Making of a Man in America Earl Groomer, 2003-08-01 Critical Race Theory and the American Justice System Paul Zwier, 2023-02-27 When a trial lawyer stands before a jury to argue a case about a Black victim killed by a white person how should the lawyer best argue the case Critical race theorists CRTs are pessimistic that a white jury can set aside its own racism in judging the Black victims actions and are skeptical of a jury's ability to fairly judge a white actor's motives Before the George Floyd and Ahmaud Arbery killings there was strong evidence The Innocence Project that the CRTs were right After all the prosecutors in the Ahmaud Arbery case were so convinced that a white jury in a Georgia county would not convict white vigilantes that they initially didn't even charge the killers with a crime However then back to back in both cases prosecutors prosecuted and the jury returned guilty verdicts They convicted Derrick Chauvin of murder They convicted Travis and Gregory McMichael and Roddie William Bryant of murder This book examines the how and why of these verdicts and asks whether they hold lessons vital to withstanding CRT challenges to the American justice system

Making of a Man in America Earl Groomer, Jr., 2001-02 Sent to England on a secret mission for the brotherhood of Ireland Shelly a strong and fierce woman is accused of being a witch Three men are sent to track her down Derrick is the leader in the chase and the three discover there is more to the witch hunt than they suppose An adventure lies in Ireland for Derrick as he leaves his friends and family behind and sets out to follow Shelly as she fights for the freedom of Ireland

The Rule of Recognition and the U.S. Constitution Matthew Adler, Kenneth Einar Himma, 2009-07-20 The Rule of Recognition and the U S Constitution is a volume of original essays that discuss the applicability of Hart's rule of recognition model of a legal system to U S constitutional law The contributors are leading scholars in analytical jurisprudence and constitutional theory including Matthew Adler Larry Alexander Mitchell Berman Michael Dorf Kent Greenawalt Richard Fallon Michael Green Kenneth Einar Himma Stephen Perry Frederick Schauer Scott Shapiro Jeremy Waldron and Wil Waluchow The volume makes a contribution both in jurisprudence using the U S as a test case that highlights the strengths and limitations of the rule of recognition model and in constitutional theory by showing how the model can illuminate topics such as the role of the Supreme Court the constitutional status of precedent the legitimacy of unwritten sources of constitutional law the choice of methods for interpreting the text of the Constitution and popular constitutionalism

VAMPIRE HUSBAND and THE AMERICAN JUSTICE Paru Shiva, 2014-05 This book is about a woman who had come to America from Kashmir India She had no knowledge about American culture or American Justice System She was married in India and her husband brought her to America In America her husband started abusing her Being culturally abundant she kept taking abuse on a daily basis and kept lying about her bruises and cuts to those who were asking her questions about her injuries Abuse got worst to the extent that one day her husband tried to kill her She gained her consciousness after a couple of hours when her husband decided to dump her body in the park Somehow in the morning she managed to escape with her two children She went to a woman's shelter where she lived for six months In the shelter they insisted that she had to go to the court to get restraining order for her safety In that process her children were taken by the court and were given to that abusive man from whom they had a narrow escape She was forced to pay child support when she had not taken even a one cent from her home or from her husband after she left Her two children were given to their father because she was going to school Judge punished her and her two children for trying to establish their life Her Children suffered the most because of the Justice System I wrote this book for two reasons One reason is to tell my children especially my son that I am very sorry for taking my case to American Justice System because his father has kept him in fear Even my son is adult now but his father is still treating my son like he was treating me and my son is kept in a lot of fear stress and extreme tension His father didn t let him complete his education If he had encouraged my son to complete his education then he wouldn t be able to control my son s life That is tearing my heart every day And second reason is that I want to help a Battered Woman and their children by telling them my story I was a very private person but that didn t help me Every battered woman of this country should know that when a man hit his wife is not love It is a danger sign figure out on time about safety zones for self and for children My story will guide them to be strong enough to help their children

African-American Males and the U.S. Justice System of Marginalization: A National Tragedy Floyd Weatherspoon,2014-08-06 African American Males and the US Justice System of Marginalization provides an overview of the economic and social status of African American males in America which continues to deteriorate at an alarming rate Weatherspoon posits that in every American institutional system from birth to death the journey of African American males to achieve racial justice and equity in this country is ignored marginalized and exploited The American justice system in particular has permitted and in some cases sanctioned the marginalization of African American males as full citizens Weatherspoon examines the idea that African American males are disproportionately represented in every aspect of the criminal justice system and that the marginalization of African American males in America has a long and treacherous history that continues to negatively impact their economic political and social status

The Wisdom of Our Ancestors Graham James McAleer,Alexander S. Rosenthal-Pubul,2023-12-01 In The Wisdom of Our Ancestors the authors mount a powerful defense of Western civilization sketching a fresh vision of conservatism in the present age In this book Graham McAleer and Alexander Rosenthal Pubul offer a renewed vision of conservatism for the twenty first century Taking their inspiration from the late Roger Scruton the authors begin with a simple question What after all is the meaning of conservatism In reply they make a case for a political orientation that they call conservative humanism which threads a middle way between liberal universalism and its ideological alternatives This vision of conservatism is rooted in the humanist tradition that is classical humanism Christian humanism and secular humanism which the authors take to be the hallmark of Western civilizational identity At its core conservative humanism attempts to reconcile universal moral values rooted in natural law with local particularist loyalties In articulating this position the authors show that the West contra various contemporary critics does in fact have a great deal of wisdom to offer The authors begin with an overview of the conservative thought world situating their proposal relative to two major poles liberalism and nationalism They move on to show that conservatism must fundamentally take the form of a defense of humanism the master idea of our civilization The ensuing chapters articulate various aspects of conservative humanism including its metaphysical institutional legal philosophical and economic dimensions Largely rooted in the Anglo Continental conservative tradition the work offers fresh perspectives for North American conservatism
