Sea Power And Influence Old Issues And New Challenges:

Military Power, Conflict and Trade Michael P. Gerace, 2004-06-01 Wherever international commerce flows in world politics military power often flows with it sometimes as a protector of commerce sometimes as its promoters and sometimes as a tool of aggression against it How are military power and international trade related Do military power and commerce expand together or does military power decline as commerce and perhaps interdependence increases Does this relationship vary across countries and if so how Power Conflict and Trade is a study of the relationship between military power and international commerce among the Great Powers prior to World War I After building an argument for a direct relationship between military power and commerce one grounded in a mercantilist view of state power and exploring their numerous connections the book estimates models of the relationship among the Great Powers and explores a great deal of their commercial and military data all of which is situated in the context of their mutual rivalries Another question investigated is whether the peacetime conflicts and rivalries of the Great Powers affected their trade relations adversely There is strong support for the argument that military power and commerce move together in world politics though there is evidence for an inverse relationship as well

The Evolution of Strategy Beatrice Heuser, 2010-10-14 Is there a Western way of war which pursues battles of annihilation and single minded military victory Is warfare on a path to ever greater destructive force This magisterial account answers these questions by tracing the history of Western thinking about strategy the employment of military force as a political instrument from antiquity to the present day Assessing sources from Vegetius to contemporary America and with a particular focus on strategy since the Napoleonic Wars Beatrice Heuser explores the evolution of strategic thought the social institutions norms and patterns of behaviour within which it operates the policies that guide it and the cultures that influence it Ranging across technology and warfare total warfare and small wars as well as land sea air and nuclear warfare she demonstrates that warfare and strategic thinking have fluctuated wildly in their aims intensity limitations and excesses over the past two millennia

Grant,Alessio Patalano,James A. Russell,2023-07-05 A new framework contextualizes crucial international security issues at sea in the Indo Pacific Competition at sea is once again a central issue of international security Nowhere is the urgency to address state on state competition at sea more strongly felt than in the Indo Pacific region where freedom of navigation is challenged by regional states continuous investments in naval power and the renewed political will to use it to undermine its principles The New Age of Naval Power in the Indo Pacific provides an original framework in which five factors of influence explain how and why naval power matters in this pivotal part of the world An international group of contributors make the case that these five factors draw upon a longstanding influence of naval power on regional dynamics and impact the extent to which different states in the region use naval power the capacity to exert control over sea lanes the capacity to deploy a nuclear deterrent at sea the capacity to implement the law of the sea in an advantageous way the ability to control marine resources and the capacity for technological innovation The New Age of Naval Power in the Indo Pacific offers a fresh approach for academics and policy makers seeking to navigate the complexity of maritime security and regional affairs
