Return Of The Trojan Horse Alberta And The New World Disorder:

The Return of the Trojan Horse Trevor Harrison, 2005 A Right wing populist in an oil rich province Ralph Klein has been a one man wrecking crew dismantling Alberta's public sector and remaking the province into a freewheeling capitalist paradise This book re examines Klein's Alberta after a decade of deficit slashing tax cutting conservatism First elected in 1993 on a platform of common sense revolution a decade later Ralph Klein's Conservative party remains in power but the gloss is off its revolution Deficits and debt have been eliminated but new problems and new issues have arisen such as energy deregulation and water shortages Efforts to export the revolution to remake Canada in Alberta's image have stalled with the defeat of the Harris Conservatives in Ontario and the collapse of the Reform and Alliance parties federally Meanwhile at the worldwide level neo liberal globalization all the rage in the early 90s is now in retreat replaced by war threats of terrorism and growing economic instability The Return of the Trojan Horse examines the long term lessons of the Klein revolution and suggest where Alberta and Canada may be headed in the next decade An original compilation of critical essays on Alberta's policies written by some of Alberta's and Canada's best authors who come from a wide spectrum of viewpoints and backgrounds all blending insight with journalistic flair Peel away the careful packaging of the Klein government's record and what have you got This book tells the story Facts clear prose and the courage to tell it straight make it essential reading Canadian Forum Trevor Harrison is currently an associate professor at the University of Lethbridge and research director for the Parkland Institute an Alberta based think tank dedicated to examining public policy issues He is the author of Of Passionate Intensity Right Wing Populism and the Reform Party of Canada and Requiem for a Lightweight Stockwell Day and Image Politics Voluntary

Organizations and Public Service Delivery Ian Cunningham, Philip James, 2012-05-23 Voluntary Organizations and Public Sector Delivery examines how aspects of voluntary sector employment are affected by its engagement with the growing trend to the market based outsourcing in the delivery of public services within industrialized countries The volume draws together a team of well recognized academic contributors from the UK Canada Australia and the United States to explore how the process of outsourcing is impacting the internal and external labor markets of voluntary organizations and the implications for the policy objectives underlying the externalization of the delivery of public services to them These themes of change in employment are covered in depth in the UK with dedicated chapters exploring workforce patterns and skill needs HR policies and practices recruitment and selection graduate recruitment unionization pay and conditions and psychological contracts in organizations The book also contains a significant international comparative dimension with individual chapter analysis of employment issues in Australia Canada and the United States as well as an Anglo German comparison Contesting Neoliberalism Helga Leitner, Jamie Peck, Eric S. Sheppard, 2007-01-01 Neoliberalism's market revolution realized through practices like privatization deregulation fiscal devolution and workfare programs has had a transformative effect on contemporary cities The consequences of market oriented politics for urban life have been widely studied but less attention has been given to how grassroots groups nongovernmental organizations and progressive city administrations are fighting back In case studies written from a variety of theoretical and political perspectives this book examines how struggles around such issues as affordable housing public services and space neighborhood sustainability living wages workers rights fair trade and democratic governance are reshaping urban political geographies in North America and around the world
