Malburne-Wade, 2016-01-12 American dramas consciously rewrite the past as a means of determined criticism and intentional resistance While modern criticism often sees the act of revision as derivative Malburne Wade uses Victor Turner s concept of the social drama and the concept of the liminal to argue for a more complicated view of revision

Imprints & Re-visions Peter Hughes,Robert Rehder,1996 Teaching and Evaluating Writing in the Age of Computers and High-Stakes Testing Carl Whithaus,2005-04-27 This book takes on a daunting task How do writing teachers continue to work toward preparing students for academic and real world communication situations while faced with the increasing use of standardized high stakes testing Teachers need both the technical ability to deal with this reality and the ideological means to critique the information technologies and assessment methods that are transforming the writing classroom Teaching and Evaluating Writing in the Age of Computers and High Stakes Testing serves this dual need by offering a theoretical framework actual case studies and practical methods for evaluating student writing By examining issues in writing assessment ranging from the development of electronic portfolios to the impact of state wide standards based assessment methods on secondary and post secondary courses this book discovers four situated techniques of authentic assessment that are already in use at a number of locales throughout the United States These techniques stress interacting with students as communicators using synchronous and asynchronous environments describing the processes and products of student learning rather than enumerating deficits situating pedagogy and evaluation within systems that incorporate rather than exclude local variables and distributing assessment among diverse audiences By advocating for a flexible system of communication based assessment in computer mediated writing instruction this book validates teachers and students experiences with writing and also acknowledges the real world weight of the new writing components on the SAT and ACT as well as on state mandated standardized writing and proficiency exams

Military Review ,2011-07 A Million Miles from Broadway Revised and Expanded Edition Mel Atkey,2019 Musical theatre is and always has been an international form not just an American one It can take root anywhere Few people would realise that such hit standards as The Glow Worm Brazil Mack the Knife I Will Wait for You and El Condor Pasa came from foreign language musicals A Million Miles from Broadway Musical Theatre Beyond New York and London looks at the history and future of work that exists outside of the two traditional centres Met Atkey has lectured internationally on musical theatre He is also a composer and lyricist himself When his musical A Little Princess written with the late Robert Sickinger opened the New York Times praised its lovely music His earlier book Broadway North the Dream of a Canadian Musical Theatre has become the basis for courses taught in Canadian Universities including Sheridan College where the international hit musical Come from Away was born Australian TV producer and musical writer Peter Pinne called it well documented full of facts and a compelling read for any musical theatre buff

Race, Culture, and Identity Shireen K. Lewis,2006-03-10 In this groundbreaking book Shireen Lewis gives a comprehensive analysis of the literary and theoretical discourse on race culture and identity by Francophone and Caribbean writers beginning in the early part of the twentieth century and continuing into the dawn of the new millennium

Examining the works of Patrick Chamoiseau Raphaël Confiant Aimé Césaire Léopold Senghor Léon Damas and Paulette Nardal Lewis traces a move away from the preoccupation with African origins and racial and cultural purity toward concerns of hybridity and fragmentation in the New World or Diasporic space In addition to exploring how this shift parallels the larger debate around modernism and postmodernism Lewis makes a significant contribution by arguing for the inclusion of Martinican intellectual Paulette Nardal and other women into the canon as significant contributors to the birth of modern black Francophone literature

Visions and Revisions Roger Kojecký, Andrew Tate, 2013-09-05 Literary texts are more or less obliged to make reference to entities beyond themselves Drawing on other texts ideas previously written or on the resources of language they make their attempts to communicate entertain and enlist sympathy or even to offer counsel Some texts profess an a priori vision others adopt a style of reporting only contingencies A dialogic relation can be posited between the ideal and the real heaven and earth imagination and reason langue and parole essence and substance poetry and prose The poetic and creative impulse is engaged with an ever present need to purify the dialect of the tribe The topics in Visions and Revisions reflect writers labours with form at whatever distance from the original sources of inspiration The authors discussed include William Blake Marilynne Robinson Salman Rushdie William Golding John Irving David Lodge Sara Maitland and Hilary Mantel Verbal by definition texts make use of other texts and are dependent on the cultural matrix Readers are also writers in one kind or another In both modes they may gain impetus or inspiration by re-visioning their origins as well as their ends This book will offer readers new ways to understand the literary creations of some writers with affinities to the Western spiritual and specifically Christian tradition

The Need for Revision David P. Owen, Jr., 2012-01-01 Can we have more teacher intellectuals in our classrooms This book demonstrates that we can But many things have to change before intellectual standards appear again in public schools David Owen attempts to show but not in outline form how we can revise our schools Can we escape the rut in which public education finds itself dominated by the inane tests the stifling reduction of school to job training and the insane transformation of a life affirming odyssey of the mind to cliché information gathering and slogans We can reclaim the beauty of an education if we join David and revise our classrooms Education is uncertain risky wonderfully adventurous yet schooling has become stale No tediously dreadful There is a need to revise Reject standardized tests Repeal pay for performance Eject No Child Left Behind before no child has a thoughtful mind left It is time to revise and David's book explains why Are we still interested in the mind soul and substance of the individual Does it matter who we are and become or just what we do If these questions still matter dwell carefully with David's ideas and transform yourself your students school community state nation and world It is time to revise them all John A Weaver Georgia Southern University

Climate Change Action and the Responsibility to Protect Ben L. Parr,2023-11-29 This book brings together two important fields in the study of international politics and policy climate change adaptation and mitigation climate action and the Responsibility to Protect R2P Both have attracted strong scholarly attention in each of their respective research silos but there is yet to be a strong research push that explores the relationship between the two Filling this gap Ben L Parr argues that the climate action and the R2P agendas share a common goal to protect vulnerable human populations from large scale harm To substantiate this argument Parr reveals where the historical conceptual and operational parallels exist between the two agendas and where and when researchers and practitioners from both camps might work together in practice to achieve their common goal in the challenging years ahead Notably the book builds on recent efforts by Western governments in the UK US and EU to integrate climate action policies into conflict prevention and response policies To achieve this the volume situates a variety of climate action policies alongside the 46 policy options found in the R2P operational framework commonly known as the R2P toolbox across its prevention reaction and rebuilding phases Climate Change Action and the Responsibility to Protect will be of significant interest to policy orientated students and scholars those working at the academic policy interface in the NGO community as well as those working in government and international organisations
