Making Mindanao Cotabato And Davao In The Formation Of The Philippine Nationstate:

Making Mindanao P. N. Abinales, 2020 Making Mindanao P. N. Abinales, 2000 Southern Mindanao became the battleground of two major rebellions in the 1970s one sought to create a separate Muslim state and the other a communist insurgency aspired to overthrow the Philippine state Standard explanations of these rebellions point to the explosive combination of historic ethnic disputes massive demographic changes accompanying the closure of the frontier rising class inequalities the entry of transnational capital and the militarization of southern Mindanao While not denying explanatory value to these arguments this book rejects ethnicity and political economy as the dominant causes Making Mindanao argues that colonial construction of the state and its subsequent transformation from the colonial to the post colonial period largely shaped Mindanao's political landscape The book thus focuses on how local power was determined by state formation and how the state's ability to establish its authority was mediated by mutual accommodation between strong men who controlled this frontier zone It compares Cotabato and Davao to show the process of state formation and the shaping of local power from the American period 1900 1941 to the end of the declaration of martial law by Ferdinand Marcos 1946 1972 The Profligate Colonial Lisandro E. Claudio, 2025-11-15 In The Profligate Colonial Lisandro E Claudio reveals how austerity long before it became a buzzword of modern technocracy was a tool of US empire Austerity is often praised as prudence in hard times a responsible response to crisis In the Philippines today it is treated as common sense an unquestioned commitment to a strong currency low inflation and fiscal restraint Claudio argues that this orthodoxy is in fact a colonial inheritance a legacy of American rule that cast Filipinos as reckless spenders and imposed monetary discipline as a civilizing force At the center of this logic is the profligate colonial a feminized racialized figure who wastes public funds and so requires the steady hand of imperial governance Focusing on key moments in Philippine economic history across the twentieth century Claudio charts how austerity was first exported through empire then domesticated in line with nationalist ambitions He shows that generations of Filipino policymakers central bankers and intellectuals absorbed the lessons of American money doctors transforming what was a means to build a colonial state on the cheap into a postcolonial moral imperative Austerity became not just policy but an ideology that transcended political divides and reshaped the boundaries of the Philippine economic imagination As austerity politics rise once more in response to global inflation The Profligate Colonial is a vital incisive reminder of how austerity's appeal is less about economics than about a deep rooted politics of control one born in empire and still alive in policy today State and Society in the Philippines Patricio N. Abinales, Donna J. Amoroso, 2017-07-06 This clear and nuanced introduction explores the Philippines ongoing and deeply charged dilemma of state society relations through a historical treatment of state formation and the corresponding conflicts and collaboration between government leaders and social forces Patricio N Abinales and Donna J Amoroso examine the long history of institutional weakness in the Philippines and the varied strategies the state has employed to overcome its structural fragility and strengthen its bond with society The authors argue that this process reflects the country's recurring dilemma on the one hand is the state's persistent inability to provide essential services guarantee peace and order and foster economic development on the other is the Filipinos equally enduring suspicions of a strong state To many citizens this powerfully evokes the repression of the 1970s and the 1980s that polarized society and cost thousands of lives in repression and resistance and billions of dollars in corruption setting the nation back years in economic development and profoundly undermining trust in government The book's historical sweep starts with the politics of the pre colonial era and continues through the first year of Rodrigo Duterte's controversial presidency

Cosmopolitanism and Tourism Robert Shepherd,2017-12-12 Within tourism studies the cosmopolitan potentials of tourism have often been situated within a broader conversation about globalization an approach that implies that cosmopolitanism is a predictable by product of globalization and becoming more cosmopolitan should be the goal of travel And yet a fundamental value of a cosmopolitan outlook namely to not only to be at home in the world but also to experience the world in an authentic sense depends on the culturally embedded parochial and particular world views which it rejects In Cosmopolitanism and Tourism Rethinking Theory and Practice contributors take this as a starting point What does a worldly consciousness mean to people situated in different cultural landscapes and to what extent might these intersect with cosmopolitan values How is cosmopolitanism marketed in tourism and tourist related industries such as service learning and study abroad And finally what roles do social and economic class educational background gender and other factors have in cosmopolitan claims The contributors to this edited collection address these questions in a series of case studies that range from Guatemala Bolivia and Ireland to China India and Dubai For more information check out A Conversation with Robert Shepherd author of Cosmopolitanism and Tourism Rethinking Theory and Practice

Pro-poor Land Reform

Saturnino M. Borrás,2007-09-06 Using empirical case materials from the Philippines and referring to rich experiences from different countries historically this book offers conceptual and practical conclusions that have far reaching implications for land reform throughout the world Examining land reform theory and practice this book argues that conventional practices have excluded a significant portion of land based production and distribution relationships while they have inadvertently included land transfers that do not constitute real redistributive reform By direct implication this book is a critique of both mainstream market led agrarian reform and conventional state led land reform It offers an alternative perspective on how to move forward in theory and practice and opens new paths in land policy research The Foundations of the Modern Philippine State Leia Castañeda Anastacio,2016-08-22 The US occupation of the Philippine Islands in 1898 began a foundational period of the modern Philippine state With the adoption of the 1935 Philippine Constitution the legal conventions for ultimate independence were in place In this time American officials and their Filipino elite collaborators established a representative progressive yet limited colonial government that would modernize the Philippine Islands through colonial democracy and developmental capitalism Examining constitutional discourse in American and Philippine government records academic literature newspaper and personal accounts The Foundations of the Modern Philippine State concludes that the promise of America's liberal empire was negated by the imperative of insulating American authority from Filipino political demands Premised on Filipino incapacity the colonial constitution weakened the safeguards that shielded liberty from power and unleashed liberalism's latent tyrannical potential in the name of civilization This forged a constitutional despotism that haunts the Islands to this day Sacred Interests Karine V. Walther,2015-09-21 Throughout the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries as Americans increasingly came into contact with the Islamic world U S diplomatic cultural political and religious beliefs about Islam began to shape their responses to world events In Sacred Interests Karine V Walther excavates the deep history of American Islamophobia showing how negative perceptions of Islam and Muslims shaped U S foreign relations from the Early Republic to the end of World War I Beginning with the Greek War of Independence in 1821 Walther illuminates reactions to and involvement in the breakup of the Ottoman Empire the efforts to protect Jews from Muslim authorities in Morocco American colonial policies in the Philippines and American attempts to aid Christians during the Armenian Genocide Walther examines the American role in the peace negotiations after World War I support for the Balfour Declaration and the establishment of the mandate system in the Middle East The result is a vital exploration of the crucial role the United States played in the Islamic world during the long nineteenth century an interaction that shaped a historical legacy that remains with us today Philippine Studies Priscelina Patajo-Legasto,2008 These essays by Philippine and U S based scholars illustrate the dynamism and complexities of the discursive field of Philippine studies as a critique of vestiges of universalist Western hegemonic paradigms as an affirmation of traditional and emergent cultural practices as a site for new readings of old texts and new popular forms brought into the ambit of serious scholarship and as a liberative space for new art and literary genres President Rodrigo Duterte and the War on Drugs William N. Holden,2021-10-01 Since his election in 2016 Philippine president Rodrigo Duterte has directed a brutal anti drug campaign rife with extrajudicial killings Interpreting the war on drugs through the conceptual frameworks of penal populism noble cause corruption revanchism and state terrorism William N Holden argues the war on drugs has failed to achieve its purpose follows trends of authoritarian populism and overlooks a more pressing social issue the vulnerability of the Philippines to climate change Conflict Resolution and Peace Education C. Carter,2010-06-21 While featuring field based examples in multiple disciplines including political science anthropology communication psychology sociology law and teacher training this book presents real cases of conflict work Explained are concepts underlying conflict transformation and strategies that have been adapted for use in professional practice Crossing Empires Kristin L. Hoganson, Jay Sexton, 2020-01-03

Weaving U S history into the larger fabric of world history the contributors to Crossing Empires de exceptionalize the American empire placing it in a global transimperial context They draw attention to the breadth of U S entanglements with other empires to illuminate the scope and nature of American global power as it reached from the Bering Sea to Australia and East Africa to the Caribbean With case studies ranging from the 1830s to the late twentieth century the contributors address topics including diplomacy governance anticolonialism labor immigration medicine religion and race Their transimperial approach whether exemplified in examinations of U S steel corporations partnering with British imperialists to build the Ugandan railway or the U S reliance on other empires in its governance of the Philippines transcends histories of interimperial rivalries and conflicts In so doing the contributors illuminate the power dynamics of seemingly transnational histories and the imperial origins of contemporary globality Contributors Ikuko Asaka Oliver Charbonneau Genevieve Clutario Anne L Foster Julian Go Michel Gobat Julie Greene Kristin L Hoganson Margaret D Jacobs Moon Ho Jung Marc William Palen Nicole M Phelps Jay Sexton John Soluri Stephen Tuffnell Contested Extractivism, Society and the State Bettina Engels, Kristina Dietz, 2017-02-21 This book empirically discusses recent struggles over land and mining exploring state society relations conflicts on various scales In contrast with the existing literature analyses in this volume deliberately focus on large scale land use changes both in relation to the expansion of industrial mining and to agro industry The authors contend that there are significant parallels between contestations over different variants of resource extractivism as they reflect the same global trends and processes Chapters draw on critical theoretical approaches from political ecology political economy spatial theory contentious politics and the study of democracy The authors not only provide empirical insights on actual resource struggles from different world regions based on in depth field research but also contribute to theory building by linking concepts from various critical approaches to one another developing a perspective for analysing struggles over resources related to current global crisis phenomena Nation Building Wang Gungwu, 2005 The book addresses questions such as how should historians treat the earlier pasts of each country and the nationalism that guided the nation building tasks Where did political culture come in especially when dealing with modern challenges of class secularism and ethnicity What part do external or regional pressures play when the nations are still being built The authors have thought deeply about the issues of writing nation building histories and have tried to put them not only in the perspective of Southeast Asian developments of the past five decades but also the larger areas of historiography today The American Colonial State in the Philippines Julian Go, Anne L. Foster, 2003-07-08 Interdisciplinary collection placing the U S imperial project in the Philippines within a global comparative framework Bangsa and Umma Hiroyuki Yamamoto, 2011 Having experienced a large scale reorganization of social order over the past decade people of the Malay world have struggled to position themselves They have been classified and have classified themselves with categories as bangsa nation ethnic group and umma Islamic network In connection with these key concepts this study explores a variety of dimensions of these and other people grouping classifications which also include Malayu Jawi and Paranakan The book examines how these categories played a significant part in the colonial and post colonial periods in areas ranging from Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines It demonstrates the extent to which shifting social conditions interact with the contours of group identity This is a collaborative work by scholars based in the US Japan Malaysia and Australia Understanding the genealogy of people grouping concepts provides valuable insight into the mechanics of power relations and how the agency of cultural identification constructs the continuity and the contentious in the political world Pacific Affairs Vol 85 No 4 December 2012
