Christian Preaching and Worship in Multicultural Contexts Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2017-07-27 Can Christian preaching and worship in multicultural contexts be more faithful to the Christian gospel and more meaningful and memorable to worshipers In this book Eunjoo Mary Kim explores this theological and liturgical concern and proposes a paradigm shift from monocultural to multicultural worship This volume will help preachers and worship leaders as well as homiletics and liturgics scholars seek theological and biblical wisdom for the practice of Christian preaching and worship in multicultural contexts Kim also provides homiletical and liturgical insights into this practice By integrating this paradigm shift ministers and worshipers can participate in a life worthy of living together in our multicultural world

The Soul of Supervision Margaret Benefiel, Geraldine Holton, 2010-10-01 With national and international concern around issues of abuse burnout meaninglessness and spiritual bankruptcy in every profession supervision is becoming increasingly necessary for people who desire life giving care and understanding in their work and ministry This book provides a framework of theory and experience to develop the strengths and address the challenges of professional supervision with particular focus on developing spiritual sensitivity and competency

It Comes from the People Mary Ann Hinsdale, Helen Matthews Lewis, S. Maxine Waller, 1995 The closing of local mines and factories collapsed the economic and social structure of Ivanhoe Virginia a small rural town once considered a dying community on the rough side of the mountain Documenting the creative survival techniques developed by Ivanhoe citizens in the aftermath It Comes from the People tells how this community organized to revitalize the town and demand participation in its future Photos interviews stories songs poems and scenes from a local theater production tell how this process of rebuilding gradually uncovered the community's own local theology and a growing consciousness of cultural and religious values A significant aspect of this social transformation in Ivanhoe as in many rural areas was the emergence of women as leaders educators and organizers developing new approaches to revive the economy and the people simultaneously This book is unusually open about the difficult process faced by outside researchers working with community members to describe community life It discusses the inherent dilemmas frankly and presents a model for those who engage in community studies and ethnographic research Author note Mary Ann Hinsdale is Associate Professor of Religious Studies at Boston College Helen M Lewis is Interim Director of the Appalachian Center at Berea College in Kentucky S Maxine Waller is President of the Ivanhoe Civic League and directs community based student volunteer programs in Virginia

Mediating Peace Sebastian Kim, Pauline Kollontai, Sue Yore, 2016-01-14 This volume examines the role and contributions of art music and film in peace building and reconciliation offering a distinctive approach in various forms of art in peace building in a wide range of conflict situations particularly in religiously plural contexts As such it provides readers with a comprehensive perspective on the subject The contributors are composed of prominent scholars and artists who examine theoretical professional and practical perspectives and debates and address three central research questions which form the theoretical basis of this project namely In what way have particular forms of art enhanced peace building in conflict situations How do artistic forms become a public demonstration and expression of a particular socio political context and In what way have the arts played the role of catalyst for peace building and if not why not This volume demonstrates that art contributes in conflict and post conflict situations in three main ways transformation at an individual level peace building between communities and bridging justice and peace for sustainable reconciliation

Spiritually Revitalizing Your Community of Faith through Prayer Robert Arthur Hansen, DMin, 2023-08-03 As we enter a Community of Faith for the first time we are naturally drawn to a shared spirituality It may be a congregation synagogue mosque or temple It is shared spiritually of the people at prayer which attracts us and draws us to unite with others in prayer There are three shared stands of any Community of Faith their shared faith tradition the culture of the community and the personalities of the members This book examines the elements of tradition culture and personal temperament to determine how the three become spiritually integrated at the moment of prayer The conclusion is that through an explicit assessment of these three elements members of the faith community can enrich their personal spiritual life resulting in spiritual growth and can ultimately revitalize the spiritual prayer life of the community of faith The book is a spiritual intervention of a Presbyterian congregation in Central New York in the 1980s I'm grateful for the prayer group that committed there Wednesday nights during 1986 This is their story of how they were able to revitalize the spiritual life of a 150 year old three hundred member Presbyterian congregation

SCM Studyguide: Theological Reflection Judith Thompson, Stephen Pattison, Ross Thompson, 2019-03-30 Since it was first published the SCM Studyguide to Theological Reflection has quickly gained a reputation for being a vital and accessible guide to the subject for all who embark on it for the first time This studyguide offers newcomers a step by step introduction to understanding what theological reflection is and helps them to explore which of the methods introduced best suits them and their particular situation It is practical in emphasis providing students with a wide variety of worked examples and opportunities to carry out their own exercises This 2nd edition will bring the content up to date offering a revised and improved bibliography and updated and refreshed examples and exercises including new sections on scriptural reasoning and contemplative theology

Main Challenges for Christian Theology Today Christophe Chalamet, Lit Verlag, 2020-10 In this volume on the basis of three consultations which took place in Seoul and Geneva 2016 2017 2018 theologians from Yonsei University's College of Theology in Seoul South Korea and from the Theological Faculty at the University of Geneva reflect together on three of the main challenges facing Christian theology today First questions related to religious pluralism and multiple religious belonging are addressed Second the promise of an enhanced human being through technology and other means is discussed Third the reality of the threat humanity represents to our ecosystem is considered Each of these themes is examined from a Korean as well as from a Western European perspective for Christian theology in our day can no longer afford to remain limited to its own geographical context

Christian Marriage and Family Michael G. Lawler, William P. Roberts, 1996 A definite shift in the Catholic Church's understanding of marriage took place at Vatican Council II Rather than perceiving marriage as a contract whose primary purpose was the procreation of children the council spoke of marriage as an intimate partnership of life and love Then recapturing an earlier tradition it went on to describe the family as a domestic church In this book seven theologians who have lectured and written extensively on marriage probe the rich theology of marriage and family that emerged from Vatican II and explore some of the implications that flow from this theology Part One reflects on the sacramentality of marriage and on the family as a church of the home Part Two examines the pastoral implications this has for marital and family ministry and spirituality

Can Women Re-Image the Church? Rosemary Chinnici, 2004-06-23 Can Women Re Image the Church is a bold and provocative exploration for women within the church who feel alienated by traditional patriarchal theology This book speaks of a new vision a new way of thinking that incorporates the voices and thoughts of women within a theological world that understands and supports them Through a process called re imaging author Rosemary Chinnici separates the reality of the feminine experience from the centuries old and sometimes stilted beliefs that have been handed down to us She uses the principles of psychology that include women's voices and sets them in dialogue with feminist theology According to Chinnici every woman has the right and the authority to use her own experience as the basis for re imaging It is an ongoing and dynamic revelation that offers a positive gift to the community This work details the lives of four women Each tells her own story examines her own experience and speaks her own voice as she recognizes how and where traditional theology has shortchanged her In this examination of their crisis filled moments and subsequent anger guilt and alienation the reader is able to experience firsthand what the re imaging process involves This fine and accessible book is an indispensable resource for spiritual seekers willing to uncover and integrate into daily life the powerful insights of women in the church Studies in Formative Spirituality ,1986 Counter-Cultural Paradigmatic Leadership Gary K. G. Choong,2011-06-03 In Counter Cultural Paradigmatic Leadership Gary Choong challenges the reader to consider the mind set motive and manner of leadership in any Asian setting that is suffused with contemporary practices of paternalistic authority It provides a counter cultural paradigm shift for the Christian leader who desires to honor God with mind and heart based on a biblical moral foundation and to lead with character biblical core values and a commitment to further the cause of Christ The counter cultural paradigms and practices of integrity humility and empowerment address the ills of contemporary paternalistic authority such as didactic leadership guarding and building of reputation protection of dominance autocratic control nepotism cronyism ambivalence lack of accountability overstaying one s effectiveness and underestimating one s subordinates This counter cultural paradigmatic Christian leadership deals first with the Christian leader s character and spiritual formation over a lifetime second it seeks to influence and impact team members toward biblical coherence and congruence in discipleship team ministry and leadership development third it encourages the leader to consider ways to address organizational behavioral dysfunctions and hence organizational coherence congruence and effectiveness particularly with a view toward leadership succession and organizational significance Straw for the Bricks Gary O'Neill,Liz Shercliff ,2018-11-30 Straw for the Bricks explores theological reflection as a tool for ministerial training and development The book offers a new resource for theological conversation at the beginning of the 21st century it breaks new ground in exploring how a model of conversation can be used to lay a foundation for learning which provides a new architecture for both academic curriculum and personal formation The book offers a practical guide to good practice supported by the lived experience of educators from All Saints Centre for Mission and Ministry working across several disciplines No other such detailed practical guide is currently in print The book will thus become an important resource for those within theological education institutions adult theological educators those with responsibility for continuing ministerial development mentoring and discipleship and any lay person who seeks to live a life of faith in conversation with culture and the Judaeo Christian tradition Theological Reflection Edward O. De Bary,2003 Theological reflection has its roots in the works of Bernard Lonergan David Tracy James and Evelyn Whitehead John de Beer Patricia Killen Flower Ross and Charles Winters It provides a way of learning theology so that participants can develop congruence between life s experience the world and the Christian faith the reflective methods are useful educational tools Other discipline may find them useful to enhance the way seminars are organized as learning opportunities to discover meaning Perspectives on Ecclesiology and Ethnography Pete Ward,2012-03-15 Within the disciplines of religious studies systematic theology and practical theology

there exists a divide between empirical and theological analyses of the church Each volume in the cross disciplinary series Studies in Ecclesiology and Ethnography attempts to address this gap by exploring the methodological and substantive issues that arise from both theological and empirical studies of the church s practices and social reality Perspectives on Ecclesiology and Ethnography the inaugural volume in the series proposes that if theology is to regain its relevance to the church today theologians must utilize ethnographical tools in order to provide more accurate disciplined research that is situated in real contexts Using ethnography in its broadest sense encompassing any form of qualitative research this volume proposes that the church is both theological and social cultural which implies the need for a methodological shift for researchers in theology Contributions from twelve scholar practitioners lead the way forward Contributors Luke Bretherton Paul S Fiddes Nicholas M Healy Mary McClintock Fulkerson Alister E McGrath Richard R Osmer Elizabeth Phillips Christian Scharen John Swinton Pete Ward Clare Watkins John Webster
