Repo Man:

Billion Dollar Repo Man Ken Cage, 2017-09-20 Ken Cage has starred on the television show Airplane Repo. He is known for repossessing high end assets like airplanes, boats, and racehorses. This autobiography tells how he got in the business on the tv show and some of his stories. X Films

Alex Cox, 2008-09-01 Filmmaker Alex Cox's thoughtful autobiography examines his craft and influences as well as providing his insights into many of his favorite films. Sometimes called a radical, Cox is a quintessential auteur as well as an internationally focused insightful critic and writer whose passion for film has gripped him since childhood. In addition to being a captivating look into Cox's process, this book also encourages and instructs would-be independent filmmakers guiding the next generation of film pioneers through the arduous journey of creation. Cox weaves his own confessions with his notes to the new guard including thoughts on new forms of digital distribution and his radical views on intellectual property; the result is a readable, startling treatise on both the film innovations of today and the thrilling potential of future filmmaking. Repo Man Alex Cox, 1982 When the Repo Man Comes Knocking (First Time)

Chris Fehr, 2018-09-17 The Repo Men are characters that come across differently than that of your everyday average person. They drive up on your lawn and beat the door. Bam Bam Bam trying to get a payment and they might eat your food or fall in love with their customers. A daily ritual of collection activity is visited upon American people. Once you signed the contract, you were obligated to pay. This is the story of those who did not and those like Gus who chased them. There was gunfire and van to car chases, a customer opens the door screaming and intense in-store action with a customer and a fire ax. The Repo Men were agents of personal and property destruction. Christopher J. Olson, 2018-04-12 The term cult film may be difficult to define, but one thing is certain: A cult film is any movie that has developed a rabid following for one reason or another. From highly influential works of pop art like Eraserhead and Faster Pussycat Kill Kill to trash masterpieces such as Miami Connection and Fateful Findings, thousands of movies have earned recognition as cult classics over the years, and new movies rise to cult status every year. So how do viewers searching for the best or most important cult films decide where to start? In 100 Greatest Cult Films, Christopher J. Olson highlights the most provocative, intriguing, entertaining, and controversial films produced over the last century. The movies included here have either earned reputations as bona fide cult classics or have in some way impacted our understanding of cult cinema, often transcending traditional notions of good and bad while featuring memorable characters, unforgettably shocking scenes, and exceptionally quotable dialogue. With detailed arguments for why these films deserve to be considered among the greatest of all time, Olson provides readers fodder for debate and a jumping off point for future watching. A thought-provoking and accessible look at dozens of cinematic treasures, this resource includes valuable information on the films' creators and institutions that have shaped cult cinema. Ultimately, The 100 Greatest Cult Films offers readers, from casual cinephiles to film scholars and avid fans alike, a chance to discover or re-discover some of the most memorable films of all time. From
