Romance to the Rescue Denis George Mackail, 1921 Annual Report of the Operations of the United States Life-Saving Service for the Fiscal Year Ending ... United States. Life-Saving Service, 1880 Industrial Policy United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Economic Stabilization, 1983 They Were Just People Bill Tammeus, Jacques Cukierkorn, 2009-09-01 Hitler's attempt to murder all of Europe's Jews almost succeeded One reason it fell short of its nefarious goal was the work of brave non-Jews who sheltered their fellow citizens In most countries under German control those who rescued Jews risked imprisonment and death In Poland home to more Jews than any other country at the start of World War II and location of six German built death camps the punishment was immediate execution This book tells the stories of Polish Holocaust survivors and their rescuers The authors traveled extensively in the United States and Poland to interview some of the few remaining participants before their generation is gone Tammeus and Cukierkorn unfold many stories that have never before been made public gripping narratives of Jews who survived against all odds and courageous non-Jews who risked their own lives to provide shelter These are harrowing accounts of survival and bravery Maria Devinki lived for more than two years under the floors of barns Felix Zandman sought refuge from Anna Puchalska for a night but she pledged to hide him for the whole war if necessary and eventually hid several Jews for seventeen months in a pit dug beneath her house And when teenage brothers Zygie and Sol Allweiss hid behind hay bales in the Dudzik family's barn one day when the Germans came they were alarmed to learn the soldiers weren't there searching for Jews but to seize hay But Zofia Dudzik successfully distracted them and she and her husband insisted the boys stay despite the danger to their own family Through some twenty stories like these Tammeus and Cukierkorn show that even in an atmosphere of unimaginable malevolence individuals can decide to act in civilized ways Some rescuers had antisemitic feelings but acted because they knew and liked individual Jews In many cases the rescuers were simply helping friends or business associates The accounts include the perspectives of men and women city and rural residents clergy and laypersons even children who witnessed their parents efforts These stories show that assistance from non Jews was crucial but also that Jews needed ingenuity sometimes money and most often what some survivors called simple good luck Sixty years later they invite each of us to ask what we might do today if we were at risk or were asked to risk our lives to save others
