Cohen, 2022-03-10 Demonstrating the crucial role that private international law and legality has played and continues to play in shaping globalization this book argues that the rules institutions and actors that make up the practice of private international law have been critical in translating political and economic power into legal regimes that have facilitated the processes of globalization These processes depend on two fundamental types of socio political action the legal structuring of emerging transnational spaces and flows of goods capital and finance and the legal political reconfiguration of state power and priorities to facilitate the growth of these spaces and their penetration into national political economic and social spaces While a variety of processes were involved in these forms of action the material practices of private international law played a central role in this project of political economic reconstruction Offering a theory of private international legality as a practice that intersects with and provides a vehicle for the mobilization of political and economic power this book examines the construction and enrolment of private law expertise and the structural condition of pluralism in the global political economy to argue that private international law has helped construct a global political economy responsive to the priorities of powerful actors and resistant

Arbitration and Human Rights Toms Krūmiņš, 2020-08-12. This book presents a creative synthesis of two ostensibly disparate fields of law: arbitration and human rights. More specifically, it focuses on various legislative approaches to excluding the annulment of arbitral awards, setting aside proceedings at the seat of arbitration and evaluates the compatibility of such approaches with the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), in particular the right to a fair trial under Article 6.1. The book first assesses the applicability and impact of the ECHR in particular Article 6.1 on international commercial arbitration. It then analyses a number of legislative approaches to excluding setting aside proceedings focusing on two synergetic phenomena exclusion agreements and the total lack of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law Lastly the book investigates to what extent the lack of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law may lead to a violation of arbitrating parties right to a fair trial under Article 6 1 and puts forward certain de lege ferenda recommendations on how to best approach the regulation of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law from the standpoint of compliance with the ECHR

The Emergence of EU Contract Law Lucinda Miller, 2011-09-22 The emergence of a pan European contract law is one of the most significant legal developments in Europe today The Emergence of EU Contract Law Exploring Europeanization examines the origins of the discipline and its subsequent evolution It brings the discussion up to date with full analysis of the debate on the Common Frame of Reference and the future that this ambiguous instrument may have in the contemporary European legal framework One of the central themes of the book is exploration of the multi level open architecture of the EU legal order and the implications of that architecture for the EU s private law programme The analysis demonstrates that the key to understanding European contract law in the 21st century lies in adopting a perspective and mechanisms suitable for a legal order populated by multiple sources of private law Legal pluralism is offered as a theoretical construct with the capacity to shape the future of European private law shifting the analytical spotlight beyond the traditional centralized legislative means of regulation In so doing softer mechanisms are introduced for the governance of contract law mechanisms that enable coordination between the different sites at which contract law operates This reorientation in thinking about European contract law indeed about Europeanization itself enables the inevitable diversity and pluralism that is a feature of multi level Europe to be captured within a framework that maximizes the opportunities for mutual learning and exchange across private law sites
