Nuevas Perspectivas De Los Estudios De Traducción:

Nuevas perspectivas de los estudios de traducción José-María Bravo, 2002 Medical Brochure as a Textual Genre Goretti Faya Ornia, 2016-02-08 This book studies the text genre of medical brochures in the United Kingdom and Spain for two main reasons firstly to determine the features that these texts present in each country and secondly to check if medical brochures published in Spain and translated from Spanish into English include all relevant features typical of original English texts It begins by defining the terms genre class and type and relating them to medical brochures After referring to text type a related term is explained text typology This leads to the discussion of several specialised typologies and the presentation of a new proposal of typology in which the position of the genre of medical brochures is determined In order to perform a contrastive study of medical brochures in English and in Spanish the book defines what constitutes a linguistic corpus comments on different types of corpora and presents its own version of classification in which the corpus used for the study is located Finally the results obtained from the contrastive analysis are presented and analysed the features observed in the original brochures English and Spanish are shown and the results are contrasted with those found in the translated brochures Lexicography, Terminology, and Translation Lynne Bowker, 2006-09-28 This volume in honour of Ingrid Meyer is a tribute to her work in the interrelated fields of lexicography terminology and translation One key thing shared by these fields is that they all deal with text Accordingly the essays in this collection are united by the fact that they too are all text based in some way In the majority of essays electronic corpora serve as the textual basis for investigations Chapters focusing on electronic corpora include a description of a tool that can be used to help build specialized corpora in a semi automatic fashion corpus based investigations of terminological knowledge patterns terminological implantation lexicographic information and translation solutions comparisons of corpora to conventional resources such as dictionaries and analyses of corpus processing tools such as translation memory systems In several essays notably those dealing with historical or literary documents the texts in question are specific manuscripts that have been studied with a view to learning more about lexicographic and translation practice The volume is rounded out with a chapter on audiovisual translation that takes a non conventional view of text where text includes film Published in English Experiencias De Traducción/ Experiences of Translation Isabel García Izquierdo, 2005 What is the translation profession like How can you get into the job market What range of activities must translators cover How many languages do they need to be fluent in The significant contributions included in this book bridge the gap between theory and practice and offer new suggestions for analysing translation activity Translation and Cultural Identity Maria del Carmen Buesa Gómez, Micaela Muñoz-Calvo, 2010-02-19 Translation and Cultural Identity Selected Essays on Translation and Cross Cultural Communication tackles the complexity of the concepts mentioned in its title through seven essays written by most highly regarded experts in the field of Translation Studies Jos Lambert Catholic University of Louvain Belgium Raquel Merino University of the Basque Country Spain Rosa Rabad n

University of Leon Spain Julio C sar Santoyo University of Leon Spain Christina Sch ffner Aston University Birmingham United Kingdom Gideon Toury Tel Aviv University Israel and Patrick Zabalbeascoa Pompeu Fabra University Spain The essays are varied and innovative Their common feature is that they deal with various aspects of translation and cultural identity and that they contribute to the enrichment of the study of communication across cultures These major readings in translation studies will give readers food for thought and reflection and will promote research on translation cultural identity and cross cultural communication
