The Foster-Sisters Lucy Ellen Guernsey, 1881 Virginia and Magdalene, Or, The Foster Sisters Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte Southworth, 1851 Fostergirls Liane Shaw, 2011-03-01 Her name is Sadie but she might as well be called Fostergirl. Group home girl. That's how everyone thinks of her. Sadie doesn't care. In fact, she'd be happier if they didn't think of her at all. Her goal is to go unnoticed, to disappear. After living in twelve different foster homes, Sadie's learned that nothing good comes from being noticed. Now here she is again, this time in a small town. There's a new high school, another new group home to get used to, lucky number 13. But Sadie's not finding it easy to stay beneath the radar. In fact, she's learning that it's impossible to be invisible in a small town. She can't seem to get people to stay out of her life, whether it's the endlessly chatty Rhiannon who for some reason wants to be her friend, Jackson the do-good guidance counselor who thinks she can make Sadie into a student, or the other girls in the group home whose problems keep intruding on her solitude. Little by little, Sadie starts to wonder if there might be a different course for her life, one that lets a few other people along for the ride. Liane Shaw, author of Thin and Beautiful, comes once again brings us a vivid and compelling portrait of a young woman at odds with the world around her.

I Was a Virgin When I Married Him but He Caused Me to Be Treated like a Prostitute Vicksay Baby Moten-Richardson, 2022-03-07 My name is Vicksay Baby Moten Richardson. I am the last of fourteen children. I realize now why I am so different in so many ways, not in a bragging way but in a way that God has laid it on my heart to share my life in this book. Not too many people are named Baby. It was not until I was eighteen and graduating from high school when I revealed that my middle name was Baby. When the principal of the school called my name and I walked up to get my diploma, it took over ten minutes to stop the class of 1974 from laughing. What a wonderful memory that was. For many years I felt like I was a nobody, even though forty-two years ago I bought a new home when I was twenty-two years old with my sister, and she still lives there to this day. I was voted most likely to succeed. I completed high school in three years instead of four I was number fifty six in a class of 560 grade wise I would have ranked higher but because I was graduating a year earlier it caused my ranking to be calculated differently from the students who had attended high school for four years I received three four year scholarships to the University of Arizona I completed a twenty four month computerized accounting program in eighteen months while raising four extremely sickly and one very difficult foster child and while running a full time day care from my home I took twenty four classes in those eighteen months and received twenty three As and one B Of course I give God the glory because He is the only one who gives us strength I was a straight A student Since I was in first grade I have always assisted children with learning disabilities However the one thing that I am proudest of was that I married a virgin Inside I was this sad and disappointed little girl that I thought no one would love or care for And one more thing that I am proud of is that with the only two men I have been intimate with in my whole sixty four years of life I took my wedding vows first But that same person whom I just told about filed bankruptcy several times moved over fifty times and lost over fifteen cars and over forty jobs all because of pride disobedience to God and letting people speak negativity into my life It is very difficult to share your weakness with the world and those whom you love and know But it is more liberating to know that my story is going to help many people especially women not to make the mistakes I have made Robert Ainsleigh Braddon,1872
