

Tues. Eve.

Dear Warren,

The radio is playing "If I Could Be With You One Hour Tonight." Guess I shouldn't but I do somehow. Frankly I don't know what has come over me. All I know is that I want to be with you. Even after what you told me last mite I want to see you. Take a rain check on that cup of coffee, and I wish I could have it before I ~~left~~ leave this part of the U. S. & before you leave. After all I don't think you are going to stay home anyway. Why does things like this have to happen I keep asking myself. Maybe it's one of these milestones on this life. Anyway drop me a line - at the Mc Beebe - if we don't get a room there we'll stop & collect our mail since it's we left it as a forwarding address!

Love Letters From A War:

Love Letters of the Great War Mandy Kirkby, 2014-01-16 From the private papers of a young Winston Churchill to the tender notes of an unknown Tommy in the trenches Love Letters of the Great War is a collection of profound intimate and heartfelt letters written during World War One Many of the letters collected here are eloquent declarations of love and longing others contain wrenching accounts of fear jealousy and betrayal and a number share sweet dreams of home But in all the correspondence whether from British American French German Russian Australian and Canadian troops in the height of battle or from the heartbroken wives and sweethearts left behind there lies a truly human portrait of love and war A century on from the First World War these letters offer an intimate glimpse into the hearts of men and women separated by conflict and show how love can transcend even the bleakest and most devastating of realities Edited and introduced by Mandy Kirkby with a foreword from Women's Prize winner Helen Dunmore Dear Anne Barbara Whittington, 2016-11-01 Letters between a soldier in combat in the Vietnam War and his new bride back home Until I Come Home Paul N. Parish, 2003 Wives and Sweethearts Alastair Massie, 2014-01-30 What is it like to fall in love with a soldier What is it like to be a soldier in love Throughout history those serving in the British Army have combined romantic relationships with their military duties In wartime especially all the usual emotions experienced by men and women in love are felt to a heightened degree The sense of danger and the sometimes years of separation imposed by service abroad
