Ordeal Of Civilization:

The Ordeal of Civilization James Harvey Robinson, 1926 A large part of the material both text and illustrations of this volume is taken from Mediaeval and modern times The Ordeal of Civilization James Harvey Robinson, The Ordeal of Civilization ... Illustrated James Harvey ROBINSON, 1926 The Library World , 1927 Booklist , 1927 American Progressive History Ernst Breisach, 1993-06-12 American Progressive History is the first book to relate the story of Progressive history through all its transformations from its emergence in the early 1900s to its demise in the 1940s Focusing his account on the work of the movement s most important representatives including Charles Beard James Harvey Robinson and Carl Becker Ernst Breisach demonstrates that Progressive history is distinguished by its unique combination of beliefs in the objective reality of historical facts and its faith in the inevitability of the progress of the human race And though he discusses at length Frederick Jackson Turner s contributions to the creation of a modern American historiography Breisach sets him apart from the scholars who shaped Progressive history While Progressive history is usually treated in isolation from simultaneous movements in European historiography Breisach shows how it was formulated in the face of the same cultural pressures confronting European historians Indeed it becomes clear that until the 1930s the Progressive historians confidence in the validity of historical investigation and the progress of civilization shielded American historians from the skepticism and cultural pessimism which characterized many of their European contemporaries Breisach s exceptionally broad and subtle analysis reveals American Progressive history to be an important and innovative experiment in the international quest for a New History as well as a coherent school of thought in its own right The Booklist , 1927 The Middle Ages James Harvey Robinson, 1926 The American Historical Review John Franklin Jameson, Henry Eldridge Bourne, Robert Livingston Schuyler, 1927 American Historical Review is the oldest scholarly journal of history in the United States and the largest in the world Published by the American Historical Association it covers all areas of historical research

Renaissance, reformation, revolution James Harvey Robinson, 1926 Library World , 1927 The Golden Book Magazine , 1926 A.L.A. Booklist , 1927 A Contest of Civilizations Andrew F. Lang, 2020-11-24 Most mid nineteenth century Americans regarded the United States as an exceptional democratic republic that stood apart from a world seemingly riddled with revolutionary turmoil and aristocratic consolidation Viewing themselves as distinct from and even superior to other societies Americans considered their nation an unprecedented experiment in political moderation and constitutional democracy But as abolitionism in England economic unrest in Europe and upheaval in the Caribbean and Latin America began to influence domestic affairs the foundational ideas of national identity also faced new questions And with the outbreak of civil war as two rival governments each claimed the mantle of civilized democracy the United States claim to unique standing in the community of nations dissolved into crisis Could the Union chart a distinct course in human affairs when slaveholders abolitionists free people of color and enslaved African Americans all possessed irreconcilable definitions of nationhood In this sweeping history of political ideas Andrew F Lang reappraises the Civil War era as a crisis of American exceptionalism Through this lens Lang shows how the intellectual political and social ramifications of the war and its meaning rippled through the decades that followed not only for the nation s own people but also in the ways the nation sought to redefine its place on the world stage North Carolina Library Bulletin North Carolina Library Commission,1928 Wisconsin Library Bulletin ,1926 Dixie Magazine ,1928 World History Long Beach (Calif.). Board of Education,1931 The Ordeal Henry Charles Lea,2016-09-09 Henry Charles Lea was one of the first American historians to use what would later be termed comparative and anthropological approaches to history Under his pen the study of the medieval ordeal becomes a study in cultural history Reprinted here from the fourth revised edition of 1892 the book begins by tracing the role of the ordeal in non Western and ancient societies showing the mental world to which it belongs a limited trust in the public order and purely human methods of inquiry and a larger faith in divine intervention and immanent justice The work then describes the uses of the institution through the European Middle Ages to its final abolition and in the process offers a rich typology of ordeals Additional documents included in this edition present formulas and descriptions of some of the ordeals most frequently used the ordeal by boiling water by hot water by cold water by hot iron and water by glowing plowshares by fire and the ordeal of the cross North Carolina Library Bulletin ,1921
