Research In Higher Education:

Engaged Research and Practice Betty Overton, Penny A. Pasque, John C. Burkhardt, 2023-07-03 What practices can researchers use to gain a more nuanced understanding of educational issues in the community and be part of the solution to those issues Engaged Research and Practice is about two prevailing and complementary ideas that have surfaced in the higher education arena engaged research and higher education for the public good Engaged research is scholarship that not only attempts to open up new knowledge but it does so with a sense that the new knowledge insight and directions have a direct relationship to needs and problems within our communities institutions and policy arenas Engaged actionable or participatory research and scholarship attempts to tackle the identified issues of our communities and society This handbook offers important insights and tangible examples of how higher education leaders may work directly with communities and in policy settings to understand the deeper meanings often lost in conversations about educational opportunity Each chapter addresses the ways in which faculty community and administrative leaders may connect research and practice through unique research projects The authors offer clear explanations of how their engaged research was conducted to illustrate explicit pathways for practitioners This book also includes short narratives where authors involved with this research reflect on their experiences and the lessons they have learned while immersed in community and policy related work

Community-Based Research and Higher Education Kerry J. Strand, Nicholas Cutforth, Randy Stoecker, Sam Marullo, Patrick Donohue, 2003-06-03 Community Based Research and Higher Education is the long awaited guide to how to incorporate a powerful and promising new form of scholarship into academic settings The book presents a model of community based research CBR that engages community members with students and faculty in the course of their academic work Unlike traditional academic research CBR is collaborative and change oriented and finds its research questions in the needs of communities This dynamic research model combines classroom learning with social action in ways that can ultimately empower community groups to address their own agendas and shape their own futures At the same time it emphasizes the development of knowledge and skills that truly prepare students for active civic engagement

Development of Higher Education Research in Europe Barbara M. Kehm, Christine Musselin, 2013-10-30 Though the book is a contribution to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Consortium of Higher Education Researchers CHER it is not just about the history of the organisation as such The contributions provide an account of the emergence of higher education as a field of study and research in Europe its institutionalisation and its relationships to higher education policy and practice Furthermore higher education research in Europe is contrasted to and contextualised by the example of higher education research and scholarship in Australia The book is useful as an account about the emergence and development of higher education research as a field of study and research in Europe It will be an interesting and insightful read for all scholars and young researchers wanting to know about higher education research but also for scholars in fields like history of science disciplinary differentiation institutionalisation of fields of knowledge and research Teaching, Learning and Research in Higher Education Mark Tennant, Cathi McMullen, Dan Kaczynski, 2009-09-10 Teaching Learning and Research in Higher Education offers a combination of critical perspectives and practical advice that is ideally suited for individuals interested in enhancing their practice through analysis and critique The aim is to promote a critical understanding of one s own practices to foster personal and professional formation through a reflexive engagement with one s environment and circumstances At a practical level this means to continuously think about how to adjust practice rather than following a formulaic approach derived from any particular educational theory Teaching Learning and Research in Higher Education argues that academics can find space for their own agency in the midst of institutional policies and practices that serve to frame as well as delimit and constrain what counts as good academic work in teaching and research This text bridges a gap between those books that provide a high level analysis of contemporary higher education the more practical texts on how to be a good teacher in higher education and those texts which aim to improve teaching through better understanding of the learning process Topical chapters include Teacher learner relationship Learning groups Practice oriented learning Teaching for diversity e learning Assessment Approaches to Staff Development Quality assurance Supervision and Research education Doing research and Teaching Research A must have resource for higher education professions academic developers professionals and anyone looking to improve their teaching and learning practices Teaching Learning and Research in Higher Education is also appropriate for continuing and professional development courses in the UK and teaching and learning courses in the US Mark Tennant is Dean of the University Graduate School University of Technology Sydney Cathi McMullen is Lecturer in the School of Marketing and Management at Charles Sturt University Dan Kaczynski is Professor in the Educational Leadership department at Central Michigan University
