Reflexive Modernization Politics Tradition And Aesthetics In The Mod:

Reflexive Modernization Ulrich Beck,Anthony Giddens,Scott Lash,1994 Three prominent social thinkers discuss how modern society is undercutting its formations of class stratum occupations sex roles the nuclear family and more Reflexive modernization or the way one kind of modernization undercuts and changes another has wide ranging implications for contemporary social and cultural theory as this provocative book demonstrates Reflexive Modernization Ulrich Beck,Anthony Giddens,Scott Lash,1994-01 In this book three social thinkers discuss the implications of reflexive modernization for social and cultural theory today Ulrich Beck s vision of the risk society has already become influential Beck offers a new elaboration of his basic ideas connecting reflexive modernization with new issues to do with the state and political organization Giddens offers an in depth examination of the connections between institutional reflexivity and the de traditionalizing of the modern world We are entering he argues a phase of the development of a global society A global society is not a world society but one with universalizing tendencies Lash develops the theme of reflexive modernization in relation to aesthetics and the interpretation of culture In this domain he suggests we need to look again at the conventional theories of postmodernism aesthetic modernization has distinctive qualities that need to be uncovered and analyzed

Crisis Communication, Liberal Democracy, and Ecological Sustainability Majia Nadesan,2016-05-18 Crisis Communication Liberal Democracy and Ecological Sustainability provides a detailed and empirical analysis of the institutions governing logics risk management practices and crisis communication strategies involved in the 2007 2008 financial crisis the 2010 BP oil crisis and the 2011 Fukushima Daiichi nuclear crisis These human engineered crises threaten sustainability through resource depletion environmental degradation and the growth of geo political conflicts Yet the corporations responsible have returned to profitability by externalizing risks to communities and governments In response to this pattern of crisis management Nadesan argues that contemporary financial and energy complexes pose significant threats to liberal democracy and ecological sustainability This book will be of interest to scholars of communication studies cultural studies sociology political science anthropology and economics Crisis of Authority Nancy Luxon,2013-09-23 Contemporary social and political theory has reached an impasse about a problem that had once seemed straightforward how can individuals make ethical judgments about power and politics Crisis of Authority analyzes the practices that bind authority trust and truthfulness in contemporary theory and politics Drawing on newly available archival materials Nancy Luxon locates two models for such practices in Sigmund Freud s writings on psychoanalytic technique and Michel Foucault s unpublished lectures on the ancient ethical practices of fearless speech or parrhesia Luxon argues that the dynamics provoked by the figures of psychoanalyst and truth teller are central to this process Her account offers a more supple understanding of the modern ethical subject and new insights into political authority and authorship State, Market and Organizational Form Ayse Bugra,Behlül Üsdiken,2011-06-24 No detailed description available for State Market and Organizational Form Germany's Struggle for Modernity Jürgen Kocka, Volker Berghahn, 2025-04-01 In the historiography of modern Germany the nineteenth century's innovations marks a period of seismic change From accelerating demographic growth to growing secularization and the rise of nationalism it was a century which laid the foundations for both a civil society and the dictatorships of the twentieth century In this comprehensive history of Germany from 1780 to 1918 Jürgen Kocka re-examines the transformative interactions that took place between society economy culture and politics Innovatively resituating these developments within a wider context of conflict and transformation in Europe this book illuminates new ways to understand the emergence of classical modernity within the nineteenth century Standards Lawrence Busch, 2013-08-16 An investigation into standards the invisible infrastructures of our technical moral social and physical worlds Standards are the means by which we construct realities There are established standards for professional accreditation the environment consumer products animal welfare the acceptable stress for highway bridges healthcare education for almost everything We are surrounded by a vast array of standards many of which we take for granted but each of which has been and continues to be the subject of intense negotiation In this book Lawrence Busch investigates standards as recipes for reality Standards he argues shape not only the physical world around us but also our social lives and even our selves Busch shows how standards are intimately connected to power that they often serve to empower some and disempower others He outlines the history of formal standards and describes how modern science came to be associated with the moral technical project of standardization of both people and things Busch suggests guidelines for developing fair equitable and effective standards Taking a uniquely integrated and comprehensive view of the subject Busch shows how standards for people and things are inextricably linked how standards are always layered even if often addressed serially and how standards are simultaneously technical social moral legal and ontological devices The Future of Union Organising G. Gall, 2009-07-07 While union organising has developed over time and in many different environments it has become apparent that a number of key problems have developed Evaluating its efficacy in terms of union strategies tactics styles and resources this title outlines a number of strategies for improving these deficiencies Coping and Suicide amongst the Lads F. Garcia, 2016-04-08 For every female suicide in Ireland there are five male suicides This book is based on fieldwork done in and around Cork Ireland between 2008 and 2012 among some forty young lads aged 18-34 This anthropological approach aims to help explain why some groups in a specific society or community are more prone to commit suicide than others In addition to suicide this book focuses extensively on related issues such as alcohol drug abuse and other self-destructive behaviors prominent within Irish lad culture This includes peer pressures and loyalties chauvinistic jargon homophobic bullying humor and the culture of mocking so as to grasp the cultural expectations of this particular form of masculinity The everyday workings of gender segregation and gender appropriateness is examined in detail by informants while addressing the underlying question whether increased gender equality which includes men could lessen young men's vulnerability to self destructive behaviors and suicide in Ireland Risk, Complexity and ICT Ole Hanseth, Claudio Ciborra, 2007-01-01 Explores the challenges regarding risks and risk management related to the growing complexity of ICT solutions This book draws upon theories of risk society and reflexive modernization and uses various case studies to demonstrate efforts aimed at controlling and managing the complexities of various ICT solutions Which Religion, What Ideology? Janez Juhant, Bojan Zalec, 2016 The book deals with the relationship of religion ideology violence and peace The authors discuss these topics and related phenomena such as religious intolerance religious pluralism political terror and post secular culture from different aspects education marriage culture of memory business ethics in different concrete societal contexts including Slovenia Slovakia Hungary Poland Taiwan and more Against this background of different academic disciplines philosophy theology science of religion sociology intellectual history psychology science of education and legal science this book offers an integral and interdisciplinary insight into the nature origins function and connections of religion ideology violence and peace Series Theology East West Theologie Ost West Vol 19 Subject Religious Studies Sociology Peace Studies Social Perspectives on Mobility Thyra Uth Thomsen, Lise Drewes Nielsen, Henrik Gudmundsson, 2016-12-05 Globalisation is heavily dependent on physical transport as people and goods travel over longer distances and with higher frequency Movement and mobility have become integrated parts of late modern identity and practice and a state of flux can be sensed everywhere Bringing together the latest interdisciplinary theoretical approaches with empirical case studies analysing and appraising innovative policies from Scandinavia this volume demonstrates that mobility research is a key issue within social enquiry It addresses three broad themes Firstly mobility as a constructed social reality examining how individuals construct notions of mobility in their everyday life and practice Secondly mobility as spatial co ordination and transgression and finally mobility as a policy theme where the contributors explore recent developments in transport policy at national and European levels suggesting ways forward for both research and policy In the final section of the book new visions for research into sustainability and mobility are laid out Social Theory and Aging Jason L. Powell, 2006 This book explores both conceptual and theoretical issues that impinge on understanding aging in post modern society It analyses how knowledge formation of aging with particular reference to old age in contemporary western society is socially constituted and positioned by powerful taken for granted assumptions These assumptions have provided a power knowledge base for bio medical disciplines legitimacy of political economic discourses and practices of professional experts The book is in two parts the first part introduces modernist scientific models and theories of gerontology and questions their importance in mapping out the assumptions of aging and how they impinge on identity performance in society through disciplinary matrix of biology psychology and social conceptualizations of gerontology the second part focus upon postmodern constructions aging through the articulation and development of novel epistemologies postmodernism and aging body discourse and power knowledge and aging in the risk society The book addresses a key question can meta theories provide an effective analysis of aging which is radically different from modernist grand narratives as epitomized by not only bio medical models of aging but also of mainstream social theories of gerontology
