as an antiquated model of relationships that is ill suited for our globalized world this book turns to the writings of Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jean Luc Nancy in search for ways to rethink community in an open and inclusive manner Greg Bird argues that a central piece of this task is found in how each philosopher rearticulates community not as something that is proper to those who belong and improper to those who are excluded or where inclusion is based on one's share in common property We must return to the forgotten dimension of sharing not as a sharing of things that we can contain and own but as a process that divides us up and shares us out in community with one another This book traces this problem through a wide array of fields ranging from biopolitics communitarianism existentialism phenomenology political economy radical philosophy and social theory

Western Jesuit Scholars in India Francis X. Clooney,

S.J., 2020-04-14 This book collects fifteen essays and book sections about the Jesuits in India written over a period of more than thirty years Many of these pieces unavailable for years now appear together for the first time The essays open a window on the 450 year Jesuit history in India from Roberto de Nobili in the seventeenth century to the leading Jesuit scholars of the twentieth and twenty first centuries The volume looks back into this long missionary history but Clooney's eye is also on the question of relevance today How ought interreligious learning take place in the twenty first century Western Jesuit Scholars in India is a fascinating collection of studies of 17th 21st century Jesuit writings in and about classical India By his methods and questions Francis Clooney Indologist and Jesuit theologian exposes certain aporias and deficiencies latent in Indology It concludes with a notable proposal of an interfaith sensibility Gerard Colas Directeur de recherche m rit Centre National de la Recherche scientifique Paris Francis X Clooney's Western Jesuit Scholars in India is that of a humanist He is not only a studious and assiduous reader of texts in languages and intellectual idioms that few scholars are capable of untangling but is also committed to finding deep human and spiritual connections detecting the intellectual empathies and affinities that the Jesuit missionaries had labored to bring out in their writings over half a millennium With a clear and engaging pen impressive erudition and intellectual humility before the truly difficult task Clooney studies what is undoubtedly one of the most fascinating chapters in Jesuit intellectual history the encounter with Indian philosophical and textual traditions Seekers of knowledge and cultural understanding of all stripes will find in this book plenty of wisdom some surprises and a large historical canvas stretching from Italy to India and back and beyond Ines Gupanov Senior Fellow Centre d etudes de l Inde et de l Asie du Sud CNRS Paris

Peace in Latin America David Díaz Arias, Christine Hatzky, Werner Mackenbach, Sebastián Martínez Fernández, Joachim Michael, Hinnerk Onken, 2024-12-30 This volume shifts the focus from violence to peace studies in Latin America and sheds light on how social groups and individuals resist to violence and strive to create peaceful or at least less violent conditions of conviviality Drawing on social sciences history and anthropology but also on cultural literary and film studies the book examines the role of social mobilizations civic activism and cultural artistic initiatives as responses to the crisis of violence which the state is unable or unwilling to address In this sense it debates what a culture of peace could mean in Latin America Divided into four chapters Chapter 1 discusses peace from an epistemological and philosophical perspective In Chapter 2 the authors discuss the contours of a culture of peace with a particular focus on literary and cinematic narratives Chapter 3 analyses the public debate about the role of the state in peace processes in the case of Costa Rica Central America Chapter 4 examines the importance of civil society activities in peace processes Peace in Latin America is written for a wide and diverse audience that includes researchers professors specialists students civil society activists and political actors not only from Latin America but from all over the world

Conversations of the Mind Rebecca William Mlynarczyk, 2013-10-18 Asking students to write journals that reflect on their learning has become a widespread pedagogical practice in recent years However the scholarly literature does not address certain key questions about how journal writing aids learning Is there something inherent in journal writing that encourages students to write reflectively What psycholinguistic or cognitive factors help to explain the power of journal writing Why do some students use journals to write prolifically and creatively while others limit their responses to summarizing the assigned course reading Why do teachers find some journal entries so much more engaging than others How do teachers ways of responding to journals affect their students development as writers and thinkers This book addresses such questions through a careful analysis of the journal writing of the students in the author's ESL classes at a large urban college It contains detailed case studies of five culturally and linguistically diverse students with widely differing responses to journal writing To teachers of composition for both first and second language students and to teachers of graduate courses in education and qualitative research this book offers a contextualized description of journal writings as a complex social activity By emphasizing the need for educators to reexamine their pedagogy and to learn from their students Conversations of the Mind is an indispensable contribution to the emerging literature of teacher research and reflective practice

Shaping the Journey of Emerging Adults Richard R. Dunn, Jana L. Sundene, 2012-02-23 In this book Veteran disciplinarians Rick Dunn and Jana Sundene offer concrete guidance for those who shepherd and care for emerging adults emphasizing relational rhythms of discernment intentionality and reflection to meet emerging adults where they are at and then to walk with them further into the Christlife

The Routledge Companion to Marxisms in Art History Tijen Tunali, Brian Winkenweder, 2025-03-31 This companion is an essential

contribution to the study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure concept or historical epoch Increasingly scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony ideology and identity Ideological issues of connoisseurship patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxisms in art history This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and T J Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio historical conditions that impact how art is produced circulated and received This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies visual sociology communication studies and the sociology of art
