Human Trafficking and Prostitution Among Women and Girls of Edo State, Nigeria Possibility of Rehabilitation Through Education and Prevention Mary Dorothy Ezech, 2017-06-06 Even though this study was primarily on human trafficking and prostitution among Edo women and girls of Edo state in Nigeria human trafficking however is a widespread visible phenomenon in the world today It is a global problem A report from United Nations Office on Drug and Crime in 2014 says that human trafficking involves over three million people in the world bringing their slaveholders an annual profit of 32 billion dollars According to the same report there is no place in the world where children women and men are safe from human trafficking In the background the stark reality of poverty unemployment social marginalization political crises wars interethnic conflicts and the militarization of entire territories has increased the massive displacements of the population fuelling the illegal sex trade linked to them Many youngsters who desire to improve their living conditions and those of their families fleeing their homes often become prey to criminal organizations who take advantage of them exploit them and dehumanize them Little do they know when they are leaving their homes to go to overseas what is waiting for them is often something altogether different namely intimidation blackmail violence nightmare and slavery that strip them of all dignity and respect To make matters worse most of the victims and their families not only lose credibility but are also ostracized by their local communities when what happened comes to light Therefore the victims of this painful chain are not only young girls and boys but also families Unfortunately some parents especially mothers have also been perpetrators of this deplorable crime They push their daughters into the arms of their torturers lulled by the dream of a brighter future To stop and to prevent the reoccurrence of this criminal network of complicity which has been more or less voluntary conscious and unconscious a joint commitment by all governments organizations local communities and individuals is necessary Everyone needs to remember and never forget that every human being every person has been created and procreated in the image and likeness of God and is a subject of essential rights which should never be violated but rather should be respected and upheld by everyone in every time and place

The Trade in Human Beings Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Home Affairs Committee, 2009 Incorporating HC 318 i vi session 2007 08

'My Name is Not Natasha' John Davies, 2009 This book challenges every common presumption that exists about the trafficking of women for the sex trade It is a detailed account of an entire population of trafficked Albanian women whose varied experiences including selling sex on the streets of France clearly demonstrate how much the present discourse about trafficked women is misplaced and inadequate The heterogeneity of the women involved and their relationships with various men is clearly presented as is the way women actively created a panoptical surveillance of themselves as a means of self policing There is no artificial divide between women who were deceived and abused and those who choose sex work in fact the book clearly shows how peripheral involvement in sex work was to the real agenda of the women involved Most of the women described in this book were not making economic decisions to escape desperate poverty nor were they the uneducated nave entrapped into sexual slavery The women s success in transiting trafficking to achieve their own goals without the assistance of any outside agency is a testimony to their resilience and resolve

New Books on Women and Feminism ,2004 Human Trafficking in Europe Gillian Wylie, Penelope McRedmond, 2010-06-30 This book focuses on human trafficking in Europe for labour and sexual exploitation It includes empirical work on trafficking throughout Europe identifying underlying causes in globalization migration policies and gender inequality It questions whether European responses from policy makers or civil society are adequate

Caribbean Anti-Trafficking Law and Practice Jason Haynes, 2019-07-11 This monograph investigates the International European and Commonwealth Caribbean approaches to human trafficking from an Analytical Eclectic perspective It presents a compelling empirically based argument that although there is currently a panoply of measures aimed at preventing human trafficking prosecuting offenders and protecting trafficked victims in both Europe and the Commonwealth Caribbean these measures have in practice been fraught with a number of challenges whether of a normative institutional or individual nature The continued existence of these challenges strongly suggests that there exists a disconnect between anti trafficking law and practice which is not peculiar to small island developing States since they also extend to developed States including the United Kingdom Although these challenges are not insurmountable this monograph advances the argument that sustained social economic political and legal commitments are both necessary and desirable and that without such commitments only pyrrhic victories would be won in the fight to eradicate the scourge of the twenty first century Given the importance of the issue of human trafficking and its inescapable impact on victims families communities nations regions and the international community as a whole this monograph will serve as an important resource for policy makers scholars students and practitioners actively working in this increasingly dynamic area of law

Human Trafficking John Winterdyk, Benjamin Perrin, Philip Reichel, 2011-12-05 Human trafficking is a crime that undermines fundamental human rights and a broader sense of global order It is an atrocity that transcends borders with some regions known as exporters of trafficking victims and others recognized as destination countries Edited by three global experts and composed of the work of an esteemed panel of contributors

Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling in Southeast Europe and Russia Johan Leman, Stef Janssens, 2015-10-21 Through unprecedented access to over 100 court files and sentences and interviews with police and security personnel in both origin and destination countries this book provides the most comprehensive exploration to date of human trafficking and migrant smuggling in Eastern Europe and Russia

British National Bibliography for Report Literature ,2003-07 Prohibition of Sexual Exploitation of Children Constituting Obligation Erga Omnes Farhad Malekian, Kerstin Nordlöf, 2014-10-02 Whilst the value of human integrity within the laws of individual states and the documents of international human rights is being increasingly consolidated and will become sooner or later the primary concern of the law severe breaches of this value are indeed still widespread In particular the sexual exploitation of children constitutes one of the most serious questions of national regional transnational and international law According to international records every fifteen seconds a child is raped in Africa alone Almost half of the cases heard by the ICTY concern the sexual exploitation of women and children during armed conflict More or less similar conclusions may be reached regarding the ICTR or the SCSL In Rwanda alone 500 000 females were raped Almost 200 000 females and children have been the victims of cruel forms of sexual violence during the conflicts in Congo Sexual abuse of children by priests cannot any longer be concealed in Australia Belgium Canada Germany France Ireland Mexico the United Kingdom and the United States although it is ignored in most Islamic countries The sexual exploitation of children is also widely practised in many other countries Regrettably 79% of all world trafficking is for sexual exploitation The principal subject matter of this book is the legal etymology of sexual exploitation governing minors The aim is to identify and analyse jus cogens and obligation erga omnes in relation to the sexual exploitation of children and to evaluate the international responsibility of states in relation to the elimination or prevention of the crime and the prosecution and punishment of offenders
