

FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE

Simile

A simile is a type of figurative language which is used to compare one thing against another. Similes compare the likeness of two things and often feature the words 'like' or 'as': "As strong as an ox/ As brave as a lion."

Metaphor

A metaphor is a phrase describing something as something it is not in reality. It is used to compare two things symbolically. A metaphor literally describes something as something it is not. "Love is a battlefield"

Oxymoron

An oxymoron is a term which features two words which appear to contradict each other but make sense of the situation overall.

- For example: That woman is pretty ugly.

Hyperbole

A hyperbole is a figure of speech which exaggerates the meaning of a sentence.

- For example: My granddad is as old as time.

Metaphor in Psychotherapy Dennis Tay, 2013-07-25 This book represents a bold attempt to address contemporary issues in both metaphor and psychotherapy research On one hand metaphor research is increasingly concerned not just with describing metaphors in discourse but how they could be used more adroitly in purposive real world contexts such as psychotherapy On the other hand while a growing number of mental health professionals believe that metaphors contribute in some way to the psychotherapy process their ability and willingness to use metaphors might be compromised by a relative unfamiliarity with the various nuanced aspects of metaphor theory The present analysis of metaphors in authentic psychotherapeutic talk brings these theoretical aspects to the forefront and suggests how they can be applied to enhance the use of communication of metaphors in psychotherapy It should be of interest to metaphor researchers mental health professionals and discourse analysts in general

Context and Connection in Metaphor L. David Ritchie, 2006-10-30 How do people understand metaphorical language Can a commonplace metaphor affect the way people think even if they don't interpret it Why does it matter how people interpret metaphors The author proposes an original communication based theory of metaphor that answers these and other questions about metaphors and metaphorical language

can Cognitive Linguistics benefit from the systematic study of a creative phenomenon like humor Although the authors in this volume approach this question from different perspectives they share the profound belief that humorous data may provide a unique insight into the complex interplay of quantitative and qualitative aspects of meaning construction

Finding Metaphor in Grammar and Usage Gerard Steen, 2007 Cognitive linguists have proposed that metaphor is not just a matter of language but of thought and that metaphorical thought displays a high degree of conventionalization In order to produce converging evidence for this theory of metaphor a wide range of data is currently being studied with a large array of methods and techniques Finding Metaphor in Grammar and Usage aims to map the field of this development in theory and research from a methodological perspective It raises the question when exactly evidence for metaphor in language and thought can be said to count as converging It also goes into the various stages of producing such evidence conceptualization operationalization data collection and analysis and interpretation The book offers systematic discussion of eight distinct areas of metaphor research that emerge as a result of approaching metaphor as part of grammar or usage language or thought and symbolic structure or cognitive process Pictorial Framing in Moral Politics Ahmed Abdel-Raheem, 2018-10-26

This book seeks to extend research on framing beyond linguistic and cognitive perspectives by examining framing in visual and multimodal texts and their impact on moral cognition and attitudes Drawing on perspectives from frame semantics blending theory relevance theory and pragmatics the volume establishes a model of pictorial framing arguing that subtle alterations in the visual presentation of issues around judgment and choice in such texts impact perception and applies this framework to a range of case studies from Egyptian British and American cartoons and illustrations The book demonstrates the affordances of applying this framework in enhancing our understanding of both the nature of word image relations and issues of representation in the op ed genre but also in other forms of media more generally The volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in multimodality critical discourse analysis cognitive linguistics social psychology and communication studies Metaphorical Stories in Discourse L. David Ritchie, 2017-09-14

When Hillary Clinton conceded in 2008 that she didn't quite shatter the glass ceiling and when Rick Perry in 2012 called Mitt Romney a vulture capitalist they used abbreviated metaphorical stories in which stories about one topic are presented as stories about something entirely different This book examines a wide range of metaphorical stories beginning with literary genres such as allegories and fables then focusing on metaphorical stories in ordinary conversations political speeches editorial cartoons and other communication Sometimes metaphorical stories are developed in rich detail in other examples like vulture capitalist they may merely be referenced or implied This book argues that close attention to metaphorical stories and story metaphors enriches our understanding and is essential to any theory of communication The book introduces a theoretical structure which is developed into a theory of metaphorical stories and then illustrates the theory by applying it to actual discourse

The Construction of Metaphoric Text and Talk Meizhen Liao, 2024-08-09 The Construction of Metaphoric Text and Talk A Discourse Analytic Approach argues that in view of their omnipresence in human thinking and action metaphors play a very important role in discourse construction and organization and this role can be textural and textual In order to explore the textual role of metaphors Meizhen Liao proposes that metaphors in discourse be treated as a complex adaptive system CAS which is further composed of two sub systems a micro one consisted of the tenor and the vehicle and a macro one made up of different metaphors The dynamic interaction within the micro system between the tenor and the vehicle in terms of mapping as well as among the macro system of all the metaphors in the text or talk via competition cooperation or complementation contributes to the construction and organization of discourse as an adaptive process in pursuit for the goal or goals of the discourse In the process of the interaction emergent textual patterns develop and an adequate analysis of the patterns at both micro and macro as well as deep and surface levels of discourse will shed light on the true nature and pattern of human thinking and action The author concludes that as metaphor has become entrenched in our conceptual system the study of metaphor as a complex adaptive system in discourse be conducted in its own right      Metaphor L. David Ritchie, 2013-01-10 Metaphor a form of figurative language in which one thing or idea is expressed in terms of another is becoming an increasingly popular area of study as it is relevant to the work of semanticists pragmatists discourse analysts and also those working at the interface of language and literature and in other disciplines such as philosophy and psychology This book provides a summary critique and comparison of the most important theories on how metaphors are used and understood drawing on research from linguistics psychology and other disciplines In order to ground the discussion in actual language use the book uses examples from discourse including casual conversations political speeches literature humor religion and science Written in a non technical style the book includes clear definitions examples discussion questions and a glossary making it ideal for graduate level seminars
