Standard Letters in Architectural Practice David Chappell,2008-04-15 Architects and contract administrators spend a great deal of time writing letters of various types. Many of them are routine and repetitive in character but they require proper consideration if potentially dangerous liability situations are to be avoided. This book provides some 285 standard letters for use at all stages of project administration. To assist the user they are grouped into sections which correspond with the RIBA Plan of Work; the aim is to cover all the common situations encountered in practice. The book has been revised to take account of the latest contract revisions and many letters have been added. Unless otherwise stated all letters are suitable for use with JCT 98 WCD 98 IFC 98 MW 98 GC Works 1 1998. The latest edition also takes account of the three new RIBA Standard Forms of Agreement for Appointment of an Architect SFA 99 CE 99 and SW 99. Although primarily written for architects and contract administrators the book will also be of use to project managers and employers' agents under WCD 98. Contractors will also find much of interest.

Writing Architectural History Aggregate Architectural History Collaborative, 2021-12-14. Over the past two decades scholarship in architectural history has transformed moving away from design studio pedagogy and postmodern historicism to draw instead from trends in critical theory focusing on gender race the environment and more recently global history connecting to revisionist trends in other fields. With examples across space and time from medieval European coin trials and eighteenth century Haitian revolutionary buildings to Weimar German construction firms and present day African refugee camps Writing Architectural History considers the impact of these shifting institutional landscapes and disciplinary positionings for architectural history. Contributors reveal how new methodological approaches have developed interdisciplinary research beyond the traditional boundaries of art history departments and architecture schools and explore the challenges and opportunities presented by conventional and unorthodox forms of evidence and narrative: the tools used to write history.
