Arts Methods for the Self-Representation of Undergraduate Students Miranda Matthews, 2023-04-07 This timely book explores the transitional experiences of undergraduates in minority groups studying at university and how arts methods and practices can play an important role in facilitating these transitions Based on research from UK universities this volume is the first to draw together the experiences of educators in the humanities and social sciences who integrate sensory methodologies in taught curriculum in relation to arts educators who add extra curricular arts practice It offers an original contextualised analysis of how to enable university structures to adapt to complexity difference and diversity taking the view that arts practice forms meeting points for confident interconnection and spaces of self representation It outlines the novel concept of sensory transition in how arts practices can be used to address issues of inclusion diversity and self representation for minority groups Each chapter offers an in depth analysis of significant issues such as dimensions of race gender and class and the specificities of social and cultural group experiences as they occur in arts practice The book reflects on the decolonisation of university structures and curriculum and demonstrates how universities can support students and build spaces for self representation in academic courses Accessible and investigative this book is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education inclusion and arts methods It will also be of great interest to higher education staff interested in decolonisation diversity and university futures International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995 Imagined Futures Max Saunders,2019-10-22 This study provides the first substantial history and analysis of the To Day and To Morrow series of 110 books published by Kegan Paul Trench and Tr bner and E P Dutton in the USA from 1923 to 1931 in which writers chose a topic described its present and predicted its future Contributors included J B S Haldane Bertrand Russell Vernon Lee Robert Graves Vera Brittain Sylvia Pankhurst Hugh MacDiarmid James Jeans J D Bernal Winifred Holtby Andr Maurois and many others The study combines a comprehensive account of its interest history and range with a discussion of its key concerns tropes and influence The argument focuses on science and technology not only as the subject of many of the volumes but also as method especially through the paradigm of the human sciences applied to other disciplines and as a source of metaphors for representing other domains It also includes chapters on war technology cultural studies and literature and the arts This book aims to reinstate the series as a vital contribution to the writing of modernity and to reappraise modernism s relation to the future establishing a body of progressive writing which moves beyond the discourses of post Darwinian degeneration and post war disenchantment projecting human futures rather than mythic or classical pasts It also shows how as a co ordinated body of futurological writing the series is also revealing about the nature and practices of modern futurology itself East India (Calcutta University Commission) India. Calcutta University Commission,1920 The Cumulative Book Index ,1992 A world list of books in the English language Anarchism and the Crisis of Representation Jesse S. Cohn,2006-09 Anarchism and the Crisis of Representation is intended to provide readers of literary criticism art history political philosophy and the social sciences with a fresh perspective from which to revisit dead end theoretical debates over concepts such as agency essentialism and realism and at the same time to offer a new take on anarchism itself challenging conventional readings of the tradition The anarchism that emerges from this reinterpretation is neither a musty rationalism nor a millenarian irrationalism but a living body of thought that points beyond the sterile antinomies of post modern and Marxist theory BOOK JACKET Report Calcutta University Commission,1919 Report India. Calcutta University Commission,1920 Report Calcutta (India) University commission. 1917-1919,1920 New Books on Women and Feminism ,2004 Research Handbook on Climate Governance Karin Bäckstrand,Eva Lövbrand,2015-11-27 The 2009 United Nations climate conference in Copenhagen is often represented as a watershed in global climate politics when the diplomatic efforts to negotiate a successor agreement to the Kyoto Protocol failed and was replaced by a fragmented and decentralized climate governance order In the post Copenhagen landscape the top down universal approach to climate governance has gradually given way to a more complex hybrid and dispersed political landscape involving multiple actors arenas and sites The Handbook contains contributions from more than 50 internationally leading scholars and explores the latest trends and theoretical developments of the climate governance scholarship Historical Information Science Lawrence J. McCrank,2001 Here is an extensive review and bibliographic essay backed by 5 000 citations about developments in information technology since the advent of personal computing and the convergence of the disciplines Its focus is on the access preservation and analysis of historical information primarily in electronic form and the relationships between new methodology and instructional media technique and research trends in library special collections digital libraries electronic and data archives and museums

J.G. Ballard's Politics Florian Cord,2017-01-23 This book is the first sustained investigation of the political dimension in the work of J G Ballard A product of and reaction to the cultural socio economic moment commonly designated as the postmodern condition Ballard s oeuvre is read as a continuous and developing meditation on the postmodern examining it specifically as an expression of late capitalism The book shows that at the heart of this meditation lies the question of resistance Drawing on a wide range of concepts and ideas taken from the field of critical theory it argues that in the face of a world marked by an unprecedented expansion of capital in which modernity s grand narratives have been invalidated and in which received forms of political struggle have lost their effectiveness Ballard s fiction commits itself to a deliberately irrational and extreme pataphysical thought in order to develop a new discourse of resistance Against past readings that have construed Ballard s writing as non political decadent or quietist the study thus reveals Ballard as a thoroughly political author committed to a subversive politics In this way the book also constitutes a timely intervention in the ongoing discussion concerning the nature and state of the political

Miniature and the English Imagination Melinda Alliker Rabb,2019-02-14 Focusing on the phenomenon of miniaturization in material culture literature and theories of cognition this study examines the appeal and function of the small scale during the period from 1650 to 1765 Drawing on three interconnected areas of scholarship Melinda Alliker Rabb analyzes the human capacity to supplement direct experience of the world through representation in order to gain knowledge of that world and to attempt control over it Assessing two kinds of miniature the real and the imagined allows rethinking of works by Swift Pope Gay Johnson Sterne and others and shows how the fictional miniature can correspond meaningfully to the world of things The phenomenon of scaling down objects as various as teapots bureaus globes buckets spoons battlefields and diving bells has a relationship to large scale events as various as financial revolution globalization scientific discovery war and other events that challenge old modes of representation and demand new ones

English as an International Language Farzad Sharifian,2009 Collectively the chapters in this volume make a significant contribution to the emerging paradigm of English as an International Language EIL by exploring various aspects of the English language and its pedagogy in the context of the globalization of this language The volume shows great deal of promise in terms of expanding the paradigm and also establishing new grounds for thinking research and practice
