Return Of The Furies:

Return of the Furies Hollida Wakefield, Ralph C. Underwager, 1994 Recovered memory therapy which has become a rapidly growing industry in the past ten years is based on the controversial theory that adults often suffer emotional problems because of forgotten childhood traumas People who experience everyday difficulties like anxiety of overeating are now often told by therapists that the root of their trouble is a repressed memory of abuse in childhood The cure is to bring back the memory a process that usually takes many months and then publicly humiliate the alleged perpetrators of the abuse most often the victim's parents But are the supposed memories recovered in therapy genuine Or are they concocted by therapists and clients in the course of therapy Attempts to find independent corroboration of recovered memories have drawn a blank Contrary to folklore there is not a shred of scientific evidence for the notion that a memory can be repressed and there is plenty of evidence that false memories can be created A New Law-dictionary Giles Jacob, 1729 A new

E. Holzhey, 2012 Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922-1975 was both a writer and filmmaker deeply rooted in European culture as well as an intellectual who moved between different traditions identities and positions Early on he looked to Africa and Asia for possible alternatives to the hegemony of Western Neocapitalism and Consumerism and in his hands the Greek and Judeo-Christian Classics morphed into unsettling multistable figures constantly shifting between West and East North and South the present and the past rationality and myth identity and otherness The contributions in this volume which belong to different intellectual and disciplinary fields are bound together by a fascination for Pasolini's ability to recognize contradictions to intensify and multiply them as well as to make them aesthetically and politically productive What emerges is a euro-centric and multifaceted Pasolini of great interest for the present A New Law-dictionary: Containing, the Interpretation and Definition of Words and Terms ...
