

Herbert Blumer Methodology

- Naturalistic Approach - Study of conduct and group life, as these occur naturally in the everyday existence of people.
- Need for exploratory studies...
 - A great deal of human group life is hidden from immediate notice
 - Social scientists generally do not have first hand, intimate familiarity with the group life they propose to study
 - Focuses on the importance of in-depth knowledge of the group using interviews and observations, and steering away from vagueness when defining concepts
