Retribution The Jiling Chronicles:

Retribution Yongping Li, 2003 Retribution opens with the raucous festivities surrounding the annual procession to honor the Bodhisattva Guanyin Changsheng the young wife of the local coffin maker Liu Laoshi is raped while making an offering to Guanyin in the hope of increasing her chances of bearing a son Changsheng hangs herself following the encounter and Liu Laoshi exacts bloody vengeance on the rapist's own wife and favorite prostitute This act of sexual violence and its retribution provide the narrative pivot around which is woven a web of interconnecting stories whose characters and events provide divergent perspectives on the rape and its aftermath The result is an unforgettable exploration of the intersections of sexual desire sadism folk belief and the inexorable cycles of karmic retribution      Retribution Yung-p'ing Li, 2003-09-25

Retribution opens with the raucous festivities surrounding the annual procession to honor the Bodhisattva Guanyin Changsheng the young wife of the local coffin maker Liu Laoshi is raped while making an offering to Guanyin in the hope of increasing her chances of bearing a son Changsheng hangs herself following the encounter and Liu Laoshi exacts bloody vengeance on the rapist's own wife and favorite prostitute This act of sexual violence and its retribution provide the narrative pivot around which is woven a web of interconnecting stories whose characters and events provide divergent perspectives on the rape and its aftermath The result is an unforgettable exploration of the intersections of sexual desire sadism folk belief and the inexorable cycles of karmic retribution      Affective Geographies and Narratives of Chinese Diaspora Melody Yunzi Li, Robert T. Tally Jr., 2022-09-21 In various ways Chinese diasporic communities seek to connect and re connect with their homelands in literature film and visual culture The essays in Affective Geographies and Narratives of Chinese Diaspora examine how diasporic bodies and emotions interact with space and place as well as how theories of affect change our thinking of diaspora Questions of borders and border crossing not to mention the public and private spheres in diaspora literature and film raise further questions about mapping and spatial representation and the affective and geographical significance of the push and pull movement in diasporic communities The unique experience is represented differently by different authors across texts and media In an age of globalization in the Chinese Century the spatial representation and cultural experiences of mobility displacement settlement and hybridity become all the more urgent The essays in this volume respond to this urgency and they help to frame the study of Chinese diaspora and culture today      A New Literary History of Modern China David Der-wei Wang, 2017-05-22 Literature from the Chinese perspective makes manifest the cosmic patterns that shape and complete the world a process of worlding that is much more than mere representation In that spirit A New Literary History of Modern China looks beyond state sanctioned works and official narratives to reveal China as it has seldom been seen before through a rich spectrum of writings covering Chinese literature from the late seventeenth century to the present Featuring over 140 Chinese and non Chinese contributors from throughout the world this landmark volume explores unconventional forms as well as traditional genres pop song lyrics and presidential speeches political treatises and prison house jottings to name just a few Major figures such as Lu Xun Shen Congwen Eileen Chang and Mo Yan appear in a new light while lesser known works illuminate turning points in recent history with unexpected clarity and force Many essays emphasize Chinese authors influence on foreign writers as well as China's receptivity to outside literary influences Contemporary works that engage with ethnic minorities and environmental issues take their place in the critical discussion alongside writers who embraced Chinese traditions and others who resisted Writers assessments of the popularity of translated foreign language classics and avant garde subjects refute the notion of China as an insular and inward looking culture A vibrant collection of contrasting voices and points of view A New Literary History of Modern China is essential reading for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of China's literary and cultural legacy

My South Seas Sleeping Beauty Guixing Zhang,2007-03-15 My South Seas Sleeping Beauty is a captivating coming of age tale set in the magical jungles of Borneo Told through the vivid recollections of a Chinese Malay youth the novel recounts the life of Su Qi a troubled sensitive son of a wealthy family and exemplifies the imaginative range of one of Taiwan s most innovative writers There were all sorts of stories about how my younger sister died Su Qi begins hinting at the power of memory to bend and refract truth Yet whichever the real story may be the fact is that the death of Su Qi s sister created an irrevocable rift in Su Qi s family driving his father into the arms of aboriginal women and his mother into a world of her own invention In an effort to escape the oppression of home Su Qi loses himself in the surrounding jungle full of Communist guerillas and strange tropical fauna The jungle further blurs the line between fantasy and reality for Su Qi until he meets Chunxi the beautiful frail daughter of his father's best friend Chunxi is an oasis of kindness and honesty in an otherwise cruel and evasive world but after a bizarre accident Chunxi falls into a deep coma and Su Qi flees to Taiwan In college Su Qi meets Keyi a vivacious siren who helps Su Qi forget not only his violent past but also the colorful tales of his youth When a family member dies however Su Qi is pulled back to the jungles of Borneo where he begins to unravel the secrets of his family's past a story stranger than any fairy tale and learns that his cherished dream of awakening his beloved Chunxi may be more than just a fantasy Influenced by the lyricism of William Faulkner and the magical realism of Gabriel Garcia Marquez My South Seas Sleeping Beauty is a deeply evocative exploration of sexuality and identity and a masterful reworking of Chinese and Western myth Valerie Jaffee's careful translation retains all the tone and detail of the original work and provides rare access to a new and exciting generation of Chinese writers born in Southeast Asia

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Taiwan Gunter Schubert, 2024-12-31 This fully revised 2nd edition of the Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Taiwan provides a comprehensive overview of both contemporary Taiwan and the Taiwan studies field Written by an international team of Taiwan experts the Handbook includes major topics in Taiwanese history domestic politics political economy society culture and international relations Each chapter summarises the major findings in the field and highlights long term trends recent observations and potential future developments in Taiwan revealing its long journey from a frontier island to a highly industrialised country struggling for international recognition Up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous the Handbook offers the reader an accessible and fascinating insight into contemporary Taiwan and will be of interest to students academics and policymakers with an interest in all things Taiwan

The Membranes Chi Ta-wei, 2021-06-01 It is the late twenty first century and Momo is the most celebrated dermal care technician in all of T City Humanity has migrated to domes at the bottom of the sea to escape devastating climate change The world is dominated by powerful media conglomerates and runs on exploited cyborg labor Momo prefers to keep to herself and anyway she's too busy for other relationships her clients include some of the city's best known media personalities But after meeting her estranged mother she begins to explore her true identity a journey that leads to questioning the bounds of gender memory self and reality First published in Taiwan in 1995 The Membranes is a classic of queer speculative fiction in Chinese Chi Ta wei weaves dystopian tropes heirloom animals radiation proof combat drones sinister surveillance technologies into a sensitive portrait of one young woman's quest for self understanding Predicting everything from fitness tracking to social media saturation this visionary and sublime novel stands out for its queer and trans themes The Membranes reveals the diversity and originality of contemporary speculative fiction in Chinese exploring gender and sexuality technological domination and regimes of capital all while applying an unflinching self reflexivity to the reader's own role Ari Larissa Heinrich's translation brings Chi's hybrid punk sensibility to all readers interested in books that test the limits of where speculative fiction can go      Orphan of Asia Zhuoliu Wu, 2008-03-22 Born in Taiwan raised in the scholarly traditions of ancient China but forced into the Japanese educational system Hu Taiming the protagonist of Orphan of Asia ultimately finds himself estranged from all three cultures Taiming eventually makes his mark in the colonial Japanese educational system and graduates from a prestigious college However he finds that his Japanese education and his adoption of modern ways have alienated him from his family and native village He becomes a teacher in the Japanese colonial system but soon quits his post and finds that having repudiated his roots he doesn't seem to belong anywhere Thus begins the long journey for Taiming to find his rightful place during which he is accused of spying for both China and Japan and witnesses the effects of Japanese imperial expansion the horrors of war and the sense of anger and powerlessness felt by those living under colonial rule Zhuoliu Wu's autobiographical novel is widely regarded as a classic of modern Asian literature and a groundbreaking expression of the postwar Taiwanese national consciousness
