Interreligious Perspectives Russell E. Richey, 2018-09-12 Ecumenical Interreligious Perspectives Globalization in Theological Education is a collection of articles on the wide ranging effects of ecumenism on theological education Fifteen eminent historians theologians missiologists Christian educators and ecumenists in the United Methodist Church and other denominations have addressed such topics as the critical redefinition of ecumenism global inclusiveness and the cultural assumptions implicit in interreligious dialogue These important essays show that the seminaries are responding to the new global awareness with vigor and sensitivity Together they give us a picture of theological education that is spiritually and intellectually prepared to face the challenges of the twenty first century Sager Brown A. Craig Fisher, Ph.D., 2014-05 Sager Brown as an orphanage and school in the bayou country of Louisiana served the intellectual and social developmental interests of black children for over a century when few if any other avenues were available Their story is one of compassion and heartfelt dedication of key individuals who with help countered the destructive force of oppression of post emancipation and segregation resulting in thousands of redeemed lives A brief history of the Bayou Teche area is offered to pinpoint the site of the school which exists today as the major shipping depot of the United Methodist Committee on Relief for relief supplies both nationally and worldwide Divine intervention is in evidence throughout the book as the institution ebbs and flows from one crisis to the next always raising its head to move forward from apparently insurmountable odds to the new light of day Although Sager Brown is and has always been a Methodist church supported institution anyone interested in the plight of children and their eventual redemption will find the book a worthwhile read It was a joy to document the only in depth history of this historic institution The first week I spent as a volunteer at Sager Brown I too knew I was on holy ground I am indebted to Craig Fisher for telling the world how this wonderful facility came to be for it explains why it has always been a sacred spot Craig's research is thorough his presentation scholarly but he has also captured the essence of the ministry that continues today in Baldwin Louisiana Su Kelley multi year Sager Brown volunteer and long time Bible teacher It is my privilege to recommend Sager Brown Sacred Ground as an excellent informational and inspirational history of the institution known as Sager Brown in Baldwin Louisiana United Methodists are known to be people of head and heart and Dr Fisher has masterfully woven the threads of the history of this institution to reflect both the passion that inspired and supported it for generations and the hard facts of its impact on countless numbers of children and indeed an entire community Not only does Dr Fisher tell the story of the struggle of an institution of change to survive in the deep South he illustrates the influence persons of passion can have on an institution a region of the country and even a nation through a lifetime of service from a larger perspective he also tells the story of the denomination s unceasing desire to be relevant to the needs of the world as they change over the centuries Every obstacle became an opportunity for God to open a new pathway for building HIS kingdom Rev Dawne Phillips Director of Missions Texas Central Conference United Methodist Church

Methodism did not function in a void It was carrying out its mission in an environment charged with dynamic change To fully understand the history of Methodism in Southern California one has to find a way to allow one's mind to alter as far as possible into the conditions and events of the period As we are so keenly aware today these circumstances determine the success or failure of the church to carry out its mission While Methodism was an early arrival in California within fifty years the environment was changing to one that was highly competitive In addition the political environment was changing to a more conservative one while Methodism's leadership and ministerial training of its clergy were more liberal Added to these external complexities there were internal difficulties unique to Methodism that needed to
