Raffles Raymond Flower,1984 History Of Chartered Surveyors In Singapore, The: The First Hundred Years: 1868 - 1968 William James Jones,2023-03-21 There is a rich history of achievements by Chartered Surveyors in Singapore going back as far as the 1880s Their stories have largely gone untold This book tells the stories of individual Chartered Surveyors in Singapore over the first hundred years since the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors was founded 1868 to 1968 and explains the role they played in the development of Singapore The book also includes the stories of the pioneer Singaporean Chartered Surveyors from the 1940s onwards many of whom studied overseas but returned to Singapore where they would play important roles in the real estate industry over future decades Related Link s Reframing Singapore

Derek Thiam Soon Heng,Syed Muhd. Khairudin Aljunied,2009 Over the past two decades Singapore has advanced rapidly towards becoming a both a global city state and a key nodal point in the international economic sphere These developments have caused us to reassess how we understand this changing nation including its history population and geography as well as its transregional and transnational experiences with the external world This collection spans several disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and draws on various theoretical approaches and methodologies in order to produce a more refined understanding of Singapore and to reconceptualize the challenges faced by the country and its peoples Trust and Brand Management Hanna Górska-Warsewicz,2024-12-23 Trust and Brand Management covers the main topics of heritage based corporate brand management and its relationship to external factors and performance The benefits for readers of this book lie in several aspects knowledge of corporate brand management brand heritage and related concepts theoretical and practical foundations of brand management and brand heritage and empirically supported research on the relationship among brand heritage brand management practices antecedents and outcomes of heritage based corporate brand management This book consists of two parts The first part provides a literature review and theoretical and practical background on brand heritage its antecedents and outcomes brand management approaches and heritage based corporate brand management The second part presents the results of an empirical study as structural equation modeling to establish the relationship among brand heritage corporate brand management practices antecedents brand history culture identity and authenticity and outcomes of heritage based corporate brand management brand trust brand equity and performance In addition the book includes 31 case studies of well known heritage brands presenting their history marketing communications development and positioning strategies The benefit for managers is the presentation of terms and specific tools related to corporate brand management in the market and customer outcomes Touring Variety in the Asia Pacific Region, 1946-1975 Jonathan Bollen,2020-05-06 Aviation extended the horizon of international touring across Asia and the Pacific in the 1950s and 1960s Nightclubs in Hong Kong Manila Melbourne Singapore Sydney Tokyo and Taipei presented an international array of touring acts This book investigates how this happened It explores the post war formation of the Asia

Pacific region through international touring and the transformation of entertainment during the jet age of aviation Drawing on archival research across the region Bollen investigates how touring variety forged new relations between artists audiences and nations Mapping tours and tracing networks by connecting fragments he reveals how versatile artists translated repertoire in circulation as they toured and how entrepreneurial endeavours harnessed the production of national distinction to government agendas He argues that touring variety on commercial circuits diversified the repertoire in regional circulation anticipating the diversity emerging in state sanctioned multiculturalisms and driving the government construction of national theatres for cultural diplomacy

Buildings of Empire Ashley Jackson, 2013-11-28 Buildings of Empire takes the reader on an exciting journey through thirteen territories of the British Empire From Dublin Castle to the glass and steel of Sir Norman Foster's Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank skyscraper these buildings capture the essence of the imperial experience painting an intimate portrait of the biggest empire the world has ever seen the people who made it and the people who resisted it as well as the legacy of the imperial project throughout the world Ashley Jackson visits classic examples of the buildings that the British governed from the forts they often brutally imposed their rule from the railway stations they travelled from the banks they traded from the educational establishments they spread their values from as well as the grand colonial hotels they stayed in the sporting clubs and botanical gardens where they took their leisure and the monumental exhibition spaces in which they celebrated the achievements of settlement and imperial endeavour The history of these buildings does not end with the empire that built them Their story in the aftermath of empire highlights the continuing legacy of many of the structures and institutions the British left behind as well as the sometimes unexpected role that these former symbols of alien rule have played in the establishment of new national identities in the years since independence
