Feminist Posthumanism in Contemporary Science Fiction Film and Media Julia A. Empey, Russell J.A. Kilbourn, 2023-08-24 Feminist Posthumanism in Contemporary Science Fiction Film and Media From Annihilation to High Life and Beyond places posthumanism and feminist theory into dialogue with contemporary science fiction film and media This essay collection is intimately invested in the debates around the posthuman and the critical posthumanities within a feminist critical theoretical framework In this posthumanist light science fiction as a genre allows for new imaginings of human technological relations while it can also be the site of a critique of human exceptionalism and essentialism In this way science fiction affords unique opportunities for the scholarly investigation of the relevance and relative applicability of specific posthumanist themes and questions in a particularly rich and wide ranging popular cultural field of production One of the reasons for this suitability is the genre's historically longstanding relationship with the critical investigation of gender specifically the position and relative empowerment of women The original analyses presented here pay close attention to audiovisual style including game mechanics facilitating the critical interrogation of the issues and questions around posthumanism Where typically the mention of SF in the posthumanist context calls to mind a whole set of often clichéd tropes the cyborg technologically augmented bodies AI subjectivities etc this volume's thirteen chapters analyze specific examples of contemporary SF cinema that engage in meaningful ways with the burgeoning field of critical posthumanism and that utilize such films to interrogate posthumanist and feminist as well as humanistic ideas

Cyborg Selves Jeanine Thweatt-Bates, 2016-05-13 What is the posthuman Is becoming posthuman inevitable something which will happen to us or something we will do to ourselves Why do some long for it while others fearfully reject it These questions underscore the fact that the posthuman is a name for the unknown future and therefore not a single idea but a jumble of competing visions some of which may be exciting some of which may be frightening and which is which depends on who you are and what you desire to be This book aims to clarify current theological and philosophical dialogue on the posthuman by arguing that theologians must pay attention to which form of the posthuman they are engaging and to demonstrate that a posthuman theology is not only possible but desirable when the vision of the posthuman is one which coincides with a theological vision of the human Prophets of the Posthuman Christina Bieber Lake, 2013-09-30 Prophets of the Posthuman provides a fresh and original reading of fictional narratives that raise the question of what it means to be human in the face of rapidly developing bioenhancement technologies Christina Bieber Lake argues that works by Nathaniel Hawthorne Walker Percy Flannery O'Connor Toni Morrison George Saunders Marilynne Robinson Raymond Carver James Tiptree Jr and Margaret Atwood must be reevaluated in light of their contributions to larger ethical questions Drawing on a wide range of sources in philosophical and theological ethics Lake claims that these writers share a commitment to maintaining a category of personhood more meaningful than that allowed by utilitarian ethics Prophets of the Posthuman insists that because technology can never ask whether we should do something that we have the power to do literature must step into that role Each of the chapters of this interdisciplinary study sets up a typical ethical scenario regarding human enhancement technology and then illustrates how a work of fiction uniquely speaks to that scenario exposing a realm of human motivations that might otherwise be overlooked or simplified Through the vision of the writers she discusses Lake uncovers a deep critique of the ascendancy of personal autonomy as America's most cherished value This ascendancy coupled with technology's glamorous promises of happiness helps to shape a utilitarian view of persons that makes responsible ethical behavior toward one another almost impossible Prophets of the Posthuman charts the essential role that literature must play in the continuing conversation of what it means to be human in a posthuman world Journal of Posthumanism, Vol. 1 No. 1 Sumeyra Buran Utku, Cagdas Dedeoglu, Pelin Kümbet, Yunus Tuncel, 2021-05-08 Posthumanisms beyond Disciplines Sumeyra Buran Utku Cagdas Dedeoglu Pelin Kümbet Yunus Tuncel 1-4 Posthuman Archaeologies Archaeological Posthumanisms Craig Cipolla Rachel J Crellin Oliver J T Harris 5-21 Cyborg or Goddess Religion and Posthumanism From Secular to Postsecular Elaine Graham 23-31 The Vital Life of Kitchens in Higher Education Institutional Workspaces Material Matterings Affective Choreographies and Micropolitical Practices Carol A Taylor 33-52 The Body is Infinite Body Intelligence Ontohacking Sex Species and the BI r evolution in the Algorithmic Jaime del Val 53-72 Chinese Kung fu Films and the Posthuman Daoism Kin Yuen Wong 73-86 Commentaries Interviews Are We Ready for Direct Brain Links to Machines and Each Other A Real World Application of Posthuman Bioethics Kevin LaGrandeur 87-91 From the Ashes Ecological Ethics and the Australian Bushfires Matt McDonald 93-96 To the Posthuman Born e The Post natural World of Jeff VanderMeer Pramod K Nayar 97-105 Dialogue on Posthuman Life Death and COVID 19 Francesca Ferrando Asijit Datta 107-120 Book Reviews Posthumanism and higher education Reimagining pedagogy practice and research Karen E Barr 121-124 On Transhumanism The most dangerous idea in the world Aleksandar Talovic 125-128 Artistic Works Pink Chicken Project ISSN 2634 3576 Print ISSN 2634 3584 Online Journal of Posthumanism is an international multilingual peer reviewed scholarly journal promoting innovative work to transverse the fields ranging from social sciences humanities and arts to medicine and STEM In line with the efforts of creating a broad
