Representations Of The Intellectual The Reith Lectures:

Representations of the Intellectual Edward W. Said, 2012-10-24 In these impassioned and inspiring essays based on his 1993 Reith Lectures Edward Said explores what it means to be an intellectual Said is a brilliant and unique amalgam of scholar aesthete and political activist He challenges and stimulates our thinking in every area Washington Post Book World Are intellectuals merely the servants of special interests or do they have a larger responsibility In these wide ranging essays one of our most brilliant and fiercely independent public thinkers addresses this question with extraordinary eloquence Said sees the the intellectual as an exile and amateur whose role it is to speak the truth to power even at the risk of ostracism or imprisonment Drawing on the examples of Jonathan Swift and Theodor Adorno Robert Oppenheimer and Henry Kissinger Vietnam and the Gulf War Said explores the implications of this idea and shows what happens when intellectuals succumb to the lures of money power or specialization

Intellectual Pursuits Bernard Barber, 1998-05-14 This book is a venture in constructive clarification of several basic topics in current humanities and social science discourses that are badly muddled The heart of the clarification is contained in Barber s definition of culture derived from social system theory that provides us with a better understanding of today s debate on intellectuals and the pursuit of science Barber examines the ways in which intellectual culture is defined the construction of ideologies and ideologists and the structure of cultural sub systems high middle low The book deftly interweaves these concepts to illuminate the present and historical situations of conflict in the universities and elsewhere He distinguishes between those who emphasize the cultural norm of knowledge for its own sake and those whose norms are primarily ideological and reformist Intellectual Pursuits Toward an Understanding of Culture will challenge both students and scholars to consider their own intellectual positions from both within and without the academy and sharpens our perspectives on the role of intellectuals in society

The Intellectual as Hero in 1990s Ukrainian Fiction Mark Andryczyk, 2012-03-13 The 1990s were a period of tremendous artistic vigour experimentation and liberation for Ukrainian culture The artists who emerged at this time unleashed a tidal wave of creativity that deliberately and aggressively reshaped inherited models In this first English monograph on contemporary Ukrainian literature Mark Andryczyk provides an in depth analysis of the cultural explosion that engulfed Ukraine in its first decade of independence The Intellectual as Hero in 1990s Ukrainian Fiction weaves a fascinating narrative full of colourful characters by examining the prose of today s leading writers Andryczyk delves into the role of the intellectual in forging a post Soviet Ukrainian identity and follows these protagonists as they soar and stumble in pursuit of redefining their creative realm In addition to introducing readers to vibrant literary gems this book explores the artistic tendencies that determined the course of the Ukrainian cultural scene in the 1990s and continue to shape it today

Poetic Inclinations Dorthe Jørgensen, 2021-01-29 Philosophy originates in wonder that generates sensitive thinking also called aesthetic thinking an expanded mode of thought that bridges and dissolves contradictions This book questions the disregard for such thinking in modern society including the neglect of it in most educational institutions and contemporary research It describes what it means to think in an aesthetic way when aesthetic is synonymous with sensitive not sensuous including how such thinking may foster human well being and develop our notions of history hospitality freedom and the good life The formative nature of aesthetic thinking is presented alongside the attestation of its relevance in many disciplines and a broad spectrum of society in border studies education policy and social work and in life in general Poetic Inclinations Ethics History Philosophy is related to the simultaneously published monograph Imaginative Moods Aesthetics Religion Philosophy Together they constitute a comprehensive presentation in English of the author s philosophy of experience which includes new ways of conceiving of and applying aesthetics hermeneutics and phenomenology and of integrating these disciplines as well as theology J.M. Coetzee and the Idea of the Public Intellectual Jane Poyner, 2006 J M Coetzee and the Idea of the Public Intellectual addresses the contribution Coetzee has made to contemporary literature not least for the contentious forays his work makes into South African political discourse and the field of postcolonial studies The Pre-occupation of Postcolonial Studies Fawzia Afzal-Khan, Kalpana Seshadri-Crooks, 2000 The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies contains essays by both leading figures and younger scholars engaged in the field of postcolonial studies In this state of the field reader editors Fawzia Afzal Khan and Kalpana Seshadri Crooks have created a dynamic forum for contributors from a variety of theoretical and disciplinary vantage points to question both the limits and the limitations of postcolonial thought Since it burst on the academic scene as the hot new disciplinary field during the final decade of the twentieth century postcolonial studies has faced criticism from those who question its troubling trajectories its sometimes suspect epistemological and pedagogical methods and its relatively narrow focus With diverse essays that emerge from such disciplines as South Asian Latin American Arab and Jewish studies this volume responds to skeptics and adherers alike addressing not only the broad theoretical issues at stake within the field but also the position of the field itself within the academy as well as its relationship to modern postmodern and Marxist discourses Contributors offer critiques on ahistorical and universalizing tendencies in postcolonial work and confront the need for scholars to attend to issues of class ideology and the effects of neocolonial practices Seeking to broaden the field s traditionally literary spectrum of methodologies these essayists take up large thematic issues to examine specific sites of colonial activities with all of their historical political and cultural significance Closing the volume is an insightful interview with Homi Bhabha in which he discusses postcolonial studies in the context of contemporary cultural politics and theory The Pre Occupation of Postcolonial Studies not only offers an overview of the discipline but also pushes and pulls at the edges of postcolonial studies offering a comprehensive view of the field s diversity of thought and envisioning clear pathways for its future Contributors Fawzia Afzal Khan Ali Behdad Homi Bhabha Daniel Boyarin Neil Larsen Saree Makdisi Joseph Massad Walter Mignolo Hamid Naficy Ngugi Wa Thingo Timothy B Powell R Radhakrishnan Bruce Robbins Kalpana Seshadri Crooks Ella Shohat Rajeswari Sunder Rajan Global Fissures Clara A.B. Joseph, 2006-01-01 The essays in this volume examine the tensions between two major political and intellectual structures the global and the postcolonial charting the ways in which such tensions are constitutive of changing power relations between the individual the nation state and global forces Contributors ask how postcolonialism with its emphasis on cultural difference and diversity can respond to the new neo imperialist imperatives of globalization Signalling the discursive grounds for debate is the fissures fusions title suggesting alternative categorizations of stereotypes like global homogenization and postcolonial resistance Interwoven are considerations of the intellectual or writer s position today Literary texts from a wide range of countries are analysed for their resistance to global hegemony and for representations of manipulative power structures in order to highlight issues such as environmental loss nationality migrancy and marginality Specific topics covered include westernizing the Indian academy ecotourism and the new media of computer technology the corporatization of creativity in re branding New Zealand including film and the hybrid forms of Latin American photography Writers discussed include Chinua Achebe Samuel Beckett Hafid Bouazza Bei Dao Mahmoud Darwish Witi Ihimaera James Joyce Yann Martel Rohinton Mistry Ellen Ombre Michael Ondaatje George Orwell Arundhati Roy Salman Rushdie and Edward Said Different essays stress the hegemony of global networks the technological revolution s revitalizing of niche marketing while marginalizing postcolonial resistance the implications of the internationalization of culture for the indigene and the potential of cultural hybridity to collapse cultural hierarchies

Improving Workplace Learning by Teaching Literature Christine Angela Eastman,2016-04-19 This book investigates the integration of literary writing into work based or business writing It proposes ways of how to help people with considerable work experience use literature to engage with the problems they face in their work Many people like to read for pleasure but their skills in reading could always be improved This book makes an original contribution to the fields of education work based learning and business by encouraging students to explore history memoir fiction and non fiction to model their own writing and widen their knowledge beyond the work place and their customary reading Inside are onsite experiments with fiction and non fiction prose that show how people in the workplace respond and grow from contact with significant literature and culture that relates broadly to their work As a Coaching Master s student observes I have not been a prolific reader It has been a weakness and a gap I have probably read more in the last year during the project course than I have read in the past twenty years So that says something My ability to attend to what in a book has weight or relevance has markedly improved In the past I banked largely on my opinions because not being a prolific reader I had to It can be incredibly empowering to see that there are so many assets outside of my own mind When something comes up now I tend to weigh it I am more specific about how I use words

Edward Said Adel Iskandar,Hakem Rustom,2010-08-30 This indispensable volume a comprehensive and wide ranging resource on Edward Said s life and work spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said s provocative ideas

Image and Power Sarah Sceats,Gail Cunningham,2014-09-11 Image and Power is an important work of literary and cultural criticism This collection of essays focuses on some of the major issues addressed by women's writing in the twentieth century concerning genre subjectivity and social and cultural expectations issues which in the past have been regarded from an essentially male perspective The text introduces women writers whose novels have been widely read and provides an important contribution to the debate about women in literature

The Changing Role of the Public Intellectual Dolan Cummings, 2013-09-27 Ideas can define and transform society but how healthy is intellectual life today In a period when Big Brother refers not to George Orwell but to a reality TV show and when bright young things are developing gameshow formats rather than scribbling essays when thinkers join think tanks to design short term government policy rather than reflecting on and challenging the status quo and when the ever growing number of graduates seem more interested in job prospects than academic endeavour is intellectual life in terminal decline This book looks at the idea of the public intellectual considering whether such thinkers are becoming an endangered species It also looks at the legacy of relativism and ethical doubts about the pursuit of knowledge and the effect of such developments on intellectual life The final section considers the expansion of higher education and the changing role of the academic Taken together the essays in this collection form a comprehensive overview of the intellectual climate today and the possibilities for the future This volume was previously published as a special issue of the journal Critical Review of International Social and Political Philosophy CRISPP

The Oxford Handbook of Ralph Waldo Emerson Christopher Hanlon, 2024-06-25 The Oxford Handbook of Ralph Waldo Emerson is the most expansive collection of critical essays on Emerson to date a survey that approaches Emerson from the vantages of climate change racial justice print culture the digital humanities the new religious studies hemispheric American Studies health humanities and affect theory among other critical perspectives Curated between a forward by editor Christopher Hanlon who makes the case for a capacious and contemporary Emerson and Cornel West the activist scholar whose influential work on Emerson merges with a career of advocacy for economic and racial justice this collection assesses the history and state of Emerson scholarship while charting pathways for new work on this most essential American writer Comprised of new works by leading figures in nineteenth century Americanist literary studies the volume suggests directions into underexamined facets of Emerson's writing life and reputation From Emerson's engagements with energy infrastructure and the processes of extraction that undergirded the locomotives he rode and the energy economies he sometimes extolled to the vicissitudes of age he experienced alongside the romantic tropes of youthful vigour he both re-circulated and re-tooled to Emerson's poetry both in its philosophical formulations and in its reflections of the material circumstances of nineteenth century print culture to Emerson's resonance beyond the United States elsewhere in the western hemisphere to the Black press and its refractions of Emersonian transcendentalism in the midst of ante and post bellum justice struggles to the legacies of Emerson to be found in the writings of W E B Du Bois James Baldwin Rachel Carson and in the versions of Emerson to be found in children's literature to his often fraught and often fruitful engagements with reform movements of various sorts to the prospects for postcolony it focuses on three primary locations Black intellectuals in apartheid era South Africa in the aftermath of the Bantu Education Act of 1953 20th century Caribbean writers who sought to understand the disembodied legacy of the diaspora through accidental encounters with literature and history and writers from late colonial and postcolonial India whose disruptive self formation departed from the administrative project of professionalizing a particular kind of colonial subject Celebrating flawed and accidental forms of reading writing and learning along the periphery of the historical British Empire Majumdar reveals an unexpected account of the humanities in the postcolony Journey to Indo-América

Geneviève Dorais,2021-08-12 An examination of how exile and transnational solidarity decisively shaped the formation of a major populist movement in Peru Failing Peace Sara Roy,2006-10-20 Discussion of Israeli policy toward Palestinians is often regarded as a taboo subject with the result that few people especially in the US understand the origins and consequences of the conflict This book provides an indispensable context for understanding why the situation remains so intractable The book focuses on the Gaza Strip an area that remains consistently neglected and misunderstood despite its political centrality Drawing on more than two thousand interviews and extensive firsthand experience Sara Roy chronicles the impact of Israeli occupation in Palestine over nearly a generation Exploring the devastating consequences of socio economic and political decline this is a unique and powerful account of the reality of life in the West Bank and Gaza Written by one of the world s foremost scholars of the region it offers an unrivalled breadth of scholarship and insight

Experiments with Marxism-Leninism in Cold War Southeast Asia Matthew Galway,Marc H. Opper,2022-09-21 One of the most contentious theatres of the global conflict between capitalism and communism was Southeast Asia From the 1920s until the end of the Cold War the region was racked by international and internal wars that claimed the lives of millions and fundamentally altered societies in the region for generations Most of the 11 countries that compose Southeast Asia were host to the development of sizable communist parties that actively and sometimes violently contested for political power These parties were the object of fierce repression by European colonial powers post independence governments and the United States Southeast Asia communist parties were also the object of a great deal of analysis both during and after these conflicts This book brings together a host of expert scholars many of whom are either Southeast Asia based or from the countries under analysis to present the most expansive and comprehensive study to date on ideological and practical experiments with Marxism Leninism in Southeast Asia The bulk of this edited volume presents the contents of these revolutionary ideologies on their own terms and their transformations in praxis by using primary source materials that are free of the preconceptions and distortions of counterinsurgent narratives A unifying strength of this work is its focus on using primary sources in the original languages of the insurgents themselves Globalizing Dissent Ranjan Ghosh,Antonia Navarro-Tejero,2009-01-13 Arundhati Roy is not only an accomplished novelist but equally gifted in unraveling the politics of globalization the power and ideology of corporate culture fundamentalism terrorism and other issues gripping today s world

This volume featuring prominent scholars from throughout the world examines Roy beyond the aesthetic parameters of her fiction focusing also on her creative activism and struggles in global politics The chapters travel to and fro between her non fictional works engaging activism on the streets and global forums and its underlying roots in her novel Roy is examined as a novelist non fiction writer journalist activist feminist screenwriter ideologist and architect This volume presents Roy s interlocking network of the ideas attitudes and ideologies that emerge from the contemporary social and the political world
