Prairie Murders:

Prairie Murders Robert Dodge,2009-09 It was the safest state in America where a single murder in a year was the usual People there descended from hearty settlers who had withstood a challenging life by cooperating When a growing young town with recently paved streets was struck by annual murders for three consecutive years something had changed Each crime was more violent and heinous than its predecessor beginning when one of the towns favorites a personable high school cheerleader was murdered in her familys home in a sex related attack Within months came the bloody bludgeoning to death of a young mother in her own home As one homicide was prosecuted and investigation moved forward on the second a young mans body was found bisected with the halves floating in bags in a river Prairie Murders Peter B. Smith,2011-02-01 These eight true tales explore the dark side of 20th century prairie history A Saskatchewan farmhouse is burned to the ground to conceal the brutal murders of a family of seven A German prisoner of war camp in Medicine Hat is the scene of savage Nazi killings A convicted killer is given a day pass out of prison for his birthday only to escape and kill again From a deadly Prohibition era shootout to a landmark case solved with DNA evidence these are riveting stories of murderers and the people who fought to bring them to justice British Columbia Murders Susan McNicoll,2010-02-02 Susan McNicoll digs deep in the police files to tell the dramatic tales of British Columbia s most notorious murders In July 1924 Scottish nursemaid Janet Smith was murdered in Vancouver s wealthy Shaughnessy Heights Her killer was never apprehended but the investigation exposed police corruption and the ugly undercurrent of racism In the mid 1940s 15 year old Molly Justice was stabbed to death in a Saanich park as she walked home one evening The murderer was never charged even though police were virtually certain of his identity for more than 50 years In the 1960s a well known Vancouver radio personality slowly poisoned his wife with arsenic What led him to commit such a horrendous crime Susan has chosen stories that span a century of crime from a 1904 murder in a Victoria Chinatown theater to a modern cold case from Vernon solved through an unusual DNA analysis These intriguing cases show that securing justice is not always easy Prairie Murders Peter B.
