Putting Learning First:

Creating Learning without Limits Mandy Swann, Alison Peacock, Susan Hart, Mary Jane Drummond, 2012-04-16 This book tells the story of how one primary school community worked to build a learning environment that is inclusive humane and enabling for everybody a place free from the damaging effects of fixed ability thinking and practices Drawing on compelling accounts of everyday life in the school it describes how in just a few years the school once in special measures grew into a thriving community with distinctive views of learning curriculum and pedagogy monitoring and accountability that found expression in every aspect of school life The work of the school community was guided by the findings of a previous project Learning without Limits Hart Dixon Drummond and McIntyre 2004 an empirical study of the classroom practice of individual teachers who had rejected the concept of fixed ability Creating Learning without Limits explores what becomes possible when the same ideas and principles are used creatively to guide and inspire whole school improvement This book is not simply a celebration of the success of the school it engages with the struggles and difficulties encountered by the staff as they set about learning to reshape pedagogy and curriculum by reference to their shared values of inclusion social justice and human educability It gives a detailed analysis of how the headteacher harnessed the power of collective action The insights generated by this study have enduring relevance and applicability to people in other contexts for staff groups craving for more equitable school improvement for individual teachers wondering how best to foster children s learning capacity for school leaders and teacher educators who find their values increasingly compromised Creating Learning without Limits takes on one of the most important issues in education today This is a must read for educators policy makers and parents alike Jo Boaler Professor of Mathematics Education Stanford University California Formerly a teacher and researcher at the Universities of London and Sussex This will undoubtedly turn out to be amongst the most important educational books of the decade If you want to know why the standards agenda must inevitably fail and what we might do instead read this book Professor Michael Fielding Institute of Education University of London UK This is an inspiring and reviving book Anne Watson Professor of Mathematics Education University of Oxford UK This book provides a grounded demonstration of the importance of educational principles the most important of which is the understanding that each child s potential for learning is limitless I urge you to let it influence your thinking too Professor Andrew Pollard Institute of Education University of London UK The book deserves a really wide readership Professor Clyde Chitty Institute of Education University of London UK This book is slim in size but hefty in significance Barry Hymer Professor of Psychology in Education Education Faculty University of Cumbria UK A classic for our time it should be read by all who seek approaches to teaching and learning that are free from externally imposed views of ability and potential Professor Lani Florian School of Education University of Aberdeen UK This book could be the catalyst for the educational change that we are all praying for Julie Lilly Head Teacher UK

Reclaiming Opportunities for Effective Teaching Mary Ellen Dunn, 2016-01-07 This book examines the increased standardization and management of community college course outlines in Ontario and the associated decline in the ability of college professors to effectively educate their students Dunn tracks the changes of increased pressure from corporations to privatize public services and make them for profit friendly Interviews of program faculty who have recently been forced to use course outlines for the first time along with critical analyses of a sample course outline and a series of union related texts illuminate the issue Dunn attributes the shift of power in community colleges to various factors which include the ideological work college employees do to support global finance capital the managerial labor which establishes a course outline the textual duties that faculty members facilitate to set up their own ruling and the performance work that faculty members do to execute the textual rules of their prescriptive course outline work In order to rectify the harmful effects of the new standardized and supervised curriculum Dunn identifies areas where effective teaching and learning can be reclaimed

Create Far From Home Win Everywhere Vijay Govindarajan and Chris Trimble This story resonates in organizations of all types public sector private sector and social sector from mammoth corporations to small organizations employing just a few dozen people The parable is about a farm in trouble Bankruptcy or the grim prospect of being acquired by a hostile competitor threaten The farm succeeds only if the team pulls together and innovates The main characters in the story Stella Deirdre Bull Mav Einstein Rambo Maisie and Andrea are all like people you know maybe even yourself The tale includes an unexpected leadership challenge an ambitious call to action a bold idea countless internal obstacles and conflicts fears joys triumphs and even a love interest It s a story that can be enjoyed by anyone How Stella Saved the Farm delivers eight simple lessons to guide innovation initiatives to success It prepares business leaders to avoid some of innovation s most toxic myths teaches how to build the right kind of team and shows how to learn quickly from experience Understanding and Assessing the Charter School Movement Joseph Murphy, Catherine Dunn Shiffman, 2002 Shows how charter schools have changed in the years since their development looks at their role in educational reform and provides background information and details for the future of chartering New Opportunities for Older Workers, 2000-08 What role should older workers play in our future work force when the retirement of the baby boomers starting about 2010 will make tight labor markets commonplace This unprecedented demographic shift calls for a fundamental rethinking about the work force of the future Employer attitudes and policies must change if older workers are to remain in the work force longer This report recommends a pro work agenda for employers policymakers and older workers in 6 areas getting the financial incentives right replacing stereotypes about older workers the training imperative rethinking the org of work getting older workers into new jobs and a strong and flexible safety net Where will I do my pineapples? Gill Kelly, 2011-09-14 Imagine the scenario where a newly appointed Deputy Headteacher in charge of Curriculum is suddenly asked questions like How many RJ45 sockets would you like in your new classroom What type of cabling would you like Cat 4 or 5 Add this to the relentless drive to raise standards as well as organising the timetable teaching doing break duty and offering a friendly ear to staff you get the picture Written with the perspective of a senior leader with many amusing and bizarre stories this book describes how to keep sound educational principles at the heart of a Building Schools for the Future project This book is not about the new building it is about building a whole new school and the struggle against all odds to keep people and learning at the centre of the whole project What came out of the process was a school that had a variety of learning spaces fully trained staff modern ICT and a bespoke year 7 transition curriculum It was the only school building in the country to be delivered on time within budget with a ground breaking CPD programme This is not to say that everything went smoothly There was a lot of pain along the way and many lessons learned about how to manage change Perhaps more significantly Where will I do my pineapples is about people and the potential to change thousands of lives Success is Assured Penny W. Cloft, Michael N. Kennedy, Brian M. Kennedy, 2018-09-03 Success is Assured was born from a pair using those design practices over a century ago The Wright Brothers They set about methodically learning the causal relationships between the different design decisions they needed to make and the performance of the airplane The Wright Brothers fundamentally transformed the front end of development into a sharply focused learning and decision making process and thereby eliminated the late process rework in which their competition was stuck Similarly Toyota built an amazing manual product development system that consistently created a cadence of high quality products that customers want Myriads of Lean principles jargon and tools have been introduced and applied with minimal impact on design loopbacks engineering productivity and knowledge reuse within small to midsize engineering companies and almost no penetration within highly complex engineering companies This book teaches methodologies to relentlessly expose knowledge gaps and trade offs early and optimize results before detailed design begins thereby avoiding the expensive firefighting and engineering rework that consume most of our engineering capacity today This book teaches new thinking and methodologies to convert the chaotic front end of product development into a convergent process of set based learning and continuous innovation a game changer for companies that depend upon a steady flow of innovative products Watch this video and understand how to consistently satisfy your customers on time and on budget Visit www.SuccessIsAssured.com
