Shroudeaters Maria Arena, 2017. The life of mortals is so mean a thing as to be virtually unlife. Empedocles, Christian Carfax, wants to be immortal. Juliana Celeste, a powerful but embittered French vampire, has the gift he needs. The exchange should be easy enough: his blood, relinquished for eternal life. There's only one problem. For over seventy years, Juliana has endured the Sisyphean burden of The Thirst while watching as everyone and everything she loves has been lost to her. Now the time has come to make her parents, the vampires Callisto and Constantine, pay for their theft by ridding the world of them and the scourge of their kin, the Shroudeaters. But no plan ever evolves as intended, and as the competing desires of Juliana and Christian collide, they will sacrifice lives, loves, and loyalties to gain the ultimate prize.

Juno Loves Legs Karl Geary, 2023-04-18. For readers of Sally Rooney and fans of Shuggie Bain and Just Kids, Juno Loves Legs is the epic and heartbreaking story of a young friendship set in working-class Dublin in the 1980s. Juno Loves Legs is the story of two teens labeled as delinquents: Juno and Legs. They grow up on the same housing estate in Dublin, where spirited, intelligent Juno is ostracized for her poverty, and Legs is persecuted for his sexuality. They find safety only in each other. Set against the backdrop of Dublin in the 1980s, a place of political, social, and religious change, the friends yearn for an unbound life, and together they begin to fight to take up the space of who they truly are. As their defiance reverberates through their lives, the children are further alienated from their surrounding society through acts of bravery and cowardice, both their own and others'. Finding themselves as outsiders, they are feared, coveted, and watched but rarely truly seen. Told through the eyes of Juno, we see the pair begin to navigate the political and oftentimes confusing adult world with honesty and intuition. A country emerging from a dark Catholicism into the wider world of possibilities. Who is invited into modernity and gentrification, and who is left behind? Caught between the rich depth of her intellect and the harsh reality of her life, we follow Juno as she begins to understand how divergent a life lived and a life thought can be. Juno Loves Legs shows the frustration of feeling trapped in a life that is not yours and the ability of friendship to lift us out of our experiences and into a truer version of ourselves It is a novel that reminds us that kindness bravery and love appear in places where they are not always expected and in forms not usually recognised but with a potency that cannot be ignored

Darryl Fisher, 2000-04 The Plague Merchants describes the horrifying feasibility of a genetically engineered virus formed from AIDS and influenza that creates a doomsday weapon. If unleashed in a crowded subway, the resulting plague can sweep across the country, spread by airborne contagion, annihilating every other person. The creator of this weapon of mass destruction is the world renowned and enigmatic molecular biologist Michelle Exeter, cloistered in a testing facility of the Neogenics biotechnology company in the Texas Hill Country. Her clandestine biological weapons research is underwritten by covert Defense Department funds funneled through United States Senator Prentiss Standridge and company CEO Charles Dunn. A delirious Hispanic found wandering the roadside near the research laboratory is rescued by two policemen. His death in the local ER from fulminant lung hemorrhage mystifies physician Hector Morales, and he solicits the aid of Dr. Betty Freeman, a Neogenics director, in identifying the cause of death. Within 72 hours, one of the policemen exposed to the Hispanic dies a similar death, asphyxiating from hemorrhage into his lungs, confirming its infectiousness. When the scientific director of the company discovers the scope of viral weapons production, he is brutally silenced; his death made to appear a suicide. Then Chairman of the board Nobel laureate Hadley Thorne promptly disappears after his visit to the Hill Country research laboratory to shut down the illicit viral weapons program. Dr. Freeman tenaciously pursues the mystery of these deaths and disappearances, suffering the disbelief of her family and police when she accuses Dr. Michelle Exeter of developing a viral warfare weapon. Dr. Exeter, realizing that soon her life's work will be exposed by Betty Freeman and that she will be disarmed by the authorities, rushes to release her deadly recombinant virus in retribution for the Gulf War attack by the United States that killed her unborn child and her mother. Only Betty Freeman can prevent the impending viral epidemic that would wipe out half the United States as the authorities refuse to believe her Cassandra warnings. In a race against the clock, Betty chases Michelle and her engineer father Abdel Azziz from Texas to Washington DC, where Michelle plans to release her deadly air-borne virus at the Washington Mall during the July 4th festivities. In a standoff of biblical proportions, Betty confronts Michelle in the Metrorail subway station beneath the crowded Mall.

Europe and the Other and Europe as the Other Bo Stråth, 2010 This book contributes to the debate on what Europe means by demonstrating the complexities and contradictions inherent in the concept They are seen most clearly when Europe is viewed from a long historical perspective During the closing decades of the twentieth century Europe emerged as one of the main points of reference in both the cultural and the political constructs of the global community An obsession with the concept of European identity is readily discernible This process of identity construction provokes critical questions which the book aims to address At the same time the book explores the opportunities offered by the concept of Europe to see how it may be used in the construction of the future The approach is one of both deconstruction and reconstruction The issue of Europe is closely related in the book to more general issues concerning the cultural construction of community The book should therefore be seen as the companion of Myth and Memory in the Construction of Community which is also published by PIE Peter Lang in the series Multiple Europes The book appears within the framework of a research project on the cultural construction of community in modernisation processes in comparison This project is a joint enterprise of the European University Institute in Florence and the Humboldt University in Berlin sponsored by the Bank of Sweden Tercentenary Fund
