Renewing Research Practice:

Renewing Research Practice Ralph E. Stablein, Peter J. Frost, 2004 Scholars in organization studies share their experience in overcoming research obstacles working with collaborators balancing professional with personal life demands The book is organized around a series of chapters commentaries that invite the reader to interact with the ideas presented How to Research Loraine Blaxter, Christina Hughes, Malcolm Tight, 2010-09-16 How to Research is a clear and accessible guide to the business of doing a research project It systematically takes the reader through from the planning to the writing up and finishing off The new edition of this book will include Expanded section on methodology Expanded section on Literature Reviews Inclusion of a glossary Research Alive Arne Carlsen, Jane E. Dutton, 2011 What makes qualitative research really worth doing When do people feel most alive and energized in their research This book offers insights into doing qualitative research by focusing on the specific moments that are experienced as generative The focus on these generative moments illuminates what is life giving transformative and expansive both with regards to the imagination of ideas and the development of scholars in the process of doing research The book offers a unique array of 40 stories from both new and established scholars covering the full arc of the research process from the conception of the initial idea to publication and other forms of interaction with users of research These personal back stage accounts provide readers with insights about the everyday micro moments that compose the doing of qualitative research which are typically invisible and not discussed yet are the wellsprings of motivation and insight that sustain and inspire qualitative researchers Readers will gain critical new understanding about research practice and will acquire important perspectives that are an inherent part of becoming a research scholar Designing Research for Publication Anne Sigismund Huff, 2009 Abstract Doing Research That Matters Marco Busi, 2013-06-26 Doing Research That Matters looks at an old issue from a new perspective taking a fresh and cross disciplinary approach to learning how we can contribute with our work to shaping the future of management

The SAGE Handbook of Research Management Robert Dingwall, Mary Byrne McDonnell, 2015-08-17 The Handbook of Research Management is a unique tool for the newly promoted research leader Larger scale projects are becoming more common throughout the social sciences and humanities housed in centres institutes and programmes Talented researchers find themselves faced with new challenges to act as managers and leaders rather than as individual scholars They are responsible for the careers and professional development of others and for managing interactions with university administrations and external stakeholders Although many scientific and technological disciplines have long been organized in this way few resources have been created to help new leaders understand their roles and responsibilities and to reflect on their practice This Handbook has been created by the combined experience of a leading social scientist and a chief executive of a major international research development institution and funder The editors have recruited a truly global team of contributors to write about the challenges they have encountered in the course of their careers and to provoke readers to think about how they might respond within their own contexts This book will be a standard work of reference for new research leaders in any discipline or country looking for help and inspiration The editorial commentaries extend its potential use in support of training events or workshops where groups of new leaders can come together and explore the issues that are confronting them Digital Dictionary Marie Cauli, Laurence Favier, Jean-Yves Jeannas, 2022-09-21 Digital age digital society digital civilization many expressions are used to describe the major cultural transformation of our contemporary societies Digital Dictionary presents the multiple facets of this phenomenon which was born of computers and continues to permeate all human activity as it progresses at a rapid pace In this multidisciplinary work experts academics and practitioners invite us to discover the digital world from various technological and societal perspectives In this book citizens trainers political leaders or association members students and users will find a base of knowledge that will allow them to update their understanding and become stakeholders in current societal changes Research Methods for Strategic

Management Giovanni B. Dagnino, Maria Cristina Cinici, 2015-10-16 The field of strategic management has developed significantly since its birth from business policy and business planning in the 1960s Pioneering studies were essentially normative prescriptive and often based on in depth case studies The evolution of strategic management into a respected field of academic study resulted from the adoption of research methods previously employed in economics Today research in strategic management is likely to employ a mixture of methods borrowed from related and unrelated disciplines such as political sciences psychology neuroscience and behavioral economics which can be confusing to researchers new to the field This book provides the reader with a broad introduction to the array of qualitative and quantitative research methods required to investigate strategic management Throughout the book strong emphasis is placed on practical applications that transcend the mere analysis of the theoretical roots of single research methods The underlying result is a book that encourages and aids readers to learn by doing in applying the implications of each chapter to their own research This text is vital reading for postgraduate students and researchers focused on business strategy How to Do Relevant Research

Mirvis, Philip H., Albers Mohrman, Susan, Worley, Christopher G., 2021-10-22 Amidst rapid and fundamental shifts in the economic geo political technological and societal landscape this cutting edge book makes the timeless case that research can be informed by problems in the real world and make important contributions to theory and practice Reflective Practice for Renewing Schools Jennifer York-Barr, William A. Sommers, Gail S. Ghere, Jo Montie, 2016-05-20 Renew your teaching and your passion with this updated bestseller When the teaching life gets tough reflective practice reenergizes you counteracting the effects of professional isolation and instilling a sense of meaning renewal and empowerment that benefits you your colleagues and your students This bestselling book offers research based ideas and strategies for using reflective practice individually with others and even schoolwide Features of the newest edition include Updated strategies for engaging adults and students and using reflective practices to create equitable outcomes New examples of reflective practice in action A new chapter on the core leadership practices for growing reflective practice A new companion website with resources and reflection protocols The Globalization Of Strategy Research Joel Baum, Joseph Lampel, 2010-07-02 This volume brings together various emerging perspectives in strategy research for further interaction and debate Contributions address a range of issues related to the globalization of strategy research and chapters examine strategy theory methods and research as well as strategy as practice discourse and reflexive design An Introduction to Qualitative Research Maria K. E. Lahman, 2024-04-17 This engaging introduction to all aspects of qualitative research challenges students to consider how their research can be culturally responsive The first part of the book introduces the foundations including theory ethics and reflexivity with an emphasis on multiple methodologies from traditional to critical and cutting edge The second part covers practical guidance from writing proposals to data collection and includes a chapter dedicated to creating a culturally responsive relationship with research participants Finally readers engage with how the quality of research is enhanced how data are analyzed and how research accounts are created and disseminated Areas vital to the health of qualitative research are addressed including systemic racism and cultural humility with cutting edge suggestions offered in areas like hybrid research harnessing technology and use of social media Multiple identities are centered in examples throughout including race gender and those who are hard to reach or seldom heard in research Textboxes featuring scholars student researchers and community members invite readers into dialogue in an area that is contested swiftly shifting and always vibrant with potential Resources for instructors are available on a website to accompany the book Learning with Damaged Colonial Places Theresa Magdalen Giorza, 2021-05-10 This book offers a close and detailed account of the emergent and creative pedagogies of children learning together in a small not for profit preschool and the entangled becomings of their carers as well as the researcher artist author The mutually affecting and inseparable realities of the material and the discursive are made visible through lively and sensual pedagogical invention by a group of five year olds in the inner city preschool which is located in Johannesburg South Africa These small local stories are recognized in their emergence with global geopolitical realities The author makes a valuable contribution to post qualitative research through the use of visual research methods and non representational approaches to working with knowledge The book draws on the constantly evolving practices of Philosophy for Children P4C and Reggio Emilia both as pedagogical tools and as research methods Photographs and stills from video footage provide a sense of the relatively modest material environment of the school The book celebrates the considerable richness of the involvement of the children and the enormous possibilities offered by the world both inside and outside of the classroom when an enquiry led art based pedagogy is followed Drawings and other products created by the children in the study offer valuable insight into the depth and complexity of their engagement with their worlds both individual and collaborative Tome 1: Manuscripts, >Codices<, Texts, Science and Medicine Steven M. Oberhelman, 2025-07-21 This three volume set of essays is dedicated to Alain Touwaide known for his far reaching investigations in fields such as ancient medicine botany pharmacy texts and manuscripts the classical tradition translation the history of science ethnopharmacology and plant therapies The essays penned by 80 international scholars and researchers and written in six languages are grouped into three broad categories Manuscripts Plants and Remedies to reflect Alain s main areas of research Each category is broken into subgroups such as manuscripts texts and science botany gardens materia medica pharmacy drugs archaeology medical traditions and continuity of scientific knowledge in the East and West The papers reach across many fields of scholarship science and medicine and are necessarily and fundamentally trans disciplinary trans chronological and trans geographic These volumes are not so much a Festschrift as an approach to Alain s work through many disciplines and methods a discussion of the current status of each field and an opening into new perspectives

Designing Positive Psychology Kennon M. Sheldon, Todd B. Kashdan, Michael F. Steger, 2011-01-31 Positive psychology exploded into public consciousness 10 years ago and has continued to capture attention around the world ever since This book evaluates the first decade of this fledgling field of study from the perspective of nearly every leading researcher in the field

Critical Perspectives on Technology and Education Scott Bulfin, Nicola F. Johnson, Chris Bigum, 2015-02-11 This book offers critical readings of issues in education and technology and demonstrates how researchers can use critical perspectives from sociology digital media cultural studies and other fields to broaden the ed tech research imagination open up new topics ask new questions develop theory and articulate an agenda for informed action

Constructing Identity in and Around Organizations Majken Schultz, 2012-01-19 The second volume in the Perspectives on Process Organization Studies series focuses on the notion of identity in particular how individual and organizational identities evolve and come to be constructed through on going activities and interactions

The Oxford Handbook of Museum Archaeology Alice Stevenson, 2022-08-25 This Handbook provides a transnational reference point for critical engagements with the legacies of and futures for global archaeological collections It challenges the common misconception that museum archaeology is simply a set of procedures for managing and exhibiting assemblages Instead this volume advances museum archaeology as an area of reflexive research and practice addressing the critical issues of what gets prioritized by and researched in museums by whom how and why Through twenty eight chapters authors problematize and suggest new ways of thinking about historic contemporary and future relationships between archaeological fieldwork and museums as well as the array of institutional and cultural paradigms through which archaeological enquiries are mediated Case studies embrace not just archaeological finds but also archival field notes photographic media archaeological samples and replicas Throughout museum activities are put into dialogue with other aspects of archaeological practice with the aim of situating museum work within a more holistic archaeology that does not privilege excavation or field survey above other aspects of disciplinary engagement These concerns will be grounded in the realities of museums internationally including Latin America Africa Asia Oceania North America and Europe In so doing the common heritage sector refrain best practice is not assumed to solely emanate from developed countries or European philosophies but instead is considered as emerging from and accommodated within local concerns and diverse museum cultures

Of the Past, for the Future Neville Agnew, Janet Bridgland, 2006-03-06 Conservation is a core value for most archaeological societies It is highlighted in their codes of ethics statements of mission and governance In recognition of this the World Archaeological Congress with the Getty Conservation Institute and a consortium of other conservation organizations brought together scholars working throughout the globe to discuss vital issues that affect archaeological heritage today This volume presents the proceedings of the Conservation Theme at the Congress held in Washington D C June 22-26 2003 Among the topics discussed are Innovative Approaches to Policy and Management of Archaeological Sites Finding Common Ground The Role of Stakeholders in Decision Making Archaeology and Tourism A Viable Partnership Preserving the Cultural Heritage of Iraq and Afghanistan Archaeology and Conservation in China Today and Managing Archaeological Sites and Rock Art Sites in Southern Africa These proceedings should do much to promote and strengthen the relationship between the disciplines of conservation and archaeology

Innovating in Practice Tiziana Russo-Spena, Cristina Mele, Maaria Nuutinen, 2016-11-13 The purpose of the book is to devise an alternative conceptual vocabulary for studying innovation by stressing the role of social contextual and cultural perspectives This vocabulary is drawn on a service and on sociological perspectives on innovation based on the ontological assumption that innovation is a value co creation matter and that it takes place in a reality that is multiple constructed and socially embedded The aim is to tackle key issues such as social construction service innovation knowledge and learning processes value co creation innovating and innovation activities networking and collaborative innovation
