Restless Ambition Cathy Curtis, 2015-02-17 This first ever biography of American painter Grace Hartigan traces her rise from virtually self taught painter to art world fame her plunge into obscurity after leaving New York to marry a scientist in Baltimore and her constant efforts to reinvent her style and subject matter Along the way there were multiple affairs four troubled marriages a long battle with alcoholism and a chilly relationship with her only child Attempting to channel her vague ambitions after an early marriage Grace struggled to master the basics of drawing in night school classes She moved to New York in her early twenties and befriended Willem de Kooning Jackson Pollock and other artists who were pioneering Abstract Expressionism Although praised for the coloristic brio of her abstract paintings she began working figuratively a move that was much criticized but ultimately vindicated when the Museum of Modern Art purchased her painting The Persian Jacket in 1953 By the mid fifties she freely combined abstract and representational elements Grace who signed her paintings Hartigan was a full fledged member of the men s club that was the 1950s art scene Featured in Time Newsweek Life and Look she was the only woman in MoMA s groundbreaking 12 Americans exhibition in 1956 and the youngest artist and again only woman in The New American Painting which toured Europe in 1958 1959 Two years later she moved to Baltimore where she became legendary for her signature tough love counsel to her art school students Grace continued to paint throughout her life seeking for better or worse something truer and fiercer than beauty Feminism and Art History Now

A ^AGenerous Vision Cathy Curtis,2017-09-04 Cathy Curtis's comprehensive biography provides a much needed summation of the extraordinary achievements of Elaine de Kooning. Artist-Parents in Contemporary Art Barbara Kutis,2020-05-14 This book examines the increasing intersections of art and parenting from the late 1990s to the early 2010s when constructions of masculine and feminine identities as well as the structure of the family underwent radical change. Barbara Kutis asserts that the championing of the simultaneous linkage of art and parenting by contemporary artists reflects a conscientious self-fashioning of a new kind of identity, one that she calls the artist parent. By examining the work of three artists: Guy Ben Neri, Elbieta Jabonska, and the collective Mothers and Fathers, this book reveals how these artists have engaged with the domestic and personal in order to articulate larger issues of parenting in contemporary life. This book will be of interest to scholars in art and gender studies, contemporary art, and art history.

Women, Art, and Society (Sixth) (World of Art) Whitney Chadwick,2020-09-08 A new edition of the groundbreaking book by Whitney Chadwick maps the complete history of women artists from the Middle Ages and the Renaissance to today. Art historian Whitney Chadwick's acclaimed bestselling study challenges the assumption that great women artists are exceptions to the rule who transcended their gender to produce major works of art. While introducing some of the many women since the Middle Ages whose contributions to visual culture have often been neglected, Chadwick's survey reexamines the works themselves and the ways in which they have been perceived as marginal, often in direct reference to gender. In her discussion of feminism and its influence on such a reappraisal, she also addresses the closely related issues of ethnicity, class, and sexuality. This revised edition features a completely redesigned interior and full color illustrations. With a new preface and epilogue from this emerging authority on the history of women artists, curator and professor Flavia Frigeri, this revised edition continues the project of charting the evolution of feminist art history and pedagogy, revealing how artists have responded to new strategies of feminism for the current moment.

In addition to some fifty sculptures, the book presents twenty works on paper as well as a selection of Chase Riboud's internationally acclaimed poetry. It also includes excerpts from an interview with the artist conducted for the Archives of American Art at the Smithsonian Institution. The catalogue offers a careful consideration of the many diverse aspects of the artist's practice, and in doing so, it provides unprecedented insights into her meditations on form, memory, and
