Womack, 2016-01-23 Davis and Womack investigate the emerging gaps between literary scholarship and the reading experience The idea of reconciling the void the locus of our sociocultural disillusionment and despair in an uncertain world concerns explicit artistic attempts to represent the ways in which human beings seek out meaning hope and community

Long and Winding Roads, Revised Edition Kenneth Womack, 2022-12-15 In Long and Winding Roads The Evolving Artistry of the Beatles Revised Edition Kenneth Womack brings the band's story vividly to life from their salad days as a Liverpool Skiffle group and their apprenticeship in the nightclubs and mean streets of Hamburg through their early triumphs at the legendary Cavern Club and the massive onslaught of Beatlemania itself By mapping the group's development as an artistic fusion Womack traces the Beatles' creative arc from their first primitive recordings through Abbey Road and the twilight of their career In this revised edition Womack addresses new insights in Beatles related scholarship since the original publication of Long and Winding Roads along with hundreds of the group's outtakes released in the intervening years The updated edition also affords attention to the Beatles' musical debt to Rhythm and Blues as well as to key recent discoveries that vastly shift our understanding of formative events in the band's timeless story

Resounding Pasts Drago Momcilovic, 2020-05-15 The field of memory studies has long been preoccupied with the manner in which events from the past are commemorated forgotten re fashioned or worked through on both the individual and collective level Yet in an age when various modes of artistic and cultural commemoration have begun to overlap with and respond to one another the dynamics of cultural remembering and forgetting become bound up in an increasingly elaborate network of representations that operate both within and outside temporal cultural and national borders As publicly circulating texts that straddle the line between cultural artifact and artistic object both musical and literary works both individually and often in conjunction with one another help shape cultural memories and individual experiences of those events Troping their cultural milieux through specific aesthetic and social forms genres and modes of dissemination music and literature become part of a growing global panoply of raw materials upon which we might begin to pose questions regarding the way we remember the consequences of sharing and passing on those memories and the aesthetic and cultural pressures attendant upon the circulation and interpretation of texts that re sound the past
