My Mortal Enemy Willa Cather, 1990-10-31 First published in 1926 this book is Willa Cather's sparest and most dramatic novel a dark and prescient portrait of a marriage that subverts our oldest notions about the nature of domestic happiness As a young woman Myra Henshawe gave up a fortune to marry for love a boldly romantic gesture that became a legend in her family But this worldly sarcastic and perhaps even wicked woman may have been made for something greater than love In her portrait of Myra and in her exquisitely nuanced depiction of her marriage Cather shows the evolution of a human spirit as it comes to bridle against the constraints of ordinary happiness and seek an otherworldly fulfillment My Mortal Enemy is a work whose drama and intensely moral imagination make it unforgettable My Mortal Enemy (Annotated) Willa Cather, 2019-05-17

imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works I first met Myra Henshawe when I was fifteen but I had known about her ever since I could remember anything at all She and her runaway marriage were the theme of the most interesting indeed the only interesting stories that were told in our family on holidays or at family dinners My mother and aunts still heard from Myra Driscoll as they called her and Aunt Lydia occasionally went to New York to visit her She had been the brilliant and attractive figure among the friends of their girlhood and her life had been as exciting and varied as ours was monotonous

Willa Cather's Modernism Jo Ann Middleton, 1990 Willa Cather's Modernism challenges the assumption that Cather was an old fashioned exponent of styles of fiction demonstrating instead that Cather was clearly aware of the experimentation within the modernist movement Illustrative chapters deal with three central novels A Lost Lady The Professor's House and My Mortal Enemy

My Mortal Enemy and Not Under Forty Willa Cather, Acino Acinonyx, 2014-10-11 Myra and her husband Oswald return to their fictional hometown of Parthia Illinois to visit their relatives Nellie and Aunt Lydia then leave to spend the Christmas holiday in New York City with them They live on Madison Square They dine with Ewan Gray a friend who has an infatuation with another actress Esther Sinclair Oswald receives silver buttons for his shirt from an old Western acquaintance and asks Lydia to pretend she gave them to him to thwart his wife's jealousy Later Myra and Nellie go to the opera in a loge they spot an erstwhile friend of Myra's which makes her sad Later they take a hansom around a park and chance upon a rich acquaintance of Myra's which leads her to be scornful over her own poverty They spend Christmas dinner with friends of the Henshawes both artists and people of privilege Later they spend New Year's Eve with artists again A few days later Nellie witnesses the Henshawes argue the husband takes her out to lunch Soon after she and her aunt are to return to Illinois On the train they are joined by Myra who has argued with her husband again and is going to visit a friend in Pittsburg for a change of scenery Ten years later Nellie moved into a shabby flat in a little town on the west coast and bumps into the Henshawes Myra is now bedridden and Oswald works full time their upstairs neighbours are atrociously noisy regardless Myra's illness Nellie takes to visiting her at tea time she also takes her out by the sea Myra expresses her regrets over her husband If she had not married him her great uncle would have bequeathed her his fortune Instead she eloped and he gave it away to the church Oswald takes to having lunch with a young woman Once Nellie asks her why she is so harsh on her husband and Myra dismisses her Shortly after her condition gets worse She dismisses everyone and runs away she is found dead by the seaside the following day Her husband expresses no remorse about his wife he loved her despite her difficult conduct After her death he moves to Alaska and later Nellie hears about his death It has been suggested that the novel represents the bitter apotheosis of the issues of exile Cather worked on all of her life Book 2 Not Under Forty For Willa Cather the world broke in two in 1922 or thereabouts The whole legacy of Western civilization stood on the far side of World War I and in the spiritually impoverished present she looked back to that To that she directed readers of these essays declaring that anyone under forty years old would not be interested in them But she was wrong since its first publication in 1936 Not Under Forty has appealed to readers of all ages who share Cather's concern for excellence for what endures in literature and in life ReviewsWhat seems at first deceptively a random gathering of essays anecdotal and critical interspersed finally reveals itself as a unified musing on the accusatory contrast between a great dignified past and a huckstering ugly present Notes and QueriesFull of personal reflections and of promptings not apparent to the casual reader and so all the more welcome We have too little of such writing off the record Yale ReviewIn all of these essays so familiar so personal on the surface Miss Cather's continuing stress upon what impresses her in really good literature is evident It is the immense pains of learning to write the long struggle to escape from the tyranny of mere words from the shows and affectations of approximate renderings of reality into the calm assurance of truth which seem to her the stairway to greatness H S Canby Saturday Review of Literature
