The Routledge Companion to African American Art History Eddie Chambers, 2019-11-12 This Companion authoritatively points to the main areas of enquiry within the subject of African American art history The first section examines how African American art has been constructed over the course of a century of published scholarship The second section studies how African American art is and has been taught and researched in academia The third part focuses on how African American art has been reflected in art galleries and museums The final section opens up understandings of what we mean when we speak of African American art This book will be of interest to graduate students researchers and professors and may be used in American art African American art visual culture and culture classes Revisiting American Art, 1996

African American Artists and the New Deal Art Programs Mary Ann Calo, 2023-03-20 This book examines the involvement of African American artists in the New Deal art programs of the 1930s Emphasizing broader issues informed by the uniqueness of Black experience rather than individual artists works Mary Ann Calo makes the case that the revolutionary vision of these federal art projects is best understood in the context of access to opportunity mediated by the reality of racial segregation Focusing primarily on the Federal Art Project FAP of the Works Progress Administration WPA Calo documents African American artists participation in community art centers in Harlem in St Louis and throughout the South She examines the internal workings of the Harlem Artists Guild the Guild s activities during the 1930s and its alliances with other groups such as the Artists Union and the National Negro Congress Calo also explores African American artists representation in the exhibitions sponsored by WPA administrators and the critical reception of their work In doing so she elucidates the evolving meanings of the terms race culture and community in the interwar era The book concludes with an essay by Jacqueline Francis on Black artists in the early 1940s after the end of the FAP program Presenting essential new archival information and important insights into the experiences of Black New Deal artists this study expands the factual record and positions the cumulative evidence within the landscape of critical race studies It will be welcomed by art historians and American studies scholars specializing in early twentieth century race relations Whitfield Lovell Whitfield
