Hardingham This issue of AD celebrates the extraordinary life and work of British architect Will Alsop 1947 2018 a career and portfolio that is both literally and metaphorically steeped in colour Characterised as a maverick architect Alsop was in truth an individualist who was all for the collective and a non conformist His design aim was to replace a little misery in the world with a little joy and delight Far from diminutive in ambition many of his built projects caused big shifts in thinking about ways for citizens to perceive occupy and enjoy their cities He believed deeply in the active participation of clients to explore their architectural ideas involving them in workshops and the making of films to help them to see and better understand what design could positively do for them His buildings and artworks are as contentious as they have been highly acclaimed but never fail to amaze and inspire His continuous engagement in teaching lecturing and exhibiting throughout his career with academic posts held in the UK Germany Austria Australia and the US meant he always remained in touch and was a consistent source of encouragement to new generations of architects entering the profession This AD aims to harness that creative energy commitment and camaraderie Contributors Ollie Alsop Thomas Aquilina Nigel Coates Peter Cook Paul Finch Mark Garcia Clare Hamman John Lyall Bruce McLean Will McLean Kester Rattenbury Marcos Rosello and Neil Thomas in humans natural superiority over animals and the right to categorize animals in accordance with a scale of worthiness that parallels the subjugation of racialized persons The chapters examine a variety of canonical figures like the dissolute wolf of Red Riding Hood stories and the disfigured titular character of the Wonky Donkey picture book alongside non canonical animals including reprobate pigs degenerate sharks self centered flamingos and wicked piranhas To counter this animal debasement Varga juxtaposes these readings with an examination of materials that articulate harmonious animal human interrelationships without dependence on styles of anthropomorphism that diminish animality
