The mummy's foot Théophile Gautier, 1901 Stratified Modernism Sasha Colby, 2009 This book proposes an alternative modernist tradition a line of writers captured by the archaeological project and the poetic possibilities it created This tradition spans from Théophile Gautier's mid nineteenth century passion for Egyptology to Charles Olson's literal excavations on the Yucatan peninsula in the 1950s With attention to the historical development of archaeology the author argues that the archaeological became a rich site of cultural fantasy a location where modernity's alternatives could be considered imagined and transcribed These models taking their cue from new archaeological dynamics include the ushering of primal intensities into the present the tapping of the subterranean unconscious and the decipherment of an original poetic language Ranging from psychic excavations to the reactivation of political templates the plumbing of the archaeological landscape became a key posture in modernist development which the author pursues through the work of both twentieth century modernists and their nineteenth century substrata Ambitious in scope this book provides a compelling argument about the role of archaeology in the modernist literary imagination and the century long evolution of the poetics of excavation The Pharaoh's Touch Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-15 The Pharaoh's Touch is a comprehensive guide to the pharaohs of ancient Egypt This book covers everything from the history of the pharaohs to their culture religion and legacy The book is divided into ten chapters each of which focuses on a different aspect of the pharaohs The first chapter provides a general overview of the history of the
