Federico Bergenti, Marie-Pierre Gleizes, Franco Zambonelli, 2006-04-28 As information technologies become increasingly distributed and accessible to larger number of people and as commercial and government organizations are challenged to scale their applications and services to larger market shares while reducing costs there is demand for software methodologies and applications to provide the following features Richer application end to end functionality Reduction of human involvement in the design and deployment of the software Flexibility of software behaviour and Reuse and composition of existing software applications and systems in novel or adaptive ways When designing new distributed software systems the above broad requirements and their translation into implementations are typically addressed by partial complementarities and overlapping technologies and this situation gives rise to significant software engineering challenges Some of the challenges that may arise are determining the components that the distributed applications should contain organizing the application components and determining the assumptions that one needs to make in order to implement distributed scalable and flexible applications etc Encyclopedia of Information Science and Technology Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, Mehdi Khosrowpour, 2009 This set of books represents a detailed compendium of authoritative research based entries that define the contemporary state of knowledge on technology Provided by publisher Multi-Agent-Based Simulation VIII Luis Antunes, Mario Paolucci, Emma Norling, 2008-07-26 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed post proceedings of the 8th International Workshop on Multi Agent Based Simulation MABS 2007 held in Honolulu HI USA in May 2007 as an associated event of AAMAS 2007 the main international conference on autonomous agents and multi agent systems The 10 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 20 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on architectures teams learning education economy trust and reputation Trust in Agent Societies Rino Falcone, K.
