Victoria Belco,2010-01-01 The Second World War wreaked unprecedented devastation throughout Europe necessitating monumental reconstruction efforts that burdened not only governments but the lives of ordinary citizens War Massacre and Recovery in Central Italy 1943 1948 examines this transitional period in the province of Arezzo by detailing the daily experiences of civilians through the traumas of war and the difficulties of recovery Studying the aftermath of war in a new and insightful way Victoria C Belco shifts the perspective from the national to the local level With this localized focus she provides valuable insight into the ways in which civilians coped with an overwhelming range of problems from adjusting to Allied occupation and widespread displacement to rampant unemployment and the restructuring of local administrations and institutions after fascism Recreating the post war atmosphere of disorder need and political upheaval Belco shows how the competing community interests caused social fragmentations that impeded change while the unity of a shared past prevented civil war Stuart Hood, Twentieth-Century Partisan David Hutchison,David Johnson,2020-07-31 This collection introduces the reader to the life and times of Stuart Hood 1915 2011 Highlighting Hood s year spent fighting with the Italian Resistance during the Second World War the essays consider how his experiences as a partisan influenced his peacetime trajectory Written by distinguished scholars from several disciplines each chapter examines different aspects of Hood s life and work including his Scottish boyhood and university education in Edinburgh his distinguished career as a broadcaster presiding over an era of unprecedented creativity at BBC television his role in the establishment of the discipline of media studies and his contribution to radical European culture as the translator of 40 literary works from Italian German French and Russian and as the author of eight acclaimed novels Stuart Hood's reticence made him an enigma to many who knew him This collection assesses his many faceted achievements demonstrating how his life provides fresh insights into twentieth century European history This book will appeal to readers interested in the history of British and European socialism media studies and literature London War Letters of a Separated Family 1940 to 1945, 2008 The Mourner's Song James

Tatum, 2018-10-30 No matter when or where they are fought all wars have one thing in common a relentless progression to monuments and memorials for the dead Likewise all art made from war begins and ends in mourning and remembrance In The Mourner's Song James Tatum offers incisive discussions of physical and literary memorials constructed in the wake of war from the Vietnam Veterans Memorial to the writings of Stephen Crane Edmund Wilson Tim O'Brien and Robert Lowell Tatum's touchstone throughout is the Iliad not just one of the earliest war poems but also one of the most powerful examples of the way poetry can be a tribute to and consolation for what is lost in war Reading the Iliad alongside later works inspired by war Tatum reveals how the forms and processes of art convert mourning to memorial He examines the role of remembrance and the distance from war it requires the significance of landscape in memorialization the artifacts of war that fire the imagination the intimate relationship between war and love and its effects on the ferocity with which soldiers wage battle and finally the idea of memorialization itself Because all survivors suffer the losses of war Tatum's is a story of both victims and victors commanders and soldiers women and men Photographs of war memorials in Vietnam France and the United States beautifully augment his testimonials Eloquent and deeply moving The Mourner's Song will speak to anyone interested in the literature of war and the relevance of the classics to our most pressing contemporary needs Literature of Travel and Exploration: G to P Jennifer Speake, 2003 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Raleigh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles postcards companies and societies East India Company Royal Geographical Society Society of Dilettanti and issues and themes censorship exile orientalism and tourism For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Literature of Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia website The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza, 2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material Well known literary works such as Dickens's A Christmas Carol and Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter were adapted to film in the silent era as were such books as Thomas Dixon's Jr's The Klansman basis for the

The Public Schools Battalion in the Great War Steve Hurst, 2007-07-01 The experience of combat was never more horrific than on the Western Front come to life in this notable addition to the literature of war Washington Examiner Founded in August 1914 with the principle that recruiting would be restricted to public school old boys the volunteers gathered at Hurst Park racecourse in a spirit of youthful enthusiasm A more somber mood soon set in Despite many of the original volunteers leaving to take commissions in other regiments the battalion now officially the 7th Middlesex remained an elite until its disbandment in 1917 The climax of the Battalions war came on 1 July 1916 Close to the Hawthorn Redoubt Crater are two cemeteries sited on either side of the Auchonvilliers Beaumont Hamel road They contain row upon row of stones marking the graves of members of the Public Schools Battalion The author shocked by this discovery has spent ten years researching the history of the Battalion and the events of that fateful day as they affected it The result is a fascinating and moving record of a very uniquely British battalion It is eminently readable and the personal reminiscences of those who were there add a great deal to its appeal My main interest and fascination with the Great War is to do with the experiences of those who fought and this book gives a great insight into that Steve Hurst wanted to tell the story of the men who were there he has done it very well World War One Battlefields

War Through Italian Eyes Alexander Henry, 2021-07-18 There is a popular notion that the Italian armed forces of the Second World War were an inferior fighting force Despite the vast numbers taken prisoner detailed studies of the experiences of these soldiers remain relatively uncommon and the value of this group to furthering our understanding of the Italian experience of war under Fascism is also rarely acknowledged The existence in the National Archives of hundreds of pages of transcripts of covert British surveillance of Italian POWs has made it possible to engage with their experiences and opinions in much greater depth The euphemistically termed Special Reports present historians with a unique insight into how all levels of Italian soldiery viewed Fascist Italy's experience of war 1940 1943 This book examines reactions to Italian political leadership the progress of the war as well as Italian soldiers everyday views on sex war the enemy death food their allies bravery race and killing These fascinating documents reveal the complexity of the outlook of these men which persistent and influential national stereotypes and historiographical trends fail to acknowledge

War Stories Ann MacMillan, 2018-09-04 A fascinating account of ordinary men and women swept up in the turbulence of conflict War Stories tells the tales of thirty four individuals who have pushed the boundaries of love bravery suffering and terror beyond the imaginable These stories span three centuries and five continents There is the courage of Edward Seager who survived the Charge of the Light Brigade the cunning of Krystyna Skarbek quick thinking spy and saboteur during the Second World War the skullduggery of Benedict Arnold who switched sides in the American War of Independence and the compassion of Magdalene de Lancey who tenderly nursed her dying husband at Waterloo Told with vivid narrative energy and full of unexpected insights War Stories moves effortlessly from tales of spies escapes and innovation to uplifting acts of humanity in times of crisis celebrating men and women whose wartime experiences are beyond compare

When the Moon Rises Tony Davies, 2016-10-14 In the face of the advancing Allied forces Italy capitulated in September 1943 leaving thousands of Allied prisoners of war held in camps around the country to fend for themselves Amongst those prisoners was Tony Davis who had been captured in North Africa Determined to make the most of the opportunity with two fellow companions in arms Tony set off on a 700 mile walk through German occupied Italy with nothing to sustain them other than an almost schoolboy like enthusiasm The story of their adventures was received with great acclaim when this account was first published in 1973 and When the Moon Rises takes the reader on a roller coaster journey through Italy from the River Po to Calabria meeting a cast of exciting and voluble characters en route Regardless of the ever present risk of re capture Tony Davis and his comrades enjoyed street parties and drinking binges with the cheerful Italians who were happy to be no longer fighting the British Repeatedly chased by the Germans the tension mounts as the story reaches its dramatic climax the little band never failing to maintain their wit and humour When the Moon Rises is one of the classic escape stories of the Second World War
