reproduced in this latest selection of his articles his adherence to the school that endeavours to deal with both branches of research Of the ten studies that deal with the crusading expeditions one examines the maps that might have been available to the First Crusaders and their Muslim opponents another discusses in detail the Jerusalem massacre of July 1099 and its place in Western historiography down to our days a third sheds light on the largely neglected doings of the Fourth Crusaders who decided to sail to Acre rather than to Constantinople while a fourth exposes unknown features of the well known sculpture of the returning crusader most probably Count Hugh I of Vaud mont who is embracing his wife Of the ten studies that deal with the Frankish Levant one proposes a hypothesis on the composition stages of William of Tyre s chronicle another provides new evidence on the Latin hermits who chose to live in the Frankish states a third examines the catalogue of the library of the cathedral of Nazareth while a fourth calls attention to convergences of Eastern Christians Muslims and Franks in sacred spaces and offers a typology of such events and a fifth proposes a methodology for the identification of trans cultural borrowing in the Frankish Levant

The Academy, 1880 Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service, 1923 The Poet's Time Warren L. Chernaik, 1983-02-10 This book unites the disciplines of literature and history in an attempt to set the writings of Andrew Marvell in their seventeenth century context of revolutionary upheaval and counter revolution Marvell is seen as a representative figure illustrating the problems the intellectual inevitably faces when he enters the political arena Dr Chernaik traces the evolution of Marvell s writings from impartiality to political engagement under the pressure of events He shows in the earlier part of the book how both An Horatian Ode and Upon Appleton House two of the greatest political poems in the English language written during the unsettled period of the Commonwealth are complex works of historical analysis which present the problem of the choices facing men at a given historical moment However after the collapse of Puritan hopes at the Restoration Marvell moves towards a literature of commitment Throughout his writings Chernaik argues Marvell is both a Puritan and a wit a fastidious ironist and a moralist like his friend Milton

Liturgy and the Ecclesiastical History of Late Anglo-Saxon England D. N. Dumville, 1992 Study of surviving Anglo Saxon kalendars and pontificals contributes to our understanding of 10th century England His work demonstrates the importance of these neglected sources for our understanding of the late Old English church HISTORY An important book of immense erudition It brings into the open some major issues of Late Anglo Saxon history and gives a thorough overview of the detailed source material When such outstanding learning is being used through intuitive perception to bear on the wider issues such as popular devotion and the reception of the monastic reform in England and bold conclusions are being drawn from such minutely detailed studies there is no doubt that David Dumville s contribution in this area of study becomes invaluable The sources for the liturgy of late Anglo Saxon England have a distinctive shape Very substantial survival has given us the possibility of understanding change and perceiving significant continuity as well as identifying local preferences and peculiarities One major category of evidence is provided by a corpus of more than twenty kalendars some of these and particularly those which have been associated with Glastonbury Abbey are subjected to close examination here the process contributing both negatively and positively to the history of ecclesiastical renewal in the 10th century Another significant body of manuscripts comprises books for episcopal use especially pontificals these are examined here as a group and their associations with specific prelates and churches considered All these investigations tend to suggest the centrality of the church of Canterbury in the surviving testimony and presumptively therefore in the history of late Anglo Saxon christianity Historians study of English liturgy in this period has heretofore concentrated on the development of coronation rites by pursuing palaeographical and textual enquiries the author has sought to make other divisions of the subject respond to historical questioning Dr DAVID N DUMVILLE is Reader in the Early Mediaeval History and Culture of the British Isles at the University of Cambridge and a Fellow of Girton College The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1904 Literature Henry Duff Traill, 1898
