Research In Human Geography Introductions And Investigations:

Research in Human Geography John Eyles, 1988 Research in Human Geography John Eyles, 1980 Information Sources in the Social Sciences David Fisher, Sandra Price, Terry Hanstock, 2018-02-19 No detailed description available for Information Sources in the Social Sciences An Introduction to Scientific Research Methods in Geography and Environmental Studies Daniel Montello, Paul Sutton, 2012-12-10 Covers a broad range of subjects that undergraduates in the discipline should be familiar and comfortable with upon graduation From chapters on the scientific method and fundamental research concepts to experimental design sampling and statistical analysis the text offers an excellent introduction to the key concepts of geographical research The content is applicable for students at the beginning of their studies right through to planning and conducting dissertations The book has also been of particular support in designing my level 1 and 2 tutorials which cover similar ground to several of the chapters Joseph Mallalieu School of Geography Leeds University Montello and Sutton is one of the best texts I've used in seminars on research methodology The text offers a clear balance of quantitative vs qualitative and physical vs human which I've found particularly valuable The chapters on research ethics scientific communication information technologies and data visualization are excellent Kenneth E Foote Department of Geography University of Colorado at Boulder This is a broad and integrative introduction to the conduct and interpretation of scientific research covering both geography and environmental studies Written for undergraduate and postgraduate students it Explains both the conceptual and the technical aspects of research as well as all phases of the research process Combines approaches in physical geography and environmental science human geography and human environment relations and geographic and environmental information techniques such as GIS cartography and remote sensing Combines natural and social scientific approaches common to subjects in geography and environmental studies Includes case studies of actual research projects to demonstrate the breadth of approaches taken It will be core reading for students studying scientific research methods in geography environmental studies and related disciplines such as planning and earth science Doing Ethnographies Mike Crang, Ian Cook, 2007-03-12 Doing Ethnographies is an introductory and applied guide to ethnographic methods It focuses on those methods participant observation interviewing focus groups and video photographic work that allow us to understand the lived everyday world Informed by the authors fieldwork experience the book covers the relation between theory practice and writing and demonstrates how methods work in the field so preparing the first time ethnographer for the loss of control and direction often experienced The Work in the World Michael R. Curry, 1996 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible to scholars students researchers and general readers Rich with historical and cultural value these works are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The books offered through Minnesota Archive Editions are produced in limited quantities according to customer demand and are available through select distribution partners Gentrification and Displacement Process Dedar Salam Khoshnaw, 2016-02-02 An obvious question which should be addressed at the outset is why gentrification and displacement is concentrated in these particular neighbourhoods in Erbil Citadel Mustawfi Bakhtiyari and Kurani Ainkawa The removal of Saddam Hussein in 2003 removed all obstacles to economic growth development social change and construction for the Iraqi Kurds Yildiz 2007 and Mati 2010 Gentrification has been widely defined around a number of concepts about class alteration and introduction into a given area these have led to definitions such as the movement of middle class and upper class residents into working class areas of the inner city Munt 1987 1175 Negotiating with and participation of the residents before the application of the process could be the first successful step to think about gentrification differently Exaggerated efforts to protect some original characteristics of the settlement are compulsory such as ethnic differentiation affordable rent values and small scale business Co operation of the local people in the development application of their areas could be more helpful for the authorities to become familiar with the residents problems and involve them with the process instead of displacing them directly or indirectly Culture/Place/Health Wilbert M. Gesler, Robin A. Kearns, 2005-07-05 Culture Place Health is the first exploration of cultural geographical health research for a decade drawing on contemporary research undertaken by geographers and other social scientists to explore the links between culture place and health It uses a wealth of examples from societies around the world to assert the place of culture in shaping relations between health and place It contributes to an expanding of horizons at the intersection of the discipline of geography and the multidisciplinary domain of health concerns Routledge Handbook of Sport Fans and Fandom Danielle Sarver Coombs, Anne C. Osborne, 2022-04-28 This is the first book to explore the full significance of sport fans and fandom from an international and interdisciplinary perspective across different sports communities and levels of engagement It gives a comprehensive overview of the undeniable economic and cultural influence of sport industries for which fans are the driving force The book examines different theoretical and methodological approaches to the study of fans including typologies of fandom and presents cutting edge discussion across broad thematic areas such as performance and identity the business of fandom and fandom and media It considers the experiences of diverse and marginalized fan groups with an emphasis on intersectional analysis and shines new light on key contemporary themes such as fan activism violence and deviance mobility and migration and the transformative effects of digital and social media This volume includes chapters by many of the leading scholars responsible for having laid the foundation for sport fan research as well as early career scholars who examine the newest developments in media technologies legalized betting gaming and fantasy sports Including perspectives from disciplines such as philosophy sociology psychology management economics and media studies this book is essential reading for anybody interested in the study of sport and wider society or fans and subcultures more broadly Indonesia's Small Entrepreneurs Sarah Turner, 2013-12-19 In the context of Makassar on the eastern Indonesian island of Sulawesi the book explores the socioeconomic and cultural relationships that make life for small entrepreneurs in Makassar so distinctive Using a new framework for the study of small enterprises the small enterprise integrative framework this book gives us a greater understanding of the organization and operations of small enterprises in developing countries at both the micro and macro levels The application of this new framework for research reveals the diversity of labour flexibility networking and cluster styles amongst the enterprises studies and the constraints they face for growth Whilst the recent Southeast Asian economic crisis has been heralded by certain commentators as a new era for small enterprises in the region the book concludes that local realities for the small enterprises in Makassar mean that whilst for some it has been a time of shifting fortunes others have continued trading on the margins

Ideological, Social and Cultural Aspects of Events

Omar Moufakkir,Tomas Pernecky,2014-12-10 There is an ever growing importance of events in modern society and until now existing literature on events has been dominated by the economic perspective Social and Cultural Aspects of Events addresses the social and cultural side of events and explores the role they have in fostering change and community development It examines the transformatory function of events in the context of development studies as phenomena that can promote and facilitate human development including social societal and individual change This book provides vital and timely exploration and encourages the study of more diverse themes within event management
