Metaphorical Basis Of Language:

Metaphor and Analogy in Science Education Peter J. Aubusson, Peter Aubusson, Allan G. Harrison, Steve Ritchie, 2006
This book brings together powerful ideas and new developments from internationally recognised scholars and classroom practitioners to provide theoretical and practical knowledge to inform progress in science education. This is achieved through a series of related chapters reporting research on analogy and metaphor in science education. Throughout the book contributors not only highlight successful applications of analogies and metaphors but also foreshadow exciting developments for research and practice. Themes include metaphor and analogy best practice as reasoning for learning applications in teacher development in science education research philosophical and theoretical foundations. Accordingly the book is likely to appeal to a wide audience of science educators classroom practitioners student teachers teacher educators and researchers.

Knowledge Representation and Metaphor E. Cornell Way, 2013-03-14 This series will include monographs and collections of studies devoted to the investigation and exploration of knowledge information and data processing systems of all kinds no matter whether human other animal or machine. Its scope is intended to span the full range of interests from classical problems in the philosophy of mind and philosophical psychology through issues in cognitive psychology and sociobiology concerning the mental capabilities of other species to ideas related to artificial intelligence and computer science. While primary emphasis will be placed upon theoretical conceptual and epistemological aspects of these problems and domains empirical experimental and methodological studies will also appear from time to time. The problems posed by metaphor and analogy are among the most challenging that confront the field of knowledge representation. In this study Eileen Way has drawn upon the combined resources of philosophy psychology and computer science in developing a systematic and illuminating theoretical framework for understanding metaphors and analogies. While her work provides solutions to difficult problems of knowledge representation it goes much further by investigating some of the most important philosophical assumptions that prevail within artificial intelligence today. By exposing the limitations inherent in the assumption that languages are both literal and truth functional she has advanced our grasp of the nature of language itself. J R F

Metaphor Identification in Multiple Languages Susan Nacey, Aletta G. Dorst, Tina Krennmayr, W. Gudrun Reijnierse, 2019-11-28 This volume explores linguistic metaphor identification in a wide variety of languages and language families. The book is an essential read for anyone interested in researching language and metaphor from students to experienced scholars. Its primary goals are to discuss the challenges involved in applying the Metaphor Identification Procedure Vrije Universiteit MIPVU to a range of languages across the globe and to offer theoretically grounded advice and guidelines enabling researchers to identify metaphors in multiple languages in a valid and replicable way. The volume is intended as a practical guidebook that identifies and discusses procedural challenges of metaphor identification across languages thus better enabling researchers to reliably identify metaphor in a multitude of languages. Although able to be read independently this volume written by metaphor researchers from around the world is the ideal companion volume for the 2010 Benjamins book A Method for Linguistic Metaphor Identification From MIP to MIPVU Metaphors of ANGER across Languages: Universality and Variation Zoltan Kövecses, Réka Benczes, Veronika Szelid, 2024-11-04 Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience informing and guiding many of our choices and actions Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines including linguistics a basic question has still remained unresolved why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages including a number of less researched languages this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience language and the larger cultural context

The Routledge Handbook of Metaphor and Language Elena Semino, Zsófia Demjén, 2016-11-03 The Routledge Handbook of Metaphor and Language provides a comprehensive overview of state of the art interdisciplinary research on metaphor and language Featuring 35 chapters written by leading scholars from around the world the volume takes a broad view of the field of metaphor and language and brings together diverse and distinct theoretical and applied perspectives to cover six key areas Theoretical approaches to metaphor and language covering Conceptual Metaphor Theory Relevance Theory Blending Theory and Dynamical Systems Theory Methodological approaches to metaphor and language discussing ways of identifying metaphors in verbal texts images and gestures as well as the use of corpus linguistics Formal variation in patterns of metaphor use across text types historical periods and languages Functional variation of metaphor in contexts including educational commercial scientific and political discourse as well as online trolling The applications of metaphor for problem solving in business education healthcare and conflict situations Language metaphor and cognitive development examining the processing and comprehension of metaphors The Routledge Handbook of Language and Metaphor is a must have survey of this key field and is essential reading for those interested in language and metaphor Spaces and Meanings Olga Lavrenova, 2019-03-25 This book examines the problem of relationships between culture and space Highlighting the use of semiotics of culture as a basic concept of research it describes the power of the cultural landscape in the context of culture philosophical research Opening with a discussion of the existence of culture in space it establishes basic concepts such as noosphere and pneumatosphere The author acknowledges the early contributions of thinkers like Vladimir Vernadsky and Pierre Teilhard de Chardin who first observed that human activity has become a geological force Introducing time and space to the discussion the author then describes the nature of mythological time eternity versus timelessness and the semantics of sacred landscapes space and ritual These concepts are further developed in discussions of the metaphorical nature of cultural landscape and the city as metaphor The book explores semiotics in the cultural landscape examining the genesis of concepts from geographical images to signs and the axiological dimension of geographical images In her approach to the idea of cultural landscape as text she provides detailed examples including the Russian landscape as agent provocateur of the text and the culture philosophical aspects and semantics of travel It establishes the cultural landscape as a phenomenon of culture that is fixed in geographical space with the help of semiotic mechanisms a specific area of culture of life possessing functional and ontological self sufficiency This book appeals readers and researchers interested in the philosophy of culture semiotics of space and the philosophical dimensions of culture and geography

BODY AND IMAGE Christopher Y. Tilley, Wayne Bennett, 2008-11-15 Chris Tilley offers a kinaesthetic approach to understanding ancient landscapes one that uses the full body and all the senses through examples of rock art and megalithic architecture in Norway Ireland and Sweden

Imagination, Metaphor and Mythopeia in Wordsworth, Shelley and Keats Firat Karadas, 2008 The book studies metaphor myth and their imaginative aspects in the poetry of William Wordsworth Percy Bysshe Shelley and John Keats Relying on Kantian Romantic Neo Kantian and modern ideas of imagination metaphor and myth the book proposes that imagination is an inherently metaphorizing and mythologizing faculty because the act of perception is an act of giving form to natural phenomena and seeing similitude in dissimilitude which are basically metaphorical and mythological acts Studying selected poems the author explores how in its form giving activity the imagination of the speaking subject mythologizes and metaphorizes by seeing objects of nature as spiritual animate or divine beings and thus transforming them into the alien territory of myth Myth and metaphor are analyzed in these poems mainly in two regards first myth and metaphor are handled as inborn aspects of imagination and perception and the interaction between nature and imagination is presented as the origin of all mythology second to show how myth is re created time and again by poetic imagination Romantic mythography and re creation of precursor mythologies are analyzed

Metaphor and Persuasion in Strategic Communication Federica Ferrari, 2018-10-10 This groundbreaking work adopts an alternative metaphor based approach to challenge unpack and redefine our understanding of persuasion and strategic communication and the extents to which they shape political discourse The book s theoretical and methodological grounding in metaphor allows for an alternative perspective on strategic communication but also a robust discussion of both persuasion and other kinds of related discursive processes at work in political communication including narrative identification and ideology The volume integrates case studies from prominent political discourses including those of George W Bush Jr Tony Blair and Barack Obama to highlight the crucial role of persuasion management and sustainability in the public sphere and the ways in which it might inform political action and change in a positive way Broadening our perception of the possibilities of persuasion and strategic communication this dynamic volume is key reading for students and scholars in communication studies political science rhetoric and cognitive linguistics

Cognitive Linguistics: Basic Readings Dirk Geeraerts, 2008-08-22 Over the past decade Cognitive Linguistics has grown to be one of the most broadly appealing and dynamic frameworks for the study of natural language Essentially this new school of linguistics focuses on the meaning side of language linguistic form is analysed as an expression of meaning And meaning itself is not something that exists in isolation but it is integrated with the full spectrum of human experience the fact that we are embodied beings just as much as the fact that we are cultural beings Cognitive Linguistics Basic Readings brings together twelve foundational articles each of which introduces one of the basic concepts of Cognitive Linguistics like conceptual metaphor image schemas mental spaces construction grammar prototypicality and radial sets The collection features the founding fathers of Cognitive Linguistics George Lakoff Ron Langacker Len Talmy Gilles Fauconnier and Charles Fillmore together with some of the most influential younger scholars By its choice of seminal papers and leading authors Basic Readings is specifically suited for an introductory course in Cognitive Linguistics This is further supported by a general introduction to the theory and specifically the practice of Cognitive Linguistics and by trajectories for further reading that start out from the individual chapters

A Method for Linguistic Metaphor Identification Gerard Steen, 2010 This book presents a complete method for the identification of metaphor in language at the level of word use It is based on extensive methodological and empirical corpus linguistic research in two languages English and Dutch The method is formulated as an explicit manual of instructions covering one chapter the method being a development and refinement of the popular MIP procedure presented by the Pragglejaz Group in 2007 The extended version is called MIPVU as it was developed at VU University Amsterdam Its application is demonstrated in five case studies addressing metaphor in English news texts conversations fiction and academic texts and Dutch news texts and conversations Two methodological chapters follow reporting a series of successful reliability tests and a series of post hoc troubleshooting exercises The final chapter presents a first empirical analysis of the findings and shows what this type of methodological attention can mean for research and theory

The Basics of Hebrew Poetry Samuel T. S. Goh, 2017-10-12 Almost 75 percent of the Old Testament is made up of poetic passages yet for many readers lay Christians even seminary students and pastors biblical poetic passages remain the greatest challenge Being unfamiliar with poetry in general and biblical poetry in particular their reading and preaching are limited to selected poetic passages This in turn limits their understanding of God's word To help readers overcome these problems the first four chapters of this book aim to get them familiarized with the literary techniques of biblical poets To demonstrate how the techniques work to bring across the biblical theological message the last three chapters offer poetic analyses of three passages of different kinds In the process we hope to draw attention to the beauty of the Hebrew poetic art and to the creative skill of biblical poets versification The ultimate aim however is to help readers discover the rich message of the Bible

Slowing Metaphor Down Gerard J. Steen, 2023-06-15 If thinking can be fast or slow metaphorical thinking can be fast and slow too But metaphorical thinking does not occur as often and in the ways that many metaphor scholars today think Slow metaphorical thinking does mean however that we can exert more control over metaphor than has previously been acknowledged We can even offer resistance to metaphor Deliberate Metaphor Theory DMT claims that there is an essential processing difference between non deliberate and deliberate metaphor use which can explain all this This book is the first full account of the DMT model for metaphor comprehension It presents explicit conceptualization and formal operationalization and is based on a well known cognitive psychological model for all utterance comprehension in discourse The original three dimensional model of DMT is here refined into a four dimensional model which reveals new research questions and discoveries about the use of metaphor The book brings together numerous cognitive scientific insights into metaphor It has a high degree of interdisciplinary accessibility to all students of metaphor whether master students PhDs post docs or established academics

Understanding Metaphor through Corpora Katie Patterson, 2018-05-11 This book introduces a unique methodology to the study of metaphor integrating a corpus linguistic approach to explore the lexical grammatical semantic and pragmatic characteristics of metaphoric instances of language The volume questions the reliability of attempts to identify metaphor based on dichotomy and drawing on data from a corpus of nineteenth century writing instead advocates for the notion that metaphoricity is context dependent and fluid in relation to the respective social and discourse contexts in which metaphors can be found The book also applies Lexical Priming Theory to metaphoric language to suggest that our use of metaphor is due to unconscious behaviors a counterpoint to perspectives that see metaphor use as part of the creative process Taken as a whole the volume calls for a deeper investigation of the complex web of meaning senses that contributes to our understanding of metaphor making this key reading for students and researchers in corpus linguistics metaphor studies lexicography semantics and pragmatics

Reading Minds Mark Turner, 1994-01-16 The great adventure of modern cognitive science the discovery of the human mind will fundamentally revise our concept of what it means to be human Drawing together the classical conception of the language arts the Renaissance sense of scientific discovery and the modern study of the mind Mark Turner offers a vision of the central role that language and the arts of language can play in that adventure

Finding Metaphor in Grammar and Usage Gerard Steen, 2007 Cognitive linguists have proposed that metaphor is not just a matter of language but of thought and that metaphorical thought displays a high degree of conventionalization In order to produce converging evidence for this theory of metaphor a wide range of data is currently being studied with a large array of methods and techniques Finding Metaphor in Grammar and Usage aims to map the field of this development in theory and research from a methodological perspective It raises the question when exactly evidence for metaphor in language and thought can be said to count as converging It also goes into the various stages of producing such evidence conceptualization operationalization data collection and analysis and interpretation The book offers systematic discussion of eight distinct areas of metaphor research that emerge as a result of approaching metaphor as part of grammar or usage language or thought and symbolic structure or cognitive process      Vico, Metaphor, and the Origin of Language Marcel Danesi, 1993-09-22 serious scholars of Vico as well as glottogeneticists will find much of value in this excellent monograph New Vico Studies a provocative well researched argument which might find reapplication in the fields of anthropology semiotics archeology psychology or even philosophy Theological Book Review Danesi returns to the work of the 18th century Italian philosopher Giambattista Vico to create a persuasive original account of the evolution and development of language one of the deep mysteries of human existence The Vichian reconstruction of the origin of language is described at length then evaluated in light of contemporary research in the cognitive social and biological sciences

Metaphor in Use Fiona MacArthur, José Luis Oncins-Martínez, Manuel Sánchez-García, Ana María Piquer-Píriz, 2012-10-17 Metaphor is a fascinating phenomenon but it is also complex and multi faceted varying in how it is manifested in different modes of expression languages cultures or time scales How then can we reliably identify metaphors in different contexts How does the language or culture of speakers and hearers affect the way metaphors are produced or interpreted Are the methods employed to explore metaphors in one context applicable in others The sixteen chapters that make up this volume offer not only detailed studies of the situated use of metaphor in language gesture and visuals around the world providing important insights into the different factors that produce variation but also careful explication and discussion of the methodological issues that arise when researchers approach metaphor in diverse real world contexts The book constitutes an important contribution to applied metaphor studies and will prove an invaluable resource for the novice and experienced metaphor researcher alike      Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume II Stanley E.

Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-19 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent s pursuit of us      The Philosophy and Practice of Medicine and Bioethics Barbara Maier, Warren A. Shibles, 2010-11-03 This book challenges the unchallenged methods in medicine such as evidence based medicine which claim to be but often are not scientific It completes medical care by adding the comprehensive humanistic perspectives and philosophy of medicine No specific or absolute recommendations are given regarding medical treatment moral approaches or legal advice Given rather is discussion about each issue involved and the strongest arguments indicated Each argument is subject to further critical analysis This is the same position as with any philosophical medical or scientific view The argument that decision making in medicine is inadequate unless grounded on a philosophy of medicine is not meant to include all of philosophy and every philosopher On the contrary it includes only sound practical and humanistic philosophy and philosophers who are creative and critical thinkers and who have concerned themselves with the topics relevant to medicine These would be those philosophers who engage in practical philosophy such as the pragmatists humanists naturalists and ordinary language philosophers A new definition of our own philosophy of life emerges and it is necessary to have one Good lifestyle no longer means just abstaining from cigarettes alcohol and getting exercise It also means living a holistic life which includes all of one's thinking personality and actions This book also includes new ways of thinking In this regard the Metaphorical Method is explained used and exemplified in depth for example in the chapters on care egoism and altruism letting die etc
