Oranges For The Son Of Alexander Levy:

Oranges for the Son of Alexander Levy Nella Bielski, 1984-03 Oranges for the Son of Alexander Levy Nella Bielski, 2001 Reveals the intricate connection between weight problems and marital satisfaction in women and describes the often hidden rewards of being overweight Clearly delineating the issues surrounding weight gain this encouraging book helps readers set attainable weight goals and also offers concrete strategies for success The Year Is '42 Nella Bielski, 2007-12-18 Wehrmacht officer Karl Bazingar is living the high life in Occupied Paris But with his glamorous dinner companions and his open disdain for the Nazis he begins to attract the attention of the SS He is drawn into further trouble when he receives a suspicious visit from a friend who may be involved in resistance activities To lower his profile Karl requests a transfer to Kiev where he discovers the extent of the Nazi atrocities He then begins to suffer from a mysterious ailment and through the ministrations of a beautiful Russian doctor he finds his vital reconnection to hope Urbane subtle and elegiac The Year is 42 is a moving portrait of ordinary lives lived under the extraordinary circumstances of war

Modernity as Exile Nikos Papastergiadis, 1993 Modernity as exile tackles the themes of migration displacement and multiculturalism in the modern world Throughout John Berger's writings whether an art literature or sociology the figure of the stranger signals both the pain of uprooting and the insight gained from another way of seeing Nikos Papastergiadis uses this figure to argue that exile is not merely a political or social fact but is an inner condition central to the postmodern self He analyses the cultural dynamics that connect migration and exile not simply as the negative consequence of contemporary culture but as its fundamental driving force Peoples are displaced not only by wars and famine but by economics tourism global telecommunications How this explodes our notions of home of community and our sense of belonging is the central question addressed by this provocative and powerful book BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Fiction in French - Fiction in Soviet British Library, 2013-02-07 No detailed description available for Fiction in French Fiction in Soviet John Berger Andy Merrifield, 2013-02-15 With a career in literature and art spanning more than sixty years John Berger is characterized by an independent and anti institutional approach to creativity Working in a range of media including novels painting essays and scriptwriting Berger's voice has resounded through mainstream and alternative culture alike He is perhaps best known for his seminal book of art criticism Ways of Seeing published in 1972 Tied directly into a four part BBC television series the book presented a radical new interpretation of Western cultural aesthetics In the same year Berger's experimental novel G was awarded the Man Booker Prize for Fiction cementing his reputation as a boundary pushing writer and thinker In this concise yet detailed study of Berger's life and work the first for decades Andy Merrifield sheds light on Berger the man the artist and the concerned citizen Merrifield shows Berger to be a figure who constantly strives to open up new horizons and also reveals the depth of feeling that infuses even his most intellectual work In this sense Berger is a creator who feels reality like the irrationalist Rousseau yet is also a meticulous realist probing objects critically and rationally like Spinoza John Berger stitches together art literature biography and politics into a lucid coherent whole The result is a reader friendly freewheeling narrative which gives fascinating insight into one of the most influential thinkers of our times The book is essential reading for students and scholars of art literature and twentieth century culture

Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions

Holocaust Literature: Agosin to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

Writing Forward Susan Bassnett, Piotr Blumczynski, 2005-06-18 This collection of essays by a team of internationally respected researchers at the cutting edge of translation studies was inspired by the idea of writing forward as a strategy for theatre translation proposed by David Johnston the award winning translator and scholar Opening this volume is a conversation between David Johnston and Lawrence Venuti in which they explore a broad range of topics that bear on the translation of theatrical texts for performance The chapters that follow are grouped into three main parts Part I Extending translation contains essays whose respective theoretical emphases test push and stretch traditional conceptual boundaries Part II Translating for theatre zooms in on various aspects of theatre translation Part III Translation and creativity shifts the focus beyond the stage to other forms of artistic expression poetry painting film and television Finally in the short play Noli me tangere written especially for this volume Juan Mayorga reflects on theatre as the art of distance and on the mysteriousness of translation as the art of negotiating that distance Thinking about and practicing translation as writing forward underscores its perpetual provisionality and hermeneutic openness its ability to surprise and stimulate but also remind and reassure By enriching our understanding of translation performance and creativity this volume will no doubt inspire further explorations into their fascinating complexities Useful and important reading for advanced students and researchers of literature theatre culture and translation
