Open Letter To Pinochet Miss Kitty:

Open Letter to Pinochet/Miss Kitty Charles Philip Thomas, 1999-12 OPEN LETTER TO PINOCHET by Marco Antonio de la Parra ignited debates that forever changed Chile It presents an incisive viewpoint of Pinochet's regime and its effect on the populace from the standpoint of the intellectual artist in Chile CARTA ABIERTA A PINOCHET was originally published in April 1998 by Editorial Planeta Chilena and it has been on the best seller lists in Chile ever since The book is a true life historic document a testimony of horror and despair with hopes for a better future CLICHES is an allegory of the takeover of Chile by a brutal militaristic regime THE OTHER LIFE is a short story which explores the fine line between dreams and reality in post Pinochet Chile Told in the first person it takes the reader on an essential and existential journey where space and time and reality and fantasy cross paths in planes known and unknown BEDS explores what's been gained and lost in terms of inter personal relationships in the ambience of early post Pinochet Chile MISS KITTY by Alejandro Sieveking is a unique story of post Pinochet Chile where people who have fought the good fight for freedom now must confront their growing malaise The dual inner monologue centers on a cat an unchanging link between two mutable humans a beloved creature of such stature that the humans speak of her in a derogatory manner in ironic token of their great esteem for her Miss Kitty fat sensual affectionate and elegant was originally a wedding present for Oswald and Mercedes and thrives on their love and happiness The story would be extremely fragile if it consisted solely of those elements so familiar to us from tabloid reports and talk shows tales of human weakness wants and wandering The novella is carried by the portrait of Kitty who is capable of lifelong loyalty and love She evokes the same in her two owners toward herself Toward each other they show no constancy Kitty is innocent and sensual at once independent and affectionate self centered and outgoing her simplicity resolves all opposites Oswald is bewildered and depressed Mercedes is vacillating and restless Kitty retains her status her self esteem her non judgmental devotion and her charm She represents a refuge from problematical relationships she is an ideal Like Tarzan and the other comic book characters she soothes wounded spirits with her natural optimism and her animal courage in the face of adversity In INNOCENT DOVES a crime of passion occurs in the most expensive brothel on the Pacific coast in which Martin and his lover are involved This incident is the catalyst for the action of Innocent Doves which begins when three women are hounded by reporters trying to obtain information about this page from a mystery novel There is talk about a strangulation and suicide Then Martin's three sisters Antonieta Amelia and Leontina take possession of the previously mentioned establishment They feel they are the rightful heirs of the wealth left by their stingy son and show their true colors getting a penny out of him was like finding a pearl in an oyster at the bottom of the ocean But they are faced with another obstacle the unexpected return of Loreto Leontina's daughter whose purpose is to show the three sisters for what they are and put them in their place What's more per her uncle's instructions she is the heir to the establishment As the play unfolds we watch an almost tragic game which involves a good dose of morbidity these innocent doves don't really know in which world they live and because of this weakness they leave themselves wide open to be deceived Besides each one of them has some kind of skeleton in their closet which borders on the grotesque In their niece s words they re picturesque to put it mildly Latin American Theatre Review ,2001 The New York Times Book Review ,1982 Congressional Record United States.
