Lauer, 2002 Rhetorical invention the discursive art of inquiry and discovery has great significance in the history of spoken and written communication dating back to the ancient Greeks and Romans Yet invention has received relatively little attention in recent discussions of rhetoric writing and communication This collection of essays is the first book in years to focus on current research in rhetorical invention The contributors include many well established scholars as well as new voices in the field They reflect a variety of approaches and perspectives theory history culture politics institutions pedagogy and community service Several of the essays address the relationship between invention and postmodernism some by refiguring invention others by challenging postmodernism Still other essays explore multicultural conceptions of invention the civic function of invention and rhetoric and the role of rhetorical invention in institutions and in community problem solving Taken together these essays provide a much needed forum for ongoing study of rhetorical invention within the framework of recent developments in both scholarship and the culture at large If inventional research is to continue and flourish notes Janice Lauer in her foreword it must remain sensitive to shifts in epistemology ethics and politics The essays in this volume undertake this effort The Editors Janet M Atwill is associate professor of English at the University of Tennessee The author of Rhetoric Reclaimed Aristotle and the Liberal Arts Tradition and coauthor of Four Worlds of Writing Inquiry and Action in Context and Writing A College Handbook she has published articles in Rhetoric Review Encyclopedia of Rhetoric and the Journal of Advanced Composition Janice M Lauer is Reece McGee Distinguished Professor of English at Purdue University where she founded directed and teaches in the graduate program in Rhetoric and Composition She is coauthor of Four Worlds of Writing and Composition Research Empirical Designs and has published numerous articles on rhetoric and composition Contributors Frederick J Antczak Janet M Atwill Julia Deems Richard Leo Enos Theresa Enos Linda Flower Debra Hawhee Janice M Lauer Donald Lazere Yameng Liu Arabella Lyon Louise Wetherbee Phelps Jay Satterfield Haixia Wang Mark T Williams The Whole-brain Solution Tricia Armstrong, 2003 Explores the higher order thinking tools that are essential for students to become effective learners It includes lessons that encourage students to understand and integrate information so that they can use what they know to solve problems and make decisions

Fatal Invention Dorothy Roberts,2011-06-14 An incisive groundbreaking book that examines how a biological concept of race is a myth that promotes inequality in a supposedly post racial era Though the Human Genome Project proved that human beings are not naturally divided by race the emerging fields of personalized medicine reproductive technologies genetic genealogy and DNA databanks are attempting to resuscitate race as a biological category written in our genes This groundbreaking book by legal scholar and social critic Dorothy Roberts examines how the myth of race as a biological concept revived by purportedly cutting edge science race specific drugs genetic testing and DNA databases continues to undermine a just society and promote inequality in a supposedly post racial era Named one of the ten best black nonfiction books 2011 by AFRO com Fatal Invention offers a timely and provocative analysis Nature of race science and politics that is consistently lucid alarming but not alarmist controversial but evidential impassioned but rational Publishers Weekly starred review Everyone concerned about social justice in America should read this powerful book Anthony D Romero executive director American Civil Liberties Union A terribly important book on how the fatal invention has terrifying effects in the post genomic post racial era Eduardo Bonilla Silva professor of sociology Duke University and author of Racism Without Racists Color Blind Racism and the Persistence of Racial Inequality in the United States Fatal Invention is a triumph Race has always been an ill defined amalgam of medical and cultural bias thinly overlaid with the trappings of contemporary scientific thought And no one has peeled back the layers of assumption and deception as lucidly as Dorothy Roberts Harriet A Washington author of and Deadly Monopolies The Shocking Corporate Takeover of Life Itself

Inventor Data for Research on Migration and Innovation: A Survey and a Pilot World Intellectual Property Organization,Stefano Breschi,Francesco Lissoni,Gianluca Tarasconi, This paper discusses the existing literature on migration and innovation with special emphasis on empirical studies based on patent and inventor data Other sources of micro data are examined too for comparative purposes A pilot database based on patent filings at the European Patent Office is presented It contains information on individual inventors including their country of residence and of origin Preliminary evidence suggests that immigrant inventors contribute to innovation not only in the United States but also in selected European countries where they often rank among the most productive individuals
