Italian Medieval Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Lisbeth Castelnuevo-Tedesco, Jack Soltanian, 2010 The collection of Italian medieval sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters began with the acquisition in 1908 of a Romanesque column statue today the Museum's holdings comprise more than seventy works dating from the ninth to the late fifteenth century The birthplaces of these works range from Sicily to Venice some typify local styles others illustrate the intense artistic exchanges taking place within Italy and between Italy and the wider world Technological advances of the last decades have made it possible to determine more precisely the materials and techniques from which works of art are made the history of their alteration and the mechanisms of their deterioration Using such techniques scholars have been able to ascertain for example that sculptures previously thought to be modern works carved in the medieval manner were in fact completely authentic This innovative volume represents a watershed in the study of sculpture a collaborative dialogue between an art historian and a conservator between art history and art science that deepens our understanding of the object we see while illuminating its elusive enigmatic history From publisher's description      Sensual and Sensory Experiences in the Middle Ages Carme Muntaner Alsina, Delfi I. Nieto-Isabel, David Carrillo Rangel, 2018-06-11 Where was the line between pleasure and irritation in the sensory overload caused by the sounds colours and smells of a medieval market How could pain and suffering be relieved by hoping for and desiring to experience an intimate almost familiar contact with Christ This volume shows the different aspects of sensory experiences that medieval people conveyed through documents literary accounts and religious practices The unifying theme here is how pleasure pain desire and fear appear in different sometimes conflicting combinations and settings from the private space of the monastic cell to the shared hustle of the market The geographic focus of this volume is Mediterranean Europe although it also touches on other Western contexts The combination of different points of view here provides an original contribution to the study of sensory experiences in the Middle Ages      The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture      A Companion to Medieval Pisa , 2022-04-25 Presenting medieval Pisa in a multidisciplinary study A Companion to Medieval Pisa provides a comprehensive overview of the city at the time of its greatest fame and prosperity The volume addresses central aspects of the city's history its geomorphology and orientation towards the Mediterranean Sea its ancient past the archaeological basis for the study of the medieval city and its built environment Pisa's urban and port infrastructure its social organization and political and economic history its cultural

Dominican Women and Renaissance Art Ann Roberts, 2016-12-05 Starting from an inventory and other documents Ann Roberts has identified some 30 works of art that originated from the convent of San Domenico of Pisa She here examines those objects commissioned for and made by the nuns during the fifteenth century some of the objects included have never before been published One of her goals in this study is to bring into the discussion of Renaissance art a body of images that have been previously overlooked because they come from a non Florentine context and because they do not fit modern notions of the development of Renaissance style She also analyzes the function of the images social as well as religious within the context of a female Dominican convent Finally she offers descriptions of and documentation for the process of patronage as it was practiced by cloistered women and the making of art in such enclosures The author presents a catalogue of works which gives basic data and bibliography for the objects described in the text Roberts offers other valuable resources in the appendices including unpublished C19th inventories of the objects in the convent at various moments documents regarding the commission of works of art for the convent letters written by the nuns a list of the Prioresses of San Domenico lists of nuns at different points in the fifteenth and early sixteenth century and a list of the relics owned by the convent in the sixteenth century Roberts firmly grounds her interpretation in the values of the Order to which the nuns belonged and in the political and social concerns of their city conduits to the divine or as guides to social behaviour indeed often the two functions overlap
