Loving in the War Years Cherríe Moraga,2023-08-15 An updated edition combining two classic works of Chicana and queer literature with a new introduction by renowned writer and luminary Cherríe Moraga In celebration of the 40th anniversary of its original publication this updated edition of Loving in the War Years combines Moraga's classic memoir with The Last Generation Poetry and Prose resulting in a challenging inspiring and insightful touchstone for artists and activists and for anyone striving to foster care and community Cherríe Moraga's powerful memoir remains as urgent as ever She explores the intersections of her Chicana and lesbian identities moving gracefully between poetry and prose Spanish and English personal narratives and political theory Moraga recounts navigating the world largely as an outsider circling the interconnected societies around her from a distant yet observant perspective Ultimately however her writing serves as a bridge between her cultures languages family and herself enabling her to look inward to forge connections from otherwise inaccessible parts of her interior world to show how deep self awareness and compassionate engagement with one's surroundings are key to building global solidarity among people and political movements

Arranged Marriage Péter Berta,2023-03-17 Arranged Marriage The Politics of Tradition

Resistance and Change shows how arranged marriage practices have been undergoing transformation as a result of global and other processes such as the revolution of digital technology democratization of transnational mobility or shifting significance of patriarchal power structures The ethnographically informed chapters not only highlight how the gendered and intergenerational politics of agency autonomy choice consent and intimacy work in the contexts of partner choice and management of marriage but also point out that arranged marriages are increasingly varied and they can be reshaped reinvented and reinterpreted flexibly in response to individual family religious class ethnic and other desires needs and constraints The authors convincingly demonstrate that a nuanced investigation of the reasons complex dynamics and consequences of arranged marriages offers a refreshing analytical lens that can significantly contribute to a deeper understanding of other phenomena such as globalization modernization and international migration as well as patriarchal value regimes intergenerational power imbalances and gendered subordination and vulnerability of women

Beyond the Black Lady Lisa B. Thompson, 2023-12-11 In this book Lisa B Thompson explores the representation of black middle class female sexuality by African American women authors in narrative literature drama film and popular culture showing how these depictions reclaim black female agency and illustrate the difficulties black women confront in asserting sexual agency in the public sphere Thompson broadens the discourse around black female sexuality by offering an alternate reading of the overly determined racial and sexual script that casts the middle class black lady as the bastion of African American propriety Drawing on the work of black feminist theorists she examines symptomatic autobiographies novels plays and key episodes in contemporary American popular culture including works by Anita Hill Judith Alexa Jackson P J Gibson Julie Dash Kasi Lemmons Jill Nelson Lorene Cary and Andrea Lee

Our Right to Love Ginny Vida, National Gay Task Force, 1978 This book reflects a growing awareness of the special concerns of lesbians All gay women and men have of course felt isolated from the mainstream culture but for lesbians the isolation has been much more acute With far fewer social outlets as a resource lesbians have had greater difficulty in establishing a sense of community and in organizing political structures Moreover the bulk of movement literature has addressed the needs and experience of gay men whose life style in some important respects differs from that of the lesbians
