Metaphors in Learner English Susan Nacey,2013-11-15 This volume presents results from a corpus based investigation into the metaphorical production of foreign language learners comparing texts written by Norwegian L2 learners of English with those written by British L1 students Three types of questions are addressed The first has empirically measured answers For example do L2 English writers produce more metaphors than L1 novice writers How frequent are novel metaphors in an L2 as compared with an L1 The second type has more subjective answers How creatively do L2 English learners employ metaphor Are they even expected to be able to produce metaphor at all The third type combines theoretical and methodological perspectives How is metaphorical creativity identified What is the potential role of metaphoric competence

Most importantly how are metaphors identified To this end the newly developed Metaphor Identification Procedure is tested and critiqued This book is intended for metaphor researchers corpus linguists applied linguists and language educators

The Oxford Handbook of Metaphor in Organization Studies ,2024-01-31 Metaphors for organization and management have been a subject of strong interest in the area of organizational studies since the 1980s Metaphors enhance the understanding of organizations and provide a mechanism for critiquing current practices increasing effectiveness and improving communication The Oxford Handbook of Metaphor in Organization Studies provides a comprehensive reference for researchers educators and managers The book comprises twenty nine chapters which are authored by over forty contributors many of whom have played major roles in the development of the field over the years The theoretical underpinnings of organizational metaphors are explored An array of metaphorical contexts for understanding management and organizations is presented The various uses of metaphor as a tool in research education and management are addressed as are the limitations of metaphors Finally future research directions related to metaphors in organizational studies and management are proposed

Specialised Dictionaries for Learners Pedro A. Fuertes-Olivera,2010-03-26 The need for constructing a lexicographical theory with a particular focus on specialised dictionaries for learners is well documented in recent publications This will imply paying attention to at least four basic lexicographic categories learners the learner s situation the learner s needs dictionary assistance In one or other way these categories are analysed in this book whose eleven chapters are grouped into three parts Part 1 reflects on some of the main ideas defended by the function theory of lexicography perhaps the theoretical framework that has paid more attention to specialised lexicography Part 2 presents some proposals that have already being explored in the field of general learner s dictionary and must be incorporated into specialised metalexicography cultural aspects figurative meaning the inclusion of grammatical information the use of corpora Part 3 introduces the state of play regarding specialised dictionaries in China and offers some ideas for coping with the proliferation of terminological glossaries in Internet The book also describes Enrique Alcaraz s academic achievements together with some personal anecdotes and a personal short tribute to his memory

Washing the Brain Andrew Goatly,2007-01-01 Contemporary metaphor theory has recently begun to address the relation between metaphor culture and ideology In this wide ranging book Andrew Goatly using lexical data from his database Metalude investigates how conceptual metaphor themes construct our thinking and social behaviour in fields as diverse as architecture engineering education genetics ecology economics politics industrial time management medicine immigration race and sex He argues that metaphor themes are created not only through the universal body but also through cultural experience so that an apparently universal metaphor such as event structure as realized in English grammar is in fact culturally relative compared with e g the construal of cause and effect in the Algonquin language Blackfoot Moreover event structure as a model is both scientifically reactionary and as the basis for technological mega projects has proved environmentally harmful Furthermore the ideologies of early capitalism created or exploited a selection of metaphor themes historically traceable through Hobbes Hume Smith Malthus and Darwin These metaphorical concepts support neo Darwinian and neo conservative ideologies apparent at the beginning of the 21st century ideologies underpinning our social and environmental crises The conclusion therefore recommends skepticism of metaphor s reductionist tendencies

Metaphors of ANGER across Languages: Universality and Variation Zoltan Kövecses, Réka Benczes, Veronika Szelid, 2024-11-04 Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience informing and guiding many of our choices and actions Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines including linguistics a basic question has still remained unresolved why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages including a number of less researched languages this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience language and the larger cultural context

Perception and Metaphor Qin Xiugui,Tie Yi,2021-07-28 Cognitive linguists believe that metaphors are prevalent in human thought while metaphorical structures are reflected at the linguistic level Therefore analysing extensive language data can aid in revealing the metaphorical mappings of embodied experience with the senses of vision hearing smell taste touch and temperature This volume seeks to discover the similarities and differences between the metaphorical systems of the English and Chinese languages Adopting a comparative view the authors examine the semantic extensions of perception words in English and Chinese in order to reveal the metaphorical scope of each sense and the metaphorical system behind it They argue that the metaphorical systems of the senses not only help us understand and use conventionalised metaphorical expressions but also allow us to create novel expressions The findings also unveil how abstract concepts are constructed via cognitive mechanisms such as image schema and metaphor This title is a useful reference for scholars and students who are interested in cognitive linguistics comparative linguistics and the philosophy of language

Variation in Political Metaphor Julien Perrez,Min Reuchamps,Paul H. Thibodeau,2019-08-06 The objective of this book is to understand variation in political metaphor Political metaphors are distinctive and important because they are used to achieve political goals to persuade to shape expectations to realize specific objectives and actions The analyses in the book go beyond the mere identification of conceptual metaphors in discourse to show how political metaphors function in the real world It starts from the finding that the same conceptual domains are used to characterize politics political entities and political issues Yet the specific metaphors used to describe these conceptual domains often change This book explores some of the reasons for this variation including features of political leaders e g their age and gender countries and other sociopolitical circumstances This perspective yields a better understanding of the role s of metaphors in political discourse

International Law's Invisible Frames Andrea Bianchi,Moshe Hirsch,2021-09-23 What is international law and how does it work This book argues that our answers to these fundamental questions are shaped by a variety of social cognition and knowledge production processes These processes act as invisible frames through which we understand international law To better conceive the frames within which international law moves and performs we must understand how psychological and socio cultural factors affect decision making in an international legal process This includes identifying the groups of people and institutions that shape and alter the prevailing discourse in international law and unearthing the hidden meaning of the various mythologies that populate and influence our normative world With chapters from leading experts in the discipline employing insights from sociology psychology and behavioural science this book investigates the mechanisms that allow us to apprehend and intellectually represent the social practice of international law It unveils the hidden or unnoticed processes by which our understanding of international law is formed and helps readers to unlearn some of the presuppositions that inform our largely unquestioned beliefs about international law ELTLT 2021 Ruly Indra Darmawan ,Girindra Putri Dewi Saraswati ,Imas Istiani,2022-06-09

This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 10th Unnes International Conference on English Language Literature and Translation ELTLT 2021 held in Semarang Indonesia in August 2021 The full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from all submissions The papers reflect the conference sessions as follows English Language Teaching and Linguistics Applied Linguistics Discourse Analysis EAP ESP Literacy Education ICT in ELT Multilingualism in Education Multimodality Teaching Material and Curriculum Development Language Testing and Assessment Language Acquisition TESOL TEFL CLIL Literature Children Literature Cultural Studies Cyber Literature Gender Studies Ecoliterature World Literature Travel Literature Popular Literature Translation Audio Visual Translation Interpreting ICT in Translation Translation Teaching and Training Translation of Different Genres Cyber Culture Translation Multimodality in Translation Studies Deep Preaching J. Kent Edwards,2009 J Kent Edwards recalls a story that late pastor J Vernon McGee told about seeing children in South Africa playing a game of marbles in the dust with real diamonds The precious stones were being handled with no regard for their true worth Edwards fears the same thing happens today when preachers offer Scriptural truth to listeners without being completely overwhelmed by its greatness themselves in the process Deep Preaching is his call to rethink preaching Edwards helps preachers learn to preach the word in ways that will powerfully change the lives of hearers He contends that sermons need not settle comfortably on the lives of the listeners like dust on a coffee table He encourages preachers to join him in casting off the lines that moor their ministries to the status quo and make every effort to steer their preaching out of the comfortable shallows He urges them to preach deep sermons rather than superficial ones moving beyond the yawn inspiring to the awe inspiring from the trite to the transforming
