The Christian Librarian ,1995 8 Crazy Moments in Time Douglas J. McGregor,2016-04-20 Three excerpts from the eight stories Antietam I had read the cornstalks ranged between six and ten feet high from my perspective the stalks looked higher The light wind eerily swayed the late summer corn and the first slants of daylight hit the field The glint of the sun bouncing off the bayonets chilled my blood and with utter fascination I watched the Confederates move about in the green and yellow of the corn like gray ants The Time Machine The dog grinned coyly I know what youre thinking maybe you can get to me and if I were you Id be thinking that too but shovel or not everything is drenched in gas even the shovel Rex allowed his words ample time to be absorbed before adding Youre gonna catch on fire That cant be avoided No matter how smart you are you cant think of a way out Cuz there is no way out You are trapped The Last Cubicle A long pause ensued as he stared into her eyes and then he quietly asked Why am I sitting in the last cubicle with an angel A sheet of paper appeared in her hand and she pointed at the letterhead Spell D E Mood backwards

The Sign of the End of the Age Paul Kalbach, 2016-12-13 There is a small groundswell of thinking in the evangelical church that we may not have achieved a proper biblical understanding of end times events It is important for us to return to a careful study of these things because the time is near In The Sign of the End of the Age What Jesus Taught about the Future in Matthew 24 author Paul Kalbach helps you discover or rediscover the Olivet Discourse the Lord's clear road map that all other prophetic Scriptures must reckon with To understand the discourse we must answer one critical question what is Matthew 24 about the future program for Israel or the end of the age events for all believers including the church Kalbach presents extensive arguments that show a different timing and sequence of events than is usually taught by proponents of the pretribulation rapture position His in depth study adheres to a most literal interpretation method The Sign of the End of the Age seeks to bring a deeper understanding of the end times period vital in a world that shows every sign that this time is near

Jonathan Leeman,2020-03-26 Many churches are switching to the multisite or multiservice models to manage crowded sanctuaries due to growing attendance This solution seems sensible in the short term but too often churches adopt this model without taking into consideration what the Bible says about it Illuminating the importance of physical togetherness as a way to protect the gospel this book argues that maintaining a single assembly best embodies the unity the church possesses in Jesus Christ Jonathan Leeman considers a series of biblical theological and pastoral arguments that ask us to stop and examine intuitions or assumptions about what a church is He reorients our minds to a biblical definition of church offering examples of churches that have thrived with a single service at a single site and compelling alternatives for those looking to solve the complications that come with a growing church Gardens in the Wasteland Bjorn Asserhed,2025-08-04 Gardens in the Wasteland is an ethnographic study of Christian formation within three Swedish church plants working against a backdrop of advanced secularization The thesis analyses the formative practices employed by these church plants with the intention of forming persons towards a lived Christian identity Employing a situated learning theory framework it traces the formative trajectories and negotiations that emerge from these shared practices and also examines the articulations of callings and intentions within these church plants The findings reveal that the establishment of a church plant often stems from a sense of place oriented calling that encompasses a vision of vibrant Christian life and community These church plants cultivate formative practices aimed at certain teloi that guide individuals on their journeys towards a lived Christian identity Through participation in these practices individuals align them selves with the church plant s vision of Christian life This identity formation process is not static but rather involves ongoing negotiations both on a personal and community level as individuals grapple with the meaning of Christian identity and faith amidst an increasingly secularized society

The Workes of ... William Perkins. The First Volume: Newly Corrected According to His Owne Copies, Etc William PERKINS (Fellow of Christ's College, Cambridge.),1635 Holy Things Gordon W. Lathrop, New in paperback Cyril of Jerusalem wrote about holy things He thereby reflected the communion invitation used in his fourth century liturgy to call people to taste and see that the Lord is good Mystagogical Catecheses The present times call for strong and healthy symbols that hold people into hope The Christian communities need a reintroduction into the ways in which liturgical symbols respond to human need Indeed Lathrop argues Christian communities continually need to reconsider the meaning of their liturgies and reform those liturgies toward authentic clarity In its three parts this book 1 proposes that an ecumenical pattern or ordo of worship can be discerned which is also a pattern of meaning 2 discusses the ways in which meaning occurs in the meeting for worship itself and 3 draws practical conclusions about the organization of that meeting and its importance to current human need Throughout Lathrop undertakes to do theology that is to say what the liturgy actually says about God

When the fig tree buds and puts forth new leaves we know summer is near How do we know when Christs coming and His Kingdom are near Israel is described as the fig tree or the clock that we are to examine to know the time For almost 2000 years the fig tree Israel was quiet and dormant Throughout the Church age from A D 70 when General Titus of the Roman Empire destroyed the Temple in Jerusalem until Hitler and World War II very little happened to the Jewish people The new leaves began to appear when six million Jews were killed in World War II New leaves appeared in 1948 when they became a nation and again when their barren wasteland became like a garden More new leaves appeared when they became a great army In 1989 the Berlin Wall was torn down and millions were freed from the Soviet Union For almost 2000 years nothing seemed to be happening Now what is left for Israel and how fast will it happen We are told in Daniel 9 24 they will be saved as a nation in the seventieth week of Daniel What do we see happening to Israel on the way to Armageddon After almost 2000 years of silence the fig tree started to bloom beginning with World War II It is amazing how much has happened since then How soon will the remaining signs occur and how quick will the coming of Christs Kingdom be
