Making A Difference Teachers Sense Of Efficacy And Student Achievement:

Making a Difference Patricia T. Ashton, Rodman B. Webb, 1986 Self-Efficacy in Changing Societies Albert Bandura, 1997-05-13 The volume addresses important issues of human adaptation and change Teacher Beliefs and Classroom Performance James Rath, Amy C. McAninch, 2003-12-01 This volume of Advances in Teacher Education is about beliefs held by teachers and addresses the important topic of teacher beliefs from a variety of disciplinary perspectives Most of the authors who have contributed to this collection of essays assume that beliefs are propositions that are felt to be true by the person embracing them but that do not necessarily rest on the kind of evidence that justifies the use of the term knowledge Teacher beliefs are an important topic because it is hypothesized that teachers and teacher candidates use them to shape the information they receive from formal teacher preparation and to direct subsequent decision making in the classroom Identifying and Recruiting Language Teachers Peter B. Swanson, 2013-04-01 This volume begins by locating critical inquiry within the epistemological and methodological history of second language study Subsequent chapters portray researcher participant exploration of identity and agency while challenging inequitable policies and practices Research on internationalization Englishization and or transborder migration address language policies and knowledge production at universities in Hong Kong Standard English and Singlish controversies in Singapore media portrayals of the English as an Official Language movement in South Korea transnational advocacy in Japan and Nicaraguan Costa Rican South to South migration Transnational locations of identity and agency are fore fronted in narrative descriptions of Korean heritage language learners a discursive journey from East Timor to Hawaii and a reclaimed life history by a Chinese peasant woman Labor union and GLBT legal work illustrate discourses that can hinder or facilitate agency and change Hawaiian educators advocate for indigenous self determination through revealing the political and social meanings of research California educators describe struggles at the front lines of resistance to policies and practices harmful to marginalized children A Participatory Action Research PAR project portrays how Latina youth in the U S resist wounding inscriptions of the intersecting emotional and physical violence of homes communities and antiimmigrant policies and attitudes Promoting agency through drawing on diversity resources is modeled in a bilingual undergraduate PAR project The volume as a whole provides a model for critical research that explores the multifaceted and evolving nature of language identities while placing those traditionally known as participants at the center of agency and advocacy Real-World Readings in Art Education Dennis E. Fehr, 2013-01-11 This collection of essays focuses on such topics as the daily experience of teaching art in today s public schools the tradition of honoring only the European patriarchal canon structural change in school policy and curriculum and teaching Putting Writing Research into Practice Gary A.
